Having Fun

BAD TO THE BONE: The ever serious Mr. Combs and the ever quiet Mr. McClure won the applause of all the moment they rode into the gym.

The curriculum here is tough and students can take many upper level classes, but what we remember most about school is that special moment when we laughed so hard we almost died. That moment came when Mr. Combs, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. McClure roared into the gym on cycles. Mr. Collins was also riding something, but we think it was scooter.

A GREAT PEP SESSION: Mr. Wilson and Mr. Collins helped make the pep session an afternoon the students would never forget.

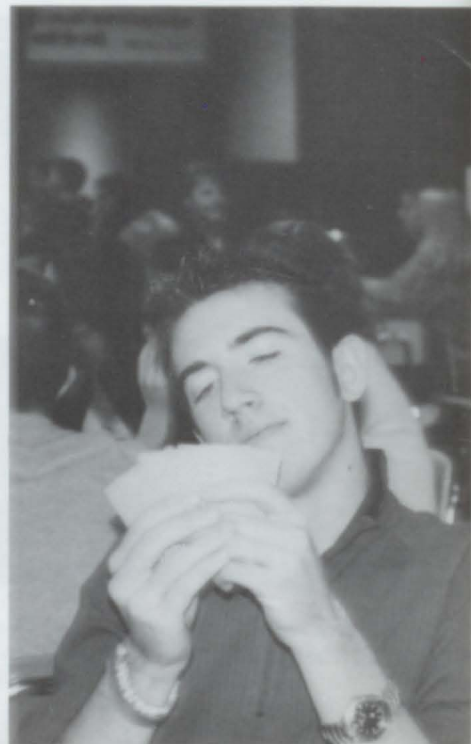

REBEL MANIA: The junior girls let us know what team their backing. Mackenzie Mohler, Emily Richardson, Meagan Burden, Kendall McCarty, Megan Smith, Emily Parsley, and Britteny Monar spell out REBELS. ABOVE: JAILBIRDS: Andrew Jones and Emily Wilkerson come in costume for Halloween. RIGHT.

A GIFT OF LIFE: Rachel Sturgeon donates blood while Dusty Young looks on. The Beta Club sponsors a fall and spring blood drive. RIGHT. WHO ARE THESE, WHO LOOK LIKE TREES? Zach Boop and Donnie Eaves dress up for CAMO DAY. BELOW.

SOME PEOPLE GET REALLY INVOLVED IN GAMES: Most days a group such as the one above can be found in the library during break playing a very competitive game of RISK. Also, people such as Kenny Garrett take cards seriously.

Involvement

BEING WITH FRIENDS: During a break at school or at competition kids just want to be with friends.

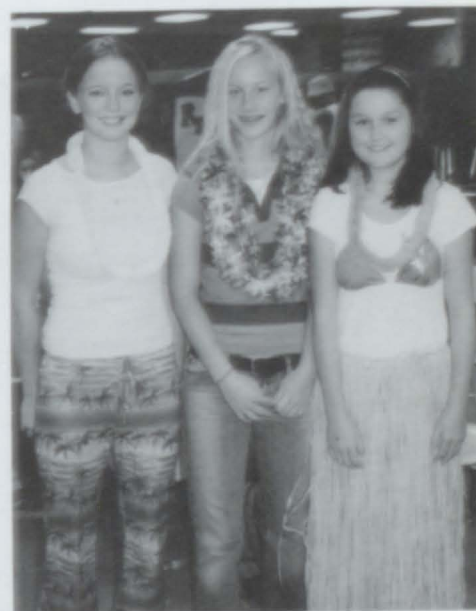

Students spend hours at school doing many things besides going to class. Twice a year the Beta Club holds a blood drive and many people donate. This is an example of the humanitarian side of us. However, we also have a part of us that just craves fun and individuality. We spend our breaks and free time playing cards and other games with friends.

LOVE YOUR OUTFIT! LOVE YOUR HAIR! Laura Gardner and Russell Christian both look great for Halloween and Jon Bretz sports a new hairdo.

KING AND QUEEN: Donnie Turpin and Erin Ray.

Fall

Homecoming

BUT MOM: Joyce Shelby attempts to dunk her daughter Brandi Shelby.

Fall Homecoming came early and the weather was still really hot, which made all the outdoor activities very inviting. As usual the teacher dunking booth was a big success. The rookie teachers all got the opportunity to be initiated to the teaching staff with a big splash. Brandi Shelby, even experienced having both her students and her mother throwing balls at her.

THEME DAYS: Adam Jones, Dane Winkler, Kaitlin Rainwater, and Amanda Blake all get in the spirit of Homecoming.

UNDERCLASSMEN COURT: Luke Meredith, Lara Hancock, Jim Sarver, Carrie Parsley, Jon Rodgers, Ashley Sanders, Mackenzie Mohler, Dustin Jones, Megan McMican, Kyle Shelton, Kari Weatherholt, and Walt Robinson.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS: Nick Pagragan and Stephanie Hancock.

Rebels Perform Dickens'

A Christmas Carol

UNWANTED VISITOR: Alison Rohde, the ghost of Christmas past, leads Scrooge, Jared Kelley, on a voyage to visit the man he used to be.

Two new directors, Amy Cox and Jenny Schroeder, headed the drama department. They brought with them innovative ideas in stage production. Their debut presentation, A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens, utilized limited but effective scenery, and relied on the strength of the dialogue to carry the show.

The costumes added to the visual presentation of the production. The cast included many veteran actors who impressed the audience with their professional demeanor.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL: Nick Yeager as Bob Cratchit holds his son Tiny Tim, played by Drake Whitney.

Josh Embry, as Jacob Marley, shakes his chains.

KING AND QUEEN: Jon Bretz and Amanda Embry

Winter Homecoming

Winter Homecoming is always a more formal affair than fall homecoming. The young ladies wear long dresses and look "oh, so elegant," while their handsome escorts usually rent a tuxedo. The students, however, do just the opposite for the week before the royal festivities. One day they wear pajamas to school and then the next day they don bizarre combinations that clash.

GREAT TIE: Stephanie Wirthwein and David Woolsey both wear their favorite tie. ABOVE.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS: Dusty Young and Ashley Decker

Broadway Comes To South Spencer Auditorium

Kiss Me Kate

Watching Kiss Me Kate is like watching two different shows at the same time. The popular Broadway musical is based on the Shakespearian comedy The Taming of The Shrew. A "shrew" is a sharp-tongued female and in Shakespeare's play her name was Kate. The musical version is actually a story within a story. The show about a group of actors takes place in the 1940's, but the production the actors are presenting is The Taming of the Shrew. Thus the action takes place in two different eras.

LADIES' MAN: Bobby Lawrence is surrounded by beautiful actresses played by Kelly Stallings, Ashley Sanders, Lisa Lindauer, and Jessica Chambers.

STAGE CREW: Ashley Rumley is working hard pounding that nail into the play's clothes rack.

OPEN IN VENICE: Nick Yeager, Elizabeth Little, Emily Cox, and Keve Bates are ready for the opening of "Taming of the Shrew." LEFT.

SWINGING TIME: Kelly Stallings and Josh Embry dance the night away when it's "Too Darn Hot." BELOW.

BRUSHED UP: Hats off to a wonderful performance of Shakespeare by the gangsters Jared Kelley and Wayne Lauer.

YES SIR: Amanda Blake and Theresa Hagedorn listen closely to the General's, Chris Mills, orders.

The Senior Prom

A Moment Like This

MAKING AN ENTRANCE: Meagan Burden and Jon Bretz are announced at the Grand March.

PERFECT COUPLE: Amanda Embry and Kyle Magill share a special moment at prom.

PUCKER UP: Tessa Partridge finds David Gunn simply irresistible.

SAY CHEESE: Stephanie Slaton and Brad Lillpop take time out to share a smile.

STUNNING SENIORS: Tessa Partridge, Georgie Wilhelmus, Sarah Stallings, and Jaharidan Calhoun show off all their beautiful prom dresses.

Strong Record For Rebs

A combination of a good running attack and a strong defense caused the Rebs to start the season with four convincing wins over Princeton, Gibson Southern, Tell City, and Tecumseh.

The first setback came at Southridge on a rain soaked field, but the Rebs bounced back the following week to trounce Pike Central. Then the Rebs traveled to Owensboro to take on the undefeated Catholic Aces, but came up short of a victory.

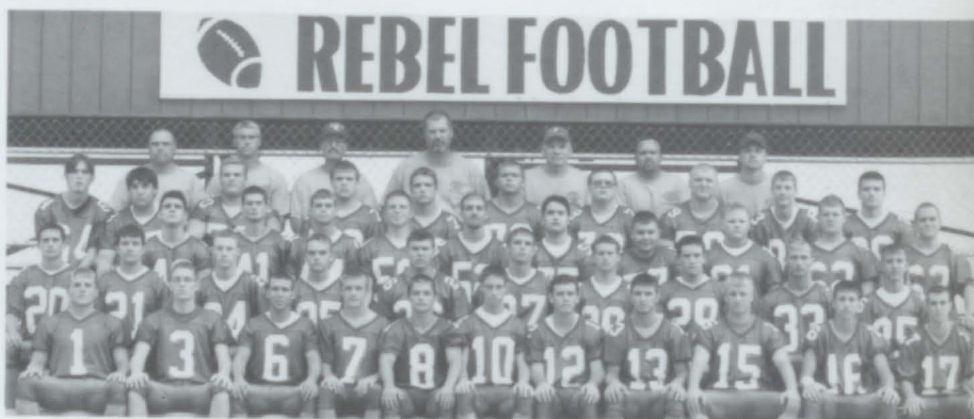

On Senior Night, the Rebels rolled over a weaker North Posey team. The final regular season contest was against archrival Heritage Hills. The Patriots came into the game undefeated, but the Rebels showed they weren't scared and the score was tied at 7 to 7 at the end of the first quarter. H.H. capitalized on Rebel mistakes and turnovers in the second quarter to score 28 unanswered points to put the game away. The loss put the Rebs with 6 wins and 3 losses at the end of regular season play.

GOOD TOURNEY RUN

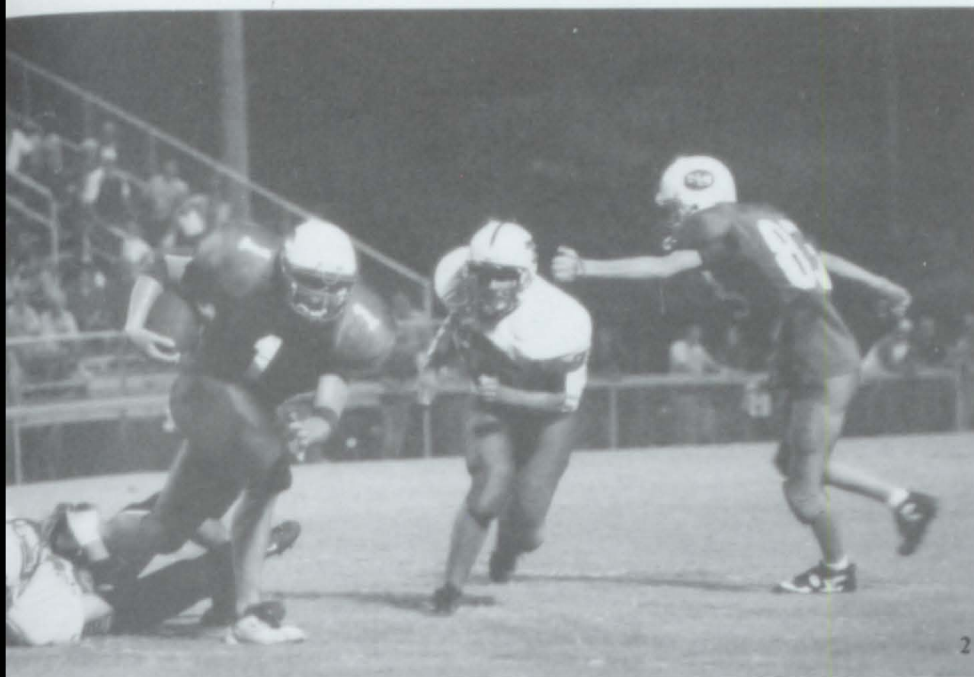

The Rebs opened up sectional play on the road at North Knox. They were not distracted by cold, muddy conditions on the field, as they blew out the Warriors 76-0. PAC rival Tell City visited the Rebels in the second round of the sectional. South Spencer gritted out a tough 19-13 victory over the Marksmen. The victory put the Rebels in the sectional championship game for the first time in five years. In the game South Spencer had a rematch against the Southridge Raiders. The Rebels played a strong game but came up a little short in a 18-9 loss to the favored Raiders. The loss ended the Rebels season at 8-4.

JV CONTINUES SUCCESS

The JV team continued their recent run of dominance. They cruised through the first 7 games of the season before falling to Heritage Hills in the season's final game.

Sanders & Nance Honored

Both Named PAC All Conference Honorable Mention

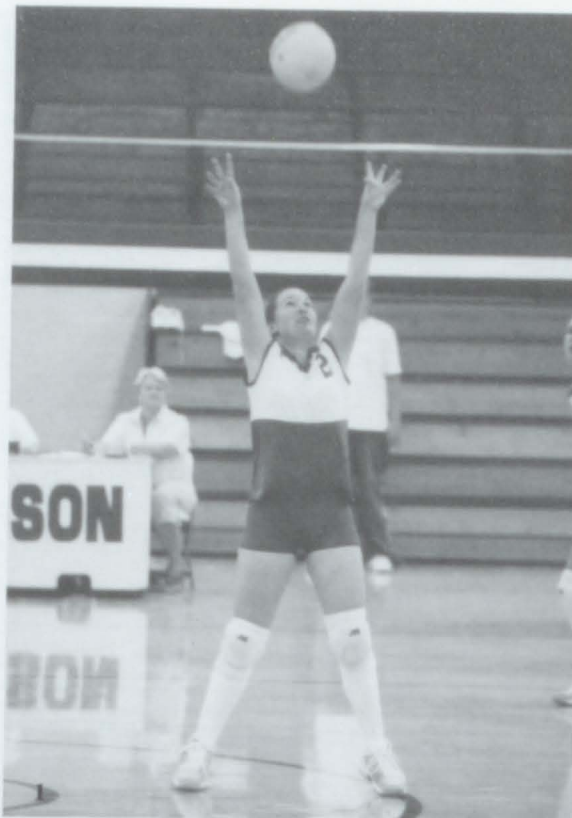

With a predominately underclassman team, the volleyball season started off rocky, but the team never ceased to keep improving every game. The Lady Rebels main offset was not the lack of ability, but the mental rollercoaster that they had a difficult time escaping.

Stephanie Hancock, the captain of the Lady Rebels, was the only senior on the team. Stephanie showed a great deal of leadership and served as the team captain.

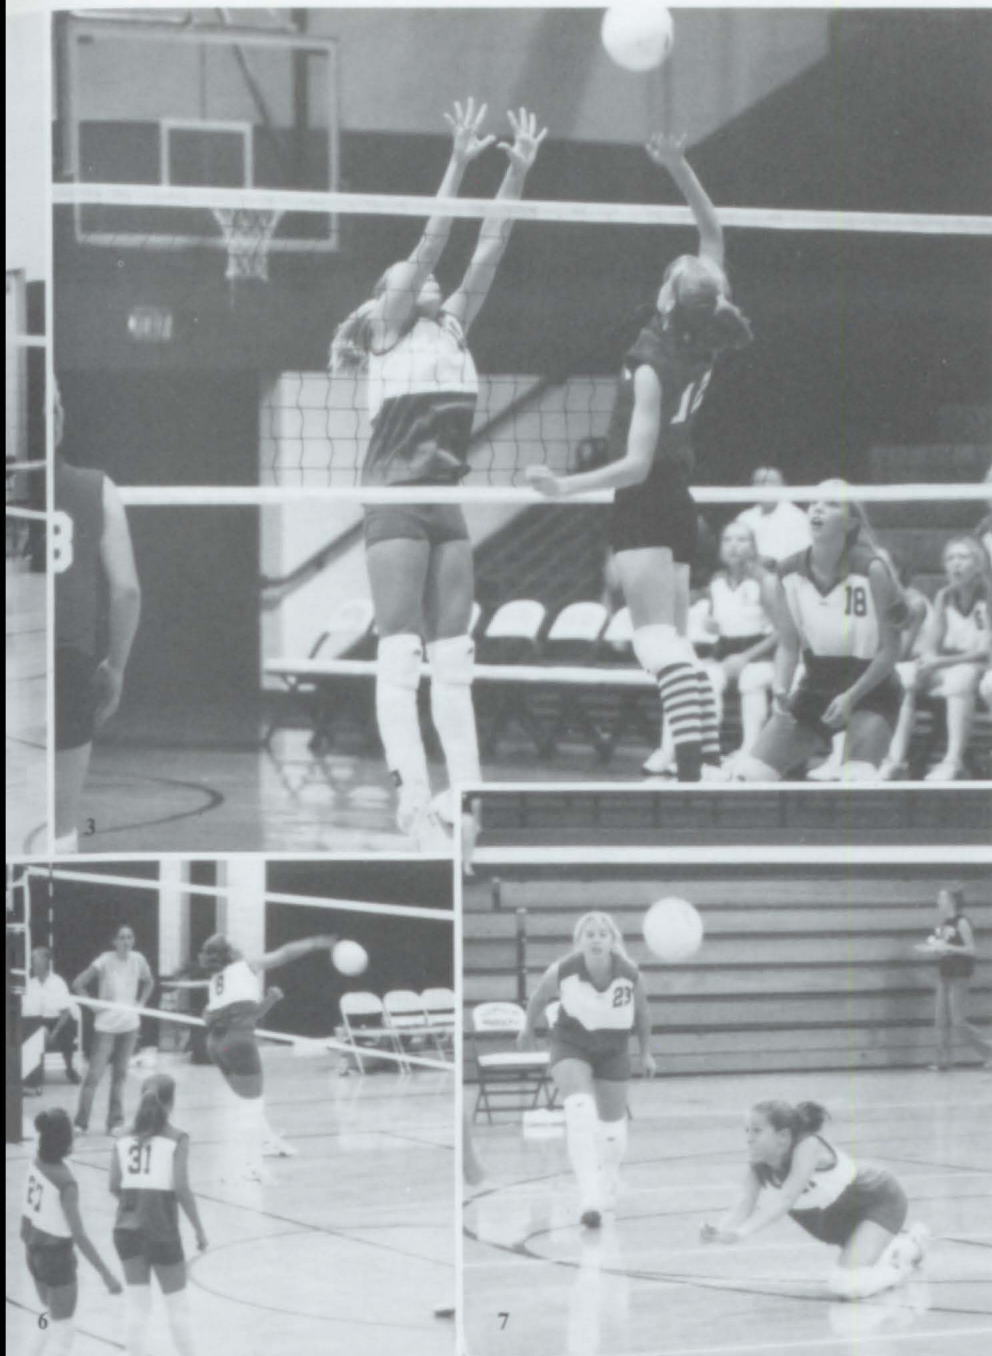

Junior, Tara Nance, led the team in kills. Junior, Heather Claise, recorded 179 assists. Junior, Ashley Sanders, led the team with 55 blocks, and junior, Brittney Monar, led the way in digs.

The junior varsity team, being made up of eight freshmen and three sophomores, also came up short with a losing season. Joanna Butcher joined the team midseason and led the team in assists. Laura Gardner led the team in kills; Hannah Singleton in blocks, Andrea Goffinet in digs, and Erin Zehr with the highest serve percentage.

Post season honors were earned by two juniors. Ashley Sanders and Tara Nance were both named honorable mention to the all-conference team.

Valentine Goes To State Finals

Both Teams Make Semi-State Three Years Straight

For the third consecutive year both the cross country teams advanced to the semi-state round of IHSAA competition. Senior, Kyle Valentine, individually advanced to the state level.

In order to reach this accomplishment both teams spent hours running in the hot summer sun. Then each team had to finish in the top five in both the sectional and the regional.

INVITATIONALS

For the second year the Rebels hosted their own invitational and both teams finished in second place. Then the senior boys went on to make history in the Gibson Southern Invitational. For the fourth consecutive year the Rebels won and were the first school to do so.

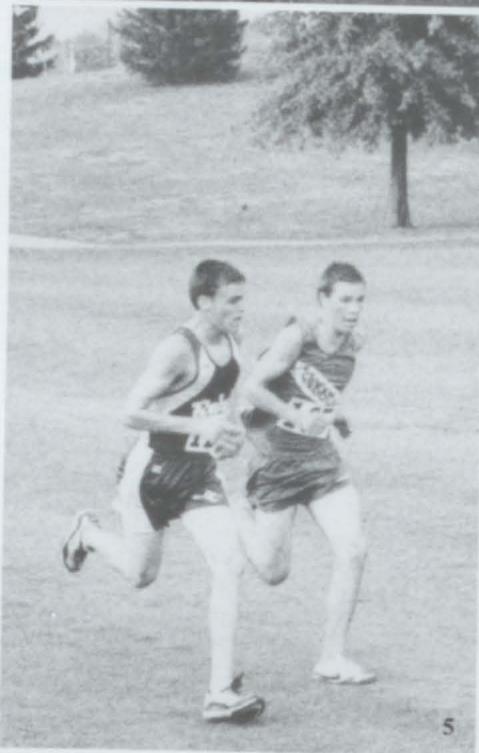

At the PAC meet both the boys' and girls' teams had two All-Conference runners. Kyle Valentine was second and Zach Boop was third. Erin Ray was second and Kendra Goldman was fourth.

POST SEASON

The sectional was the next big meet and both teams finished third, which allowed them to advance. At the regional the boys finished third and the girls narrowly missed coming in first.

At the semi-state Kyle Valentine finished ninth, which allowed him to run in the state finals.

The girls finished the season with a record of 57-30 and boys finished with a record of 64-39.

Kyle Valentine makes school history by being the first cross country runner to go to STATE.

"Cross Country was a great experience for me in high school. My senior year was by far the best. I never thought I would run at State, but if you put everything you have into something, anything can happen." — Kyle Valentine

Jason Scales took the helm of the boys' tennis squad. The team had just one senior, Nick Pagragan who played on the number one doubles team. The number one singles spot was filled by Ryan Turner. Right behind him at number two singles was Michael Martin. Most of team consisted of younger players.

Christy Yeager took over as girls' tennis coach. Like the boys' team the girls' team had only one senior, Jennifer Bunch, who played at the number one doubles position. Elizabeth Little, also a senior, served as manager.

As a team the girls won two matches. Brittney Monar, the number one singles player, accumulated the most wins for the season. The young team made it through the first sectional round before facing defeat.

Mayne Says Goodbye Swimmers Improve Times

The swim season consisted of funny moments, sad moments and successful moments. Everyone will remember the time the starting block collapsed at Tecumseh and took MaQuade Eastwood with it. Also, everyone on the team will remember Nick Pagragan's "supposedly broken toe."

Practices at 5:30 a.m. would have to fit into the classification of sad moments and so would the resignation of head coach Rick Mayne.

Most all of the swimmers improved and managed to cut times off individual bests. Team captains for the boys' team were Jordan York and Jon Rodgers. Larissa Hurm was the captain for the girls.

Kyle Magill Makes All- Star Team

Rebel Host Own Holiday Tourney

The Rebels showed continual improvement and good effort throughout the season despite their disappointing 10-13 record. They played with good intensity throughout the year. However, the Rebels seemed to have trouble putting four solid quarters together.

Time and time again the team would play well for three quarters only to blow the lead in one bad period, against tough competition. They ended their season with a tough first round loss in the sectional opener against eventual state runner-up, the Forest Park Rangers

ALL-CONFERENCE

Kyle Magill broke the school record for most 3-point field goals in his career with 196. He was also selected for the All-Conference team and to play in the HBCA All Star Classic. Magill led Southwestern Indiana in scoring for the second consecutive season.

Jesse Howell and Andy Harpenau were named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

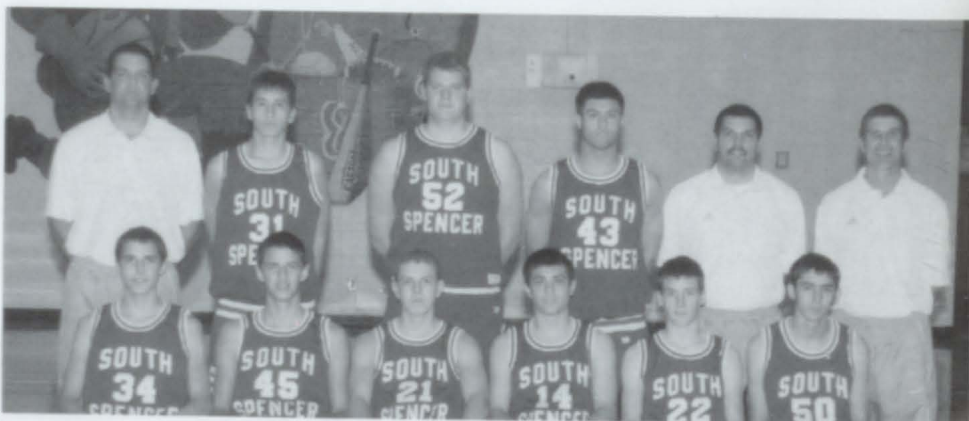

REBELS HOST HOLIDAY TOURNEY

The Rebels hosted the first annual Spencer County Holiday Classic over Christmas Break. They won their opening game against Hancock County only to fall in the next two. In the second game of the tournament the Rebels played Ohio County from Kentucky and suffered a tough loss. They had a lead the whole game only to see it slip away in the final quarter. The Rebels squared off against county rival Heritage Hills in the final game, but the Patriots were too much for the Rebels.

Young Advances To State

Defeats Mater-Dei Man To Advance

The Rebels experienced a sluggish start to the season, but still managed to show much poise at the Turkey Classic.

Steadily showing improvement as the season progressed they moved on to win the Corydon Invitational once again.

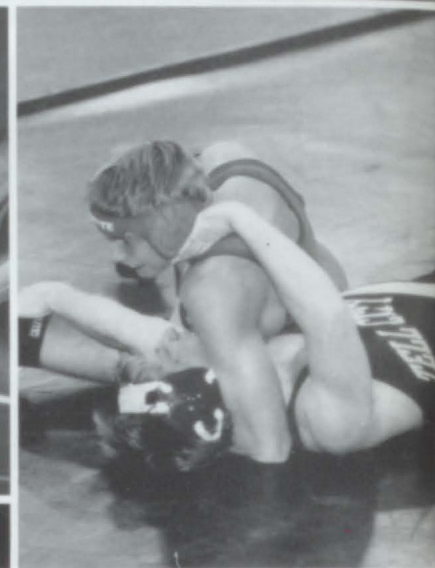

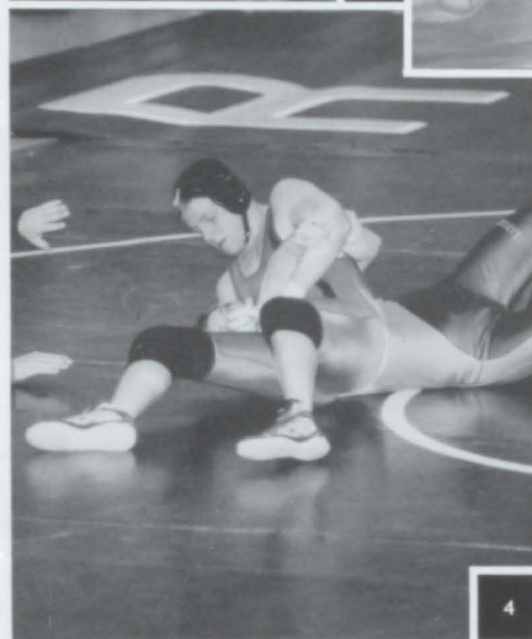

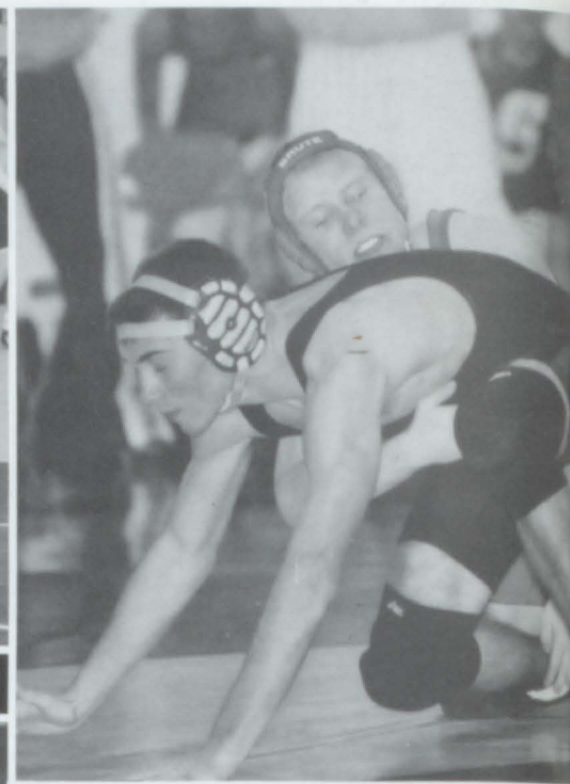

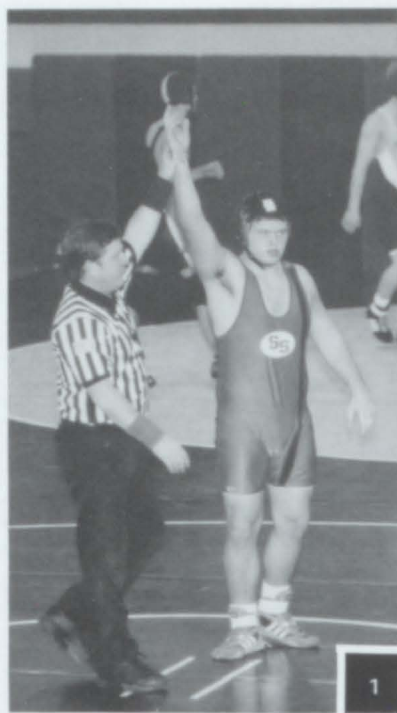

SECTIONAL

The Rebels really got it together by tournament time. Six wrestlers made it out of the sectional and went on to regional competition. Regional qualifiers were Dusty Young, senior; Travis Newton, Tyler Lockyear, Robbie Philhower, juniors; and Travis Cross and Andrew Jones, sophomores.

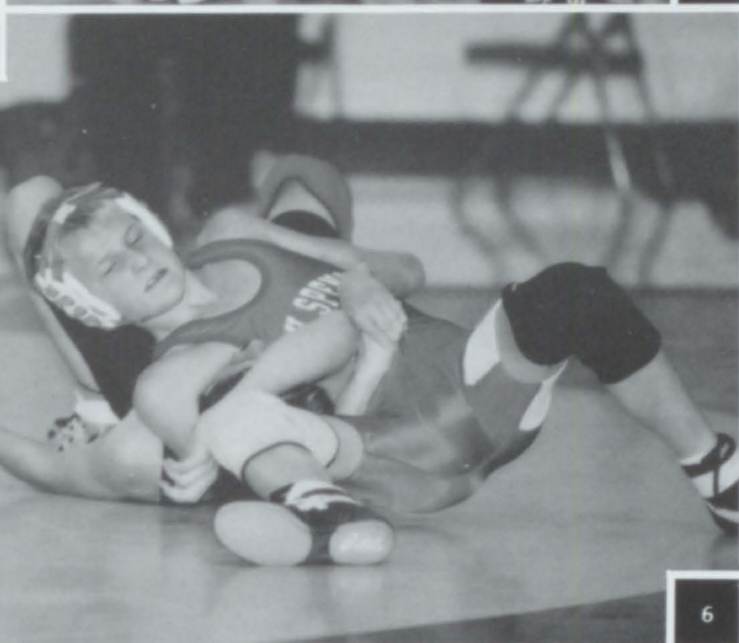

Dusty Young then moved on to battle his way to the top to claim the semi-state championship. Dusty's name goes down in the South Spencer record books as the first wrestler to make it to state competition.

IN CONTROL. Duty Young manhandles his competition in a semi-state round to advance to state.

"This was an unbelievable season. I accomplished things that I didn't think I could achieve. Winning semi-state the way I did and being the first wrestler from South Spencer to advance to state made my senior year really special."

Cheer Team Split Into Two Varsity Squads

The cheer squad was led this year by nine seniors, five girls and four boys. The season started in the summer when the cheer team attended camp at Vincennes University. This gave everyone a chance to get to know each other, come together as a team, and to learn new routines.

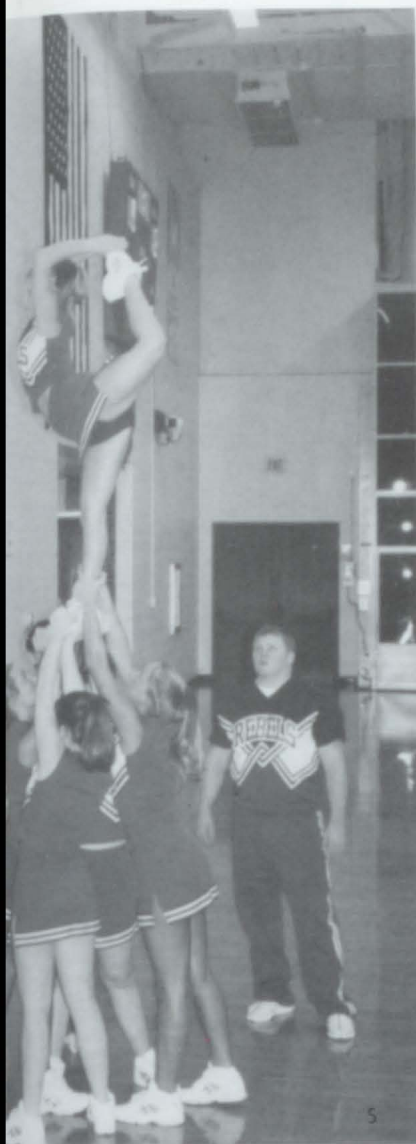

During football season the squad consisted of thirteen girls. Then during basketball season seven guys were added to the cheer team. Then two varsity squads were formed. Both squads cheered all boys' home games and equally divided the boys' away games and the girls' home and away games.

One Run Closes Season

A heartbreaking loss to Memorial stings girls

It took a perfect game to oust the Rebels from the sectional. After defeating the Tell City Marksmen in the opening game of the sectional a positive Rebel team took on Evansville Memorial. The Memorial pitcher threw a perfect game, but Rebel pitcher Ashley Like hung in the game the entire way. It took just one run by Memorial to claim victory and the final score was one-zero.

The girls had built a positive momentum going into the sectional after winning their last three games. Pitching for the Rebels came primarily from Ashley Like and Jacque Carpenter. When she wasn't pitching Jacque spent her time on the other side of the plate catching.

Jeremy Kuester Named All State

Using solid pitching, good defense, and timely hitting the Rebels raced out to a 17-3 record to start the year. With all of their quality wins they have been ranked in the class 2A coaches poll throughout the season. They ended the year at 23-6.

The Rebs had several key victories against good teams. One key victory was a 8-6 extra inning win against the #2 ranked Forest Park Rangers; South Spencer was ranked #3 going into the game.

Along with success came anguish. At the last regular season game senior, Matt Martin collided with fellow teammate Jeremy Kuester and suffered a broken leg that put him in the hospital for several days and out of action for the sectional.

The Rebs finished the regular season by clinching the Conference and landing four players on the all Conference team: Cory Hayden, infield; Jeremy Kuester, pitcher; Shawn Kuester, catcher; Matt Martin, outfield. Kerrick Cron and Kyle Rust were named to the Honorable Mention team.

SECTIONAL

The Rebs faced Forest Park in their opening game and came out on top, 2-1. Then they faced Southridge in a contest that went into eight innings. The Rebs came out on top, 4-2. Junior, Bryan Zehr had the game winning two-run single, which came after the Rebs loaded the bases. Then to capture the sectional title the Rebs trounced Perry Central 18-1.

Freshman, Shawn Kuester had four hits in the game and senior, Kyle Rust had three hits and a homerun. Five Rebels were named to the All Sectional Team: Kerrick Cron, Cory Hayden, Jeremy Kuester, Shawn Kuester, and Kyle Rust. Shawn Kuester was Sectional MVP. Sophomore, Jeremy Kuester was named to the all State team and to the All Southwestern Indiana team.

Golfers Enjoy The Year

*Both teams hold positive
of the season.*

For the girls the season got off to a rocky start against Southridge. However, the troubles did not last long, because the Rebels came out on top with two powerful wins against Corydon Central and Tecumseh. The young team, led by juniors Aimee Robinson and Megan Smith, finished the season with a record of 3-5, the most wins this team has had so far. Coach Alstadt's goal for the girls was for them to improve each day, and improve they did, by beating their sectional seeding and coming out 11th in the match.

The boys' team performed under a new coach, Bill Fogle. In several meets the Rebels were strong contenders and came close to triumph, but victory eluded them. The rain shortened PAC meet found the Rebels in seventh place. The highlight of the year came while playing at Jasper, where the Rebels defeated both Boonville and Forest Park.

YOU CAN

No matter where you go from here...

No matter how far you get...

Look to this patch.

This is the patch of those who have gone, and still will rise.

This is the patch of those with that fire in their eyes.

The fire of freedom that brightly burns,

Freedom, for which your heart yearns.

Freedom to speak...

Freedom to do...

Freedom that means so much to you.

Freedom from fear of the unjust,

Freedom from tyranny's mighty lust.

This patch is a military patch you see, it belongs to someone who'll watch over you and me.

Not in some distant Fort named something or other, but right here at home, it could be your brother.

Wishing you all the best from Cco 1st battalion 152nd Infantry
"COUGARS"

If you would like information on how you can wear this symbol of freedom, or others like contact SGT Jason Gaynor at (812) 547-4558x17, or e-mail michael.gaynor@usarec.army.mil.

Spring Fever

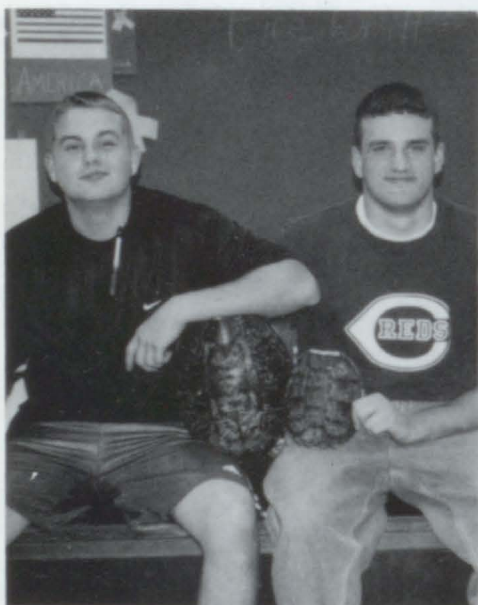

Spring causes our minds to think of the outdoors, prom, and graduation. One other important concern that was in the minds of students and staff in the spring of 2003 was the number of American soldiers still stationed in the Middle East. All around the school people could see yellow ribbons boldly displayed. Also, most of the doors were decorated.

DANCING MEN: Sean Nance and A.J. Ambs had an opportunity to display their dancing ability at the prom.

LOVELY COUPLES: Cassie Parker and her date David Woolsey and Amy Bowman and her date Josh Embry looked terrific at the prom.

CATCHING SNAPPERS: Coleman Sorgius and Roos display the remains of two snapping turtles they captured and cleaned. ABOVE LEFT, PATIO WEATHER: In the spring many students prefer to spend time on the sunny patio rather in the commons. Brittany Monar, MacKenzie, Jessica May and Meagan Brown enjoy the sunshine.

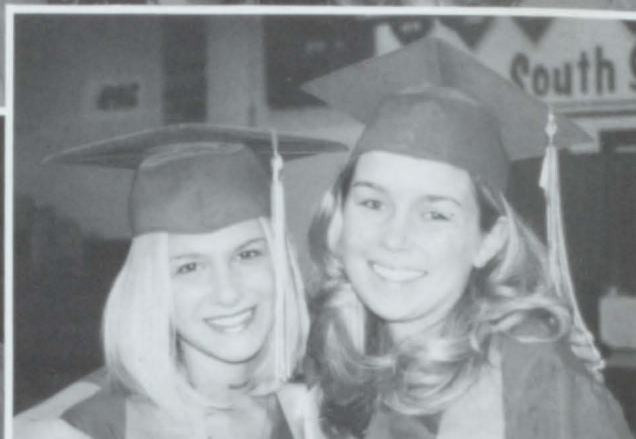

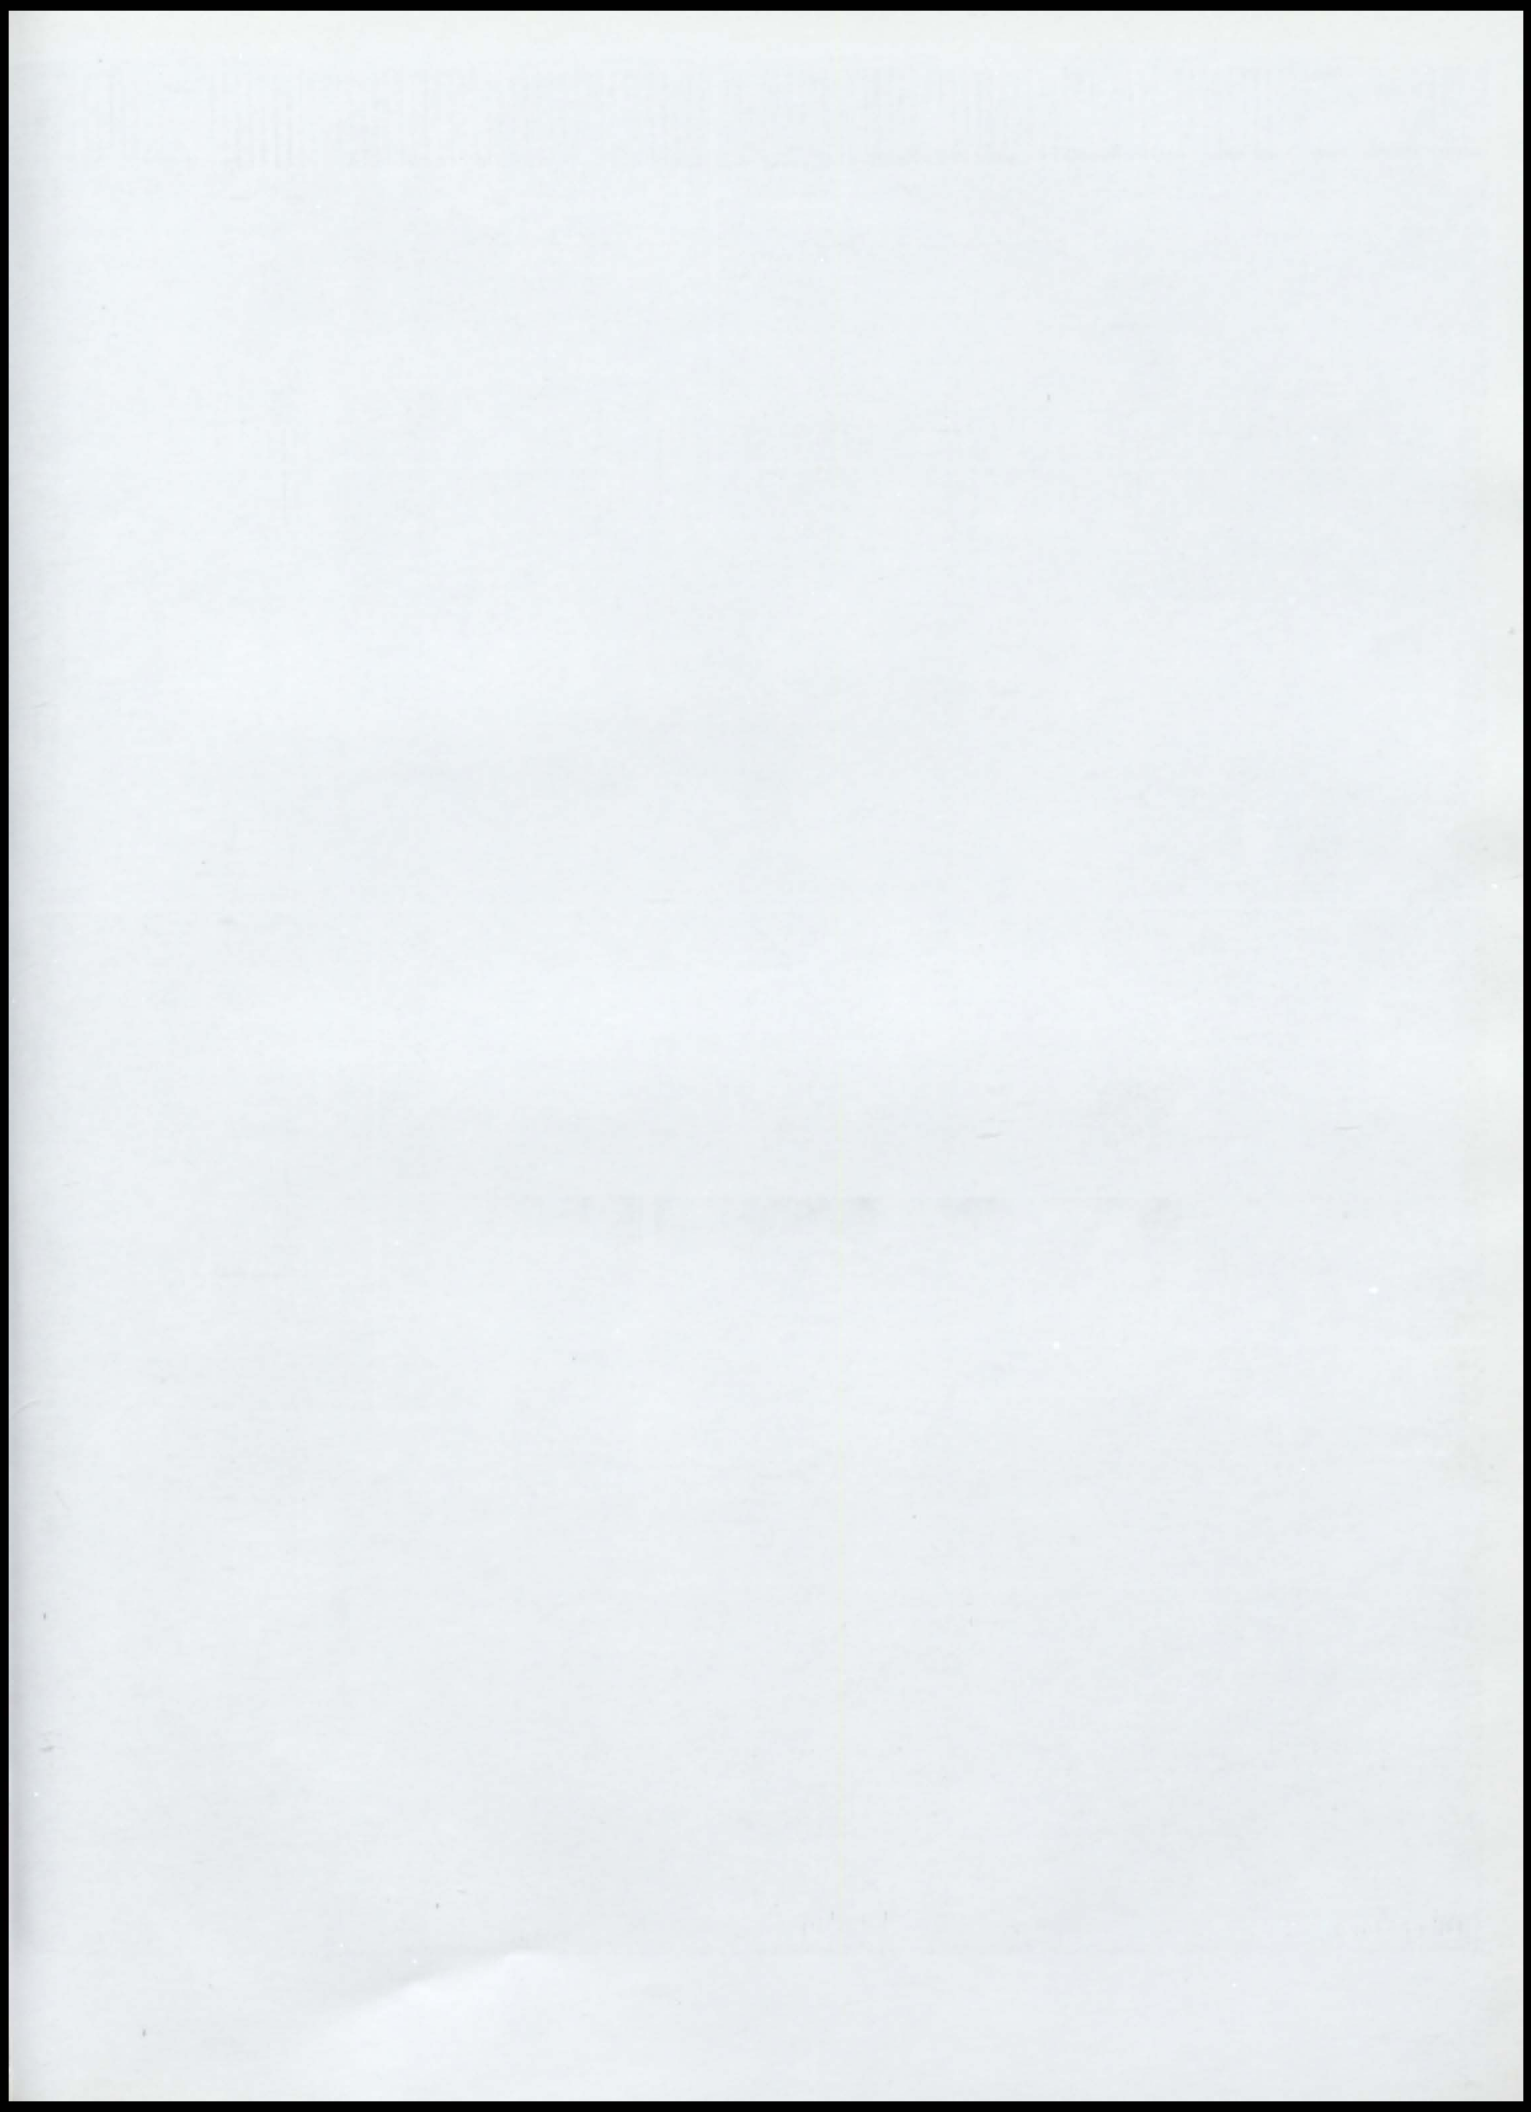

AFTER PROM: After a long evening of looking glamorous Jaharidan Calhoun, Georgie Wilhelmus, and Stephanie Hancock change back into casual wear for the after prom.

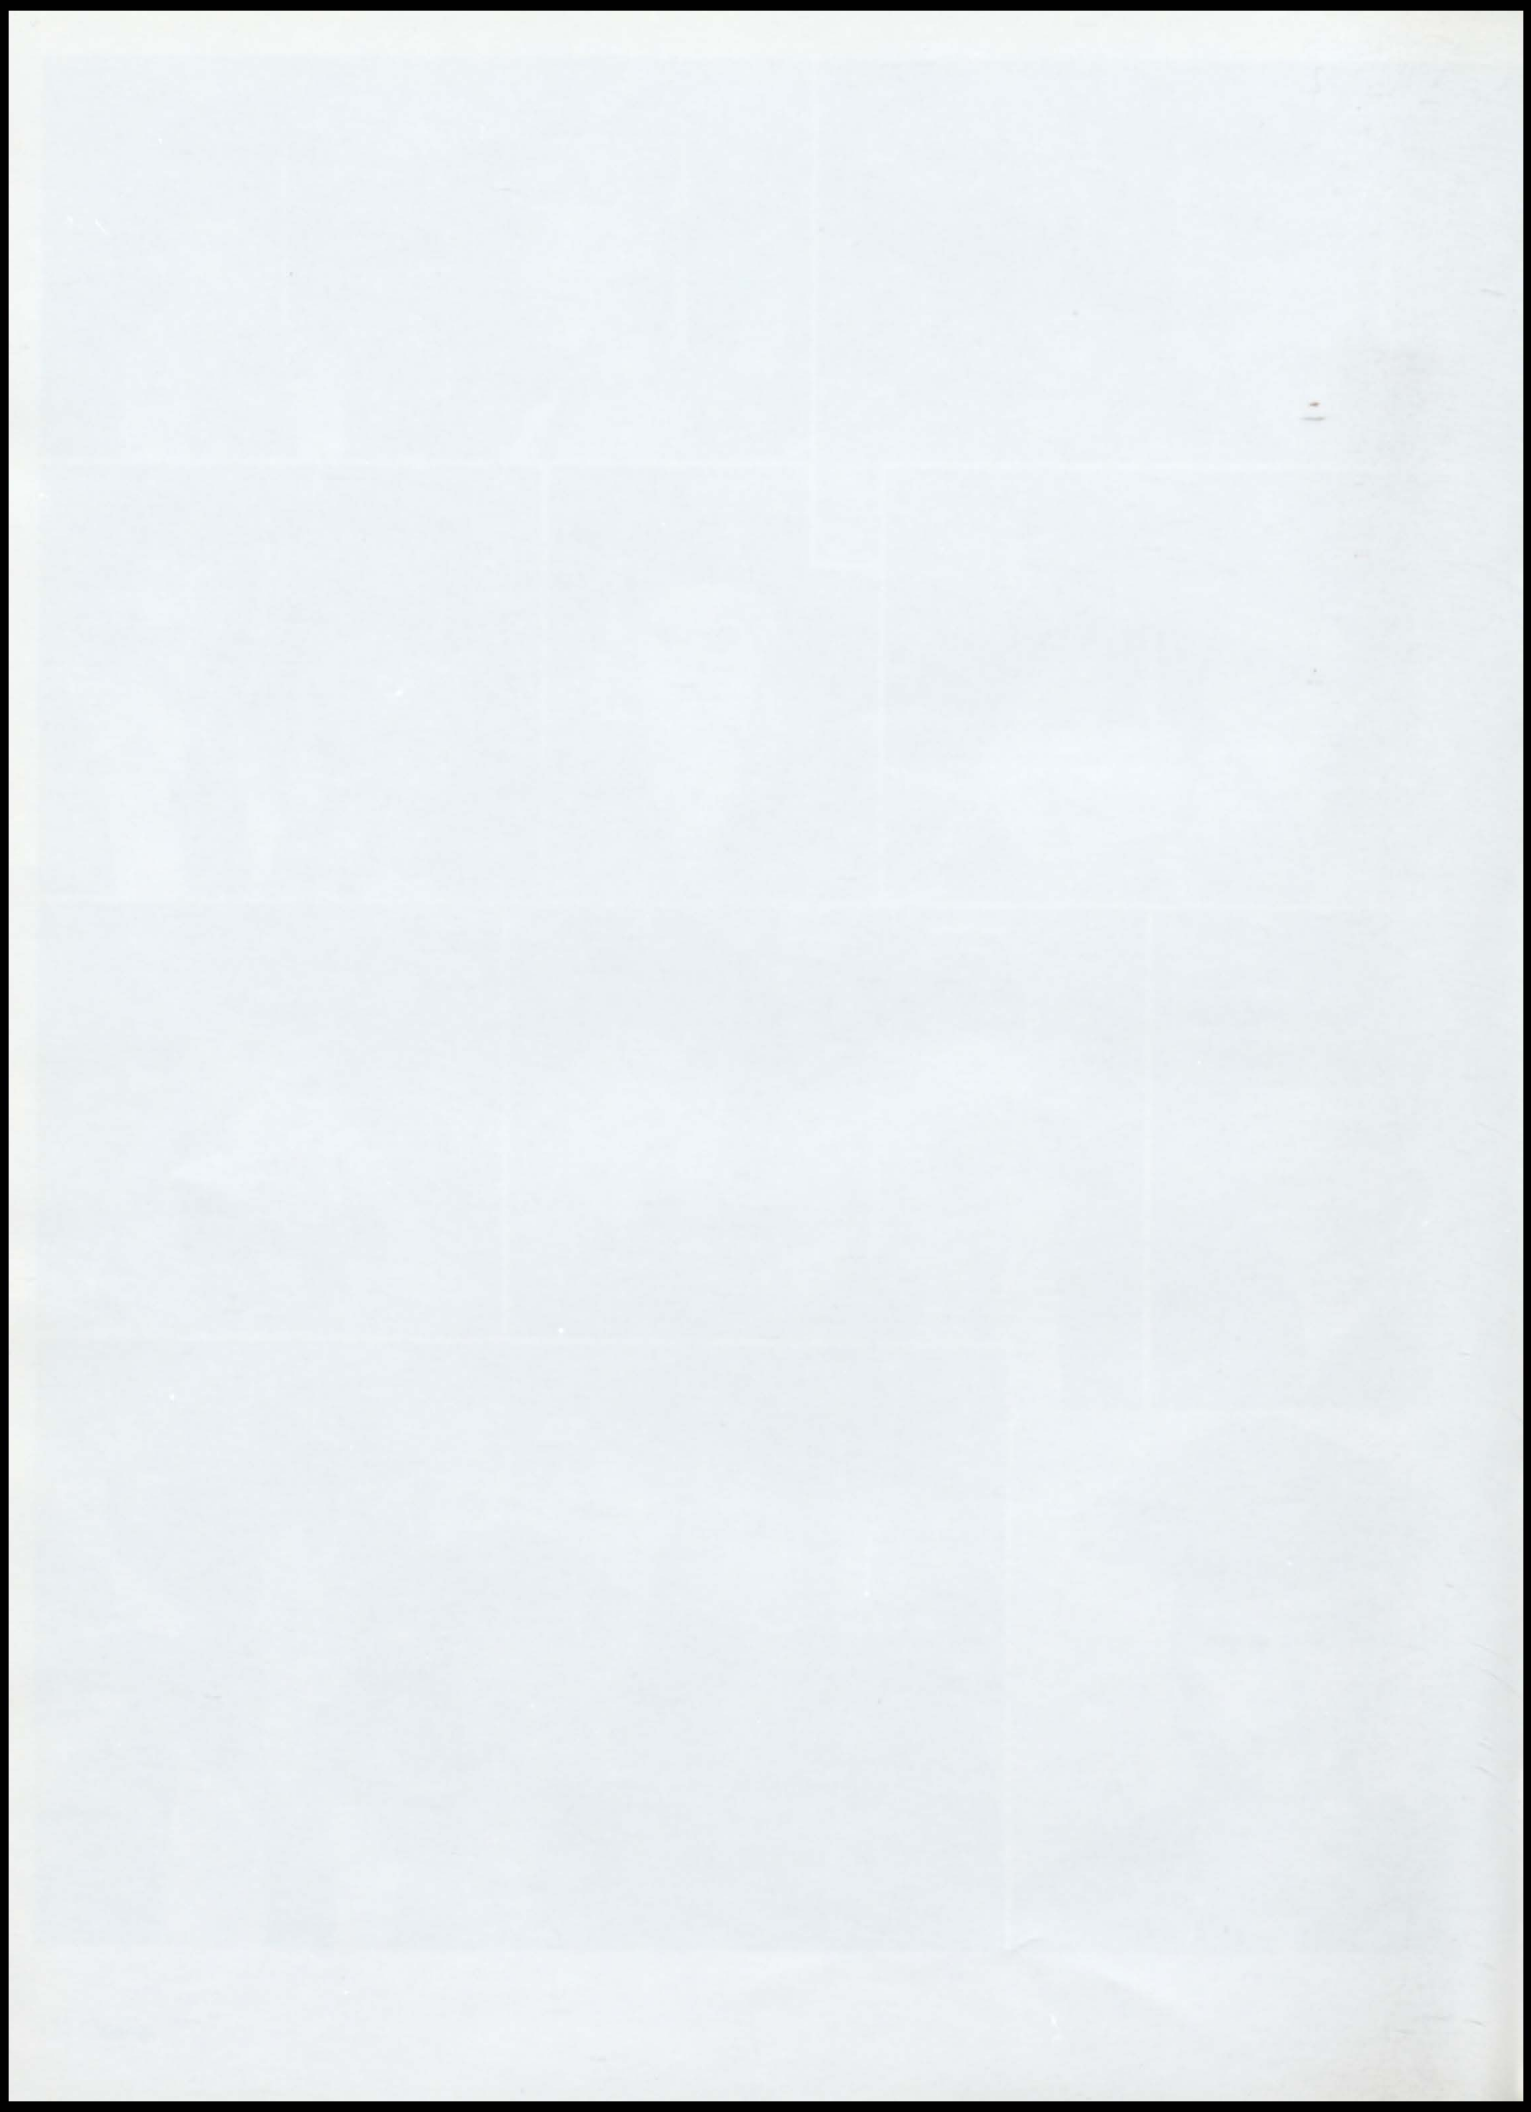

KEEP THE LIGHT BURNING: The custodians create a dramatic door display in honor of our troops in the Middle East.

LOOKING FASHIONABLE IN THE RAIN FOREST: Jenny Yearby was chosen by AEP for a trip to the rain forest. Here she shows us what she plans to wear in order to fight off insects. LEFT. DARE ROLE MODELS: Erin Ray, Drew Ayer, Jon Drew, and Kendra Goldman were honored for their work with the DARE program. ABOVE.
