The Way It Was ...

One of the outstanding memories of the annual 8th grade trip included the view of the New York skyline. Little did this group of 8th graders know that two years later the skyline of New York would be changed forever.

SOPHOMORES VISIT NEW YORK AS PART OF 8TH GRADE TRIP. Julie Vaal, Stephanie Slayton, Lacey Houle, Ashley Spencer, Cassi Parker, Sarah Collins, Jaharidan Calhoun, Georgie Wilhelmus, Samantha Payton, and Crystal Lawrence are photographed with the World Trade Center towering in the background.

◆A MOMENT OF SILENCE. During half-time of the Southridge football game the players from both teams remained on the field and joined with everyone present in a candlelight ceremony to remember the victims of September 11th. ABOVE.

◆NATIONAL UNITY. Our school joined the rest of our country by flying the American flag at half mast. LEFT.

New & Old Merge

Aquarium greets visitors as they enter front entrance.

Anyone who walked into the main lobby could not help but notice the new aquarium positioned atop a custom built oak pedestal. The money for the new addition to the school came from the Istep award money.

TRICK OR TREAT: Amy Werkmeister and Richard Taylor use their imaginations when dressing up for Halloween.

Even though some things around the school may change, many traditions continue with full force. The annual Halloween parade always gets lots of participation by wannabe ghouls and goblins.

The custom of stacking vitapup cups is an activity that promises to turn into a time honored tradition.

STRIKE A POSE: Joanna Butcher and Jeremy Wilcox get dressed up for Halloween.

BATGIRLS: Katlan Burden, Meghan Brown, and Savannah Boop go all out on Halloween.

How High Can We Go???

Students learn early that recycling is a noble thing to do, so after finishing a delicious vitapup, it seems sinful to throw away the container.

NEW CLASSROOM: Amanda Lester, Robin Higdon, and Kim Deal relax while studying in Mr. Stoermer's class. His room is located in the new addition right next to the weight room.

HANGING OUT WITH FRIENDS: No matter what changes happen at school, students will always like to spend time with friends. Jacob Pagragan, Chris Cross, Nick Pagragan, Jennifer Beard, Jeremy Wilson, and Ronnie Howell have fun socializing during break.

SETTING THE STANDARD: Matt Broeker, Dusty Young, Eric Wink and John Obermeier hold the vita pup stacking record.

OPEN WIDE: Joey Collins is unaware of the trick Amanda Lambert and Mrs. Grose are about to play on him.

SENIOR COURT: BACK ROW: Zach Lawrence, Jonathan Myers, Kyle Lashley, Eric Morgan, Matt Small. MIDDLE ROW: Ashley Shourds, Rachel Keith, Erin Smith, Carrie Bruggenschmidt, Stephanie Rose. FRONT ROW: Nathan Kuester, Tai Martin.

HAIL TO THE KING AND QUEEN: Eric Morgan and Stephanie Rose were elected the 2001 football King and Queen.

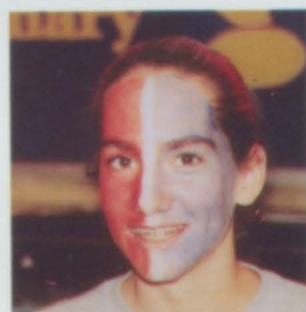

A Royal Time

Fall Homecoming Brings Students Outside During Lunch

One of the best weeks of the year happens just before the Fall Homecoming football game. Many activities take place outside by the patio during lunch.

The teacher dunking booth always draws a line of students eager to drench their favorite or not so favorite teacher.

A close favorite to the dunking booth is the car smashing attraction. A fun way to take out some pent up hostility during the school day is to pound a few dents into a wrecked car.

PAINTED FACES: Amanda Payne and Nikki Lindsey show off their Rebel Pride.

TWIN DAY: Danielle Adamic and Tabitha Jump dress as twins and so do Tessa Partridge and Brittany Kirkpatrick.

A ROYAL COUPLE: Matt Small and Erin Smith were selected as the 2001 Football Prince and Princess.

DRAFTING A DIRECTOR: The school principal, Keve Bates, drafts Our Miss Brooks, Rachel Keith, to direct the school play; an eager drama student, Theresa Hagedorn, nods in approval.

COULD THIS LEAD TO LOVE? Miss Brooks, Rachel Keith, a high school English teacher and Coach Hugo, Jacob Broerman, discover that they have more in common than just a love of teaching.

Our Miss Brooks

The Drama Club presented the classic 1950's play for the fall production. The plot, about the headaches of producing a high school play, seemed to be just as relevant today as it was fifty years ago.

THE VOICE OF AUTHORITY: An important member of the Board of Education played by Stephanie Wirthwein explains the value of two expensive Japanese vases that she loans to the Drama Department. Her student audience includes Cassie Adams, Chris Reike, Kaitlin Rainwater, and Amanda Blake.

CENTER OF ATTENTION: Doris, played by Cassie Adams, enjoys having all eyes on her. However, Elizabeth Little, Robert Tindle and Theresa Hagedorn don't seem so thrilled with her.

The school hood, played by Robert Tindle, has a real attraction to Jane played by Elizabeth Little.

OUR FAVORITE LIBRARIAN: Kim Deal played the part of Miss Finch, Miss Brooks, good friend.

HEY, GOOD
LOOKING! Mallory Schmidt hits
on the ball carrier,
Charleston Roberts.

SENIOR COURT: FRONT ROW: Abby Sanders, Charleston Roberts. BACK ROW: Matt Broeker, Lauren Vogel, Evan Harpenau, Amanda Lambert, Brandon Wilson, Tammy Hancock, Jessica Jones, Joey Collins, Kyla Claise, Chris Blake.

WINTER ROYALTY: Chris Blake and Amanda Lambert are the 2002 Basketball
King and Queen.

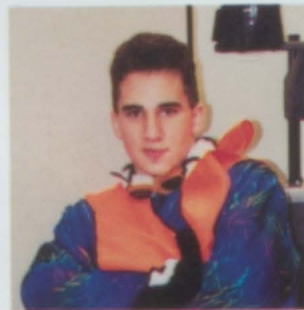

Crowning Time

Dress Up Days Helped Break The Monotony Of Winter.

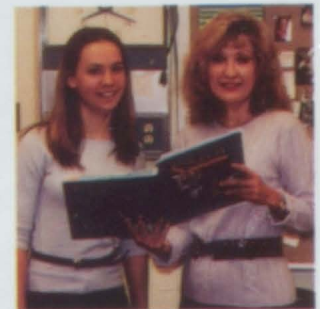

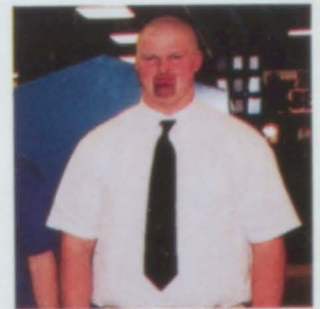

The winter months can start to drag by all so slowly and any relief from the boring repetition of day after same old day of school is welcomed.

A new dress up day added this year was DRESS LIKE A TEACHER DAY. Students selected various teachers and then copied their style. Several guys dressed like coaches and some people went so far as to copy the look of Mr. Wilson's shaved head.

For DRESS UP day some girls wore floor length gowns to school.

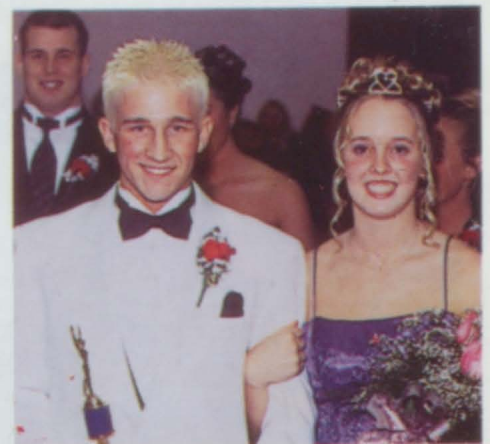

IN THE SPIRIT: Cyle Carpenter and Chris Cross show their school spirit for Homecoming.

WHO AM I? Lori Davis and Joey Fisher dress like their favorite teacher.

UNDERCLASSMEN COURT: Ronnie Harris, Tessa Partridge, Kenny Garrett, Tara Nance, Ryan Turner, Katie Vaal, Sally Rose, Andrew Jones, Emily Richardson, Travis Newton, Kim Deal, Jonathon Thorpe.

ROYAL COUPLE: Brandon Wilson and Tammy Hancock are crowned Prince and Princess.

AN OLD FASHIONED WEDDING: Annie Oakley and Frank Butler, played by Casey Fulks and Jon Rodgers, sing a duet about what type of wedding they should have.

HELPING OUT BIG SISTER: Kelly Stallings, Nicholas Hurm, Abigail Fulks, and Ashley Sanders are all part of the Oakley tribe. In this scene they help polish Annie's guns.

DRUMMING UP AN AUDIENCE: Keve Bates and Emily Cox round up customers for the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show.

Annie Get Your Gun

The cast features Annie Oakley, Frank Butler, Buffalo Bill, Cowboys, and Indians.

Some of the show's memorable tunes include: Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better, There's No Business Like Show Business, and Doin' What Comes Naturally.

SHOOTING STAR: A crowd including people played by Ashley Sanders, Abigail Fulks, Nicholas Hurm, Jared Kelley, Shannon Knight, Chris Mills, Keve Bates, watch Annie Oakley played by Casey Fulks shoot clay pigeons one after another.

INDIAN STAR: Chief Sitting Bull played by Jared Kelley has a POW WOW with Charlie, played by Keve Bates.

WALKING ADVERTISEMENTS: Cassi Cotton, Tessa Warsinsky, Rachel Neal, Laura Gardner, and Lisa Lindauer help draw crowds to the Wild West Show.

One Enchanted Evening

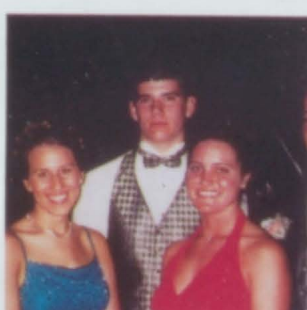

Members of the senior class and their dates began the evening with Grand March held in the auditorium. Afterwards audience members had time to photograph the well dressed ladies and gentlemen in the commons.

LOOKING GOOD: Dressed in prom finery are Bridget Poole, Cassi Cotton, Jessica Smith, Denise Hurt, Angela Gardener, and Stephanie Lindauer.

Following the picture taking a formal dinner was served at school. The meal was catered by the Rockport Inn. Having the prom dinner at school was a new idea and seemed to be well received. Much less driving and scheduling was required.

SPECIAL NIGHT: Sandy Stewart and Chuck Hays dance a slow one and Lauren Vogel, David Hurm, and Kyla Claise look stunning.

LOVELY LADIES: Jessica Jones, Stephanie Rose, and Carrie Bruggenschmidt share a table. ABOVE. DANCING THE NIGHT AWAY: Chris Wells and Rachel Keith share a dance. RIGHT.

First Year For Dinner.

Because the senior class did such an outstanding job of raising money they were able to pay for a before prom dinner served at school. They also raised enough funds for their senior pictures to be published in color in the yearbook.

Amber,
Congratulations, and you have made us proud grandparents! We're always only a phone call away anytime and anyway you ever need us. Be happy and study at college and then achieve what you want.
Swim fast,
Love Gran and Pop
Rhodes

Jenna,
Congratulations, Wow!
We're proud of you and remember Gran and Pop
are always here for you;
enjoy college. Yes, we'll miss you, but now is the time to be all that "you" want to be.
Swim fast,
Love Pop and Gran
Rhodes

Congratulations, Matt.
We are very proud of
you. You are special to us.
Good Luck with college and all your future dreams. Keep Smiling!

EVERYONE WANTS A GREAT BODY: Tammy Hancock, Taylor Bunner, and Stephen Upchurch all work their muscles during advanced physical education class.

BLOCK OUT! Sally Rose, Jacque Carpenter, Amber Herron, Sarah Blair, Lisa Lindauer, and Kayla Morris are all waiting to grab the ball after they worked hard on the blockout.

Building A Future

Starts With Good
Construction

CRAFTSMANSHIP: Aaron Stephens perfects the details on his project.

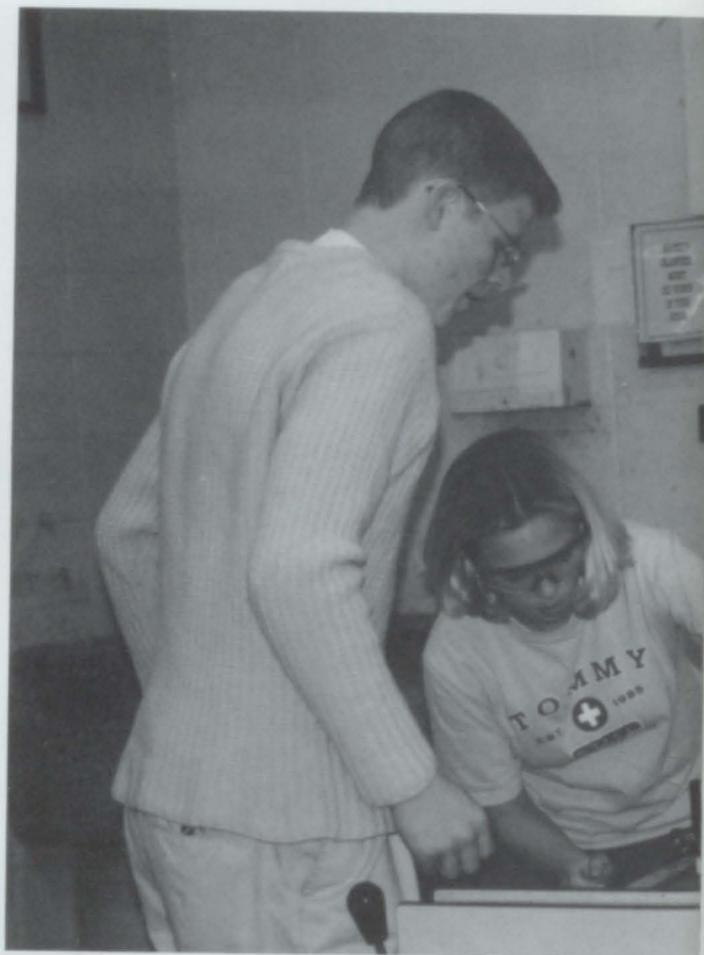

Curtis Flowers

"I like this class because you can express your creativity by building things out of wood."

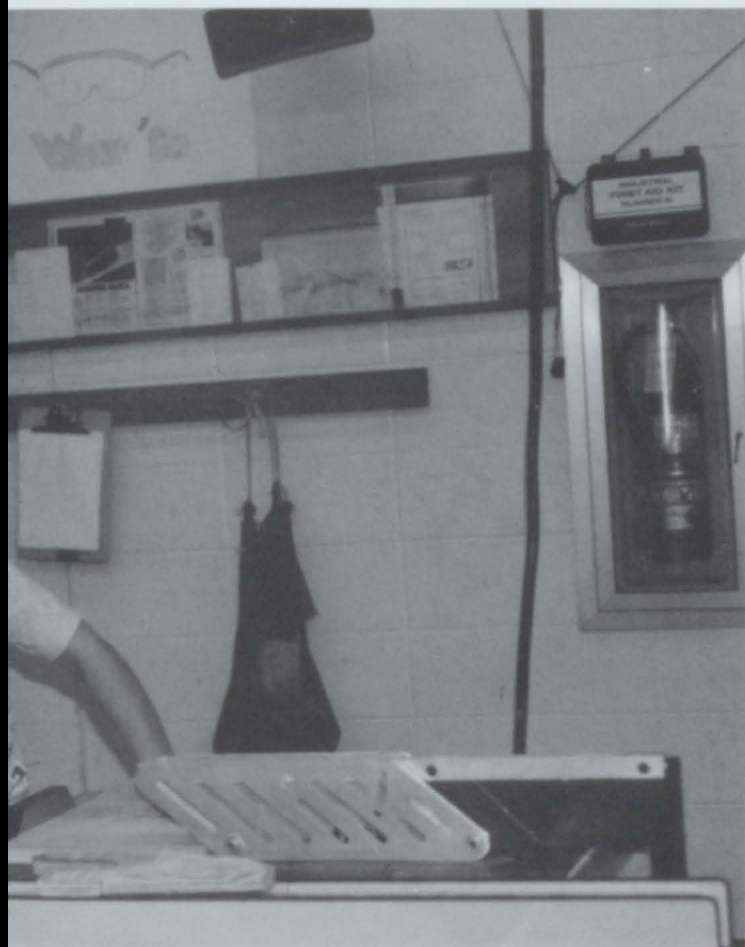

Brad Decker

"Woods is an interesting class that has helped prepare me for the future."

KNOWING WHAT TO DO: Brad Lillpop shows us how to safely use a drill. ABOVE. Walt Weatherholt works on a project in the machine shop. RIGHT.

Step By Step

IT TAKES TIME: Elliot Sublett, Cole Sorgius, and Michael Driskell each work on a project in woods class.

HELP ME OUT: Amber Henry and Russell Christian demonstrate how teamwork is the fastest and most efficient way to get the job done.

Cooking Is Essential

And Enriching To
Everyday Living

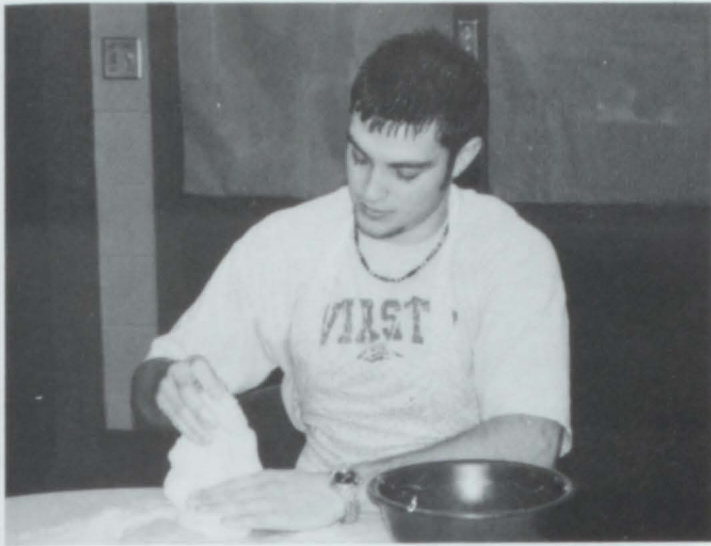

ONE LEVEL CUP: Jacob Magill measures the shortening for his recipe.

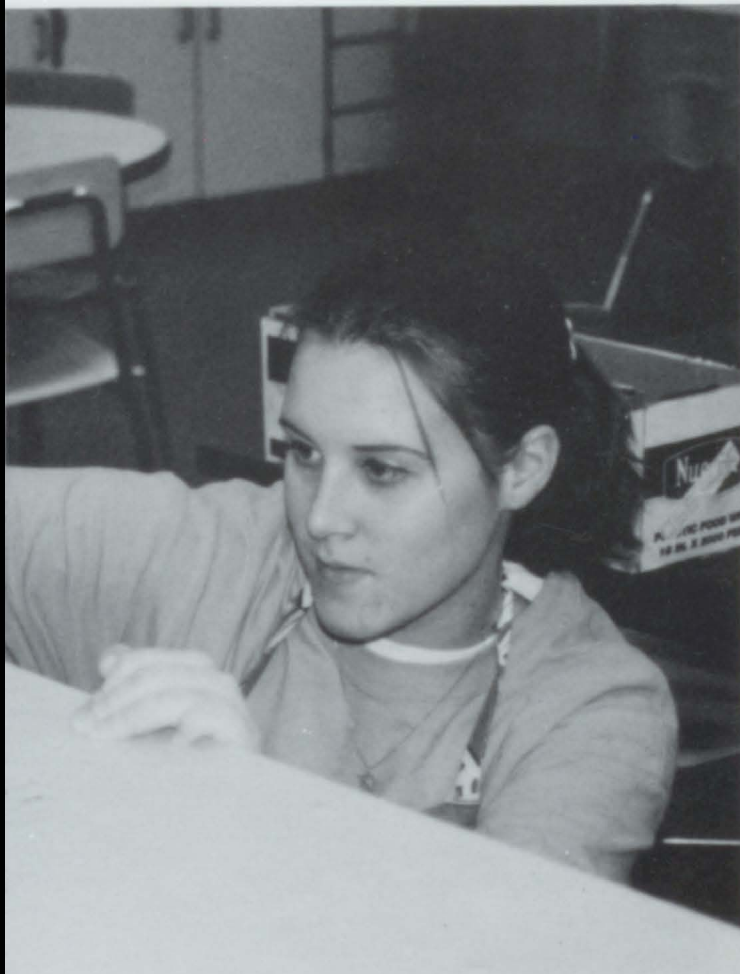

ROLL IT OUT: Amanda Embry spreads out the dough before she makes her cookies.

HE NEEDS TO KNEAD: Chris Kluck spends his time working the dough properly. ABOVE.

EXPERT INSTRUCTION: Mrs. Joan Grose consults with Josh Crawford about spreading the dough properly. RIGHT.

JUST PERFECT: Abby Parsley gets eye level with the measuring cup to make sure her measurements are exact. LEFT.

Ryan Young

"I like foods class because it's fun and we get to wear cute aprons. Every school should have five levels and prepare foods like sushi."

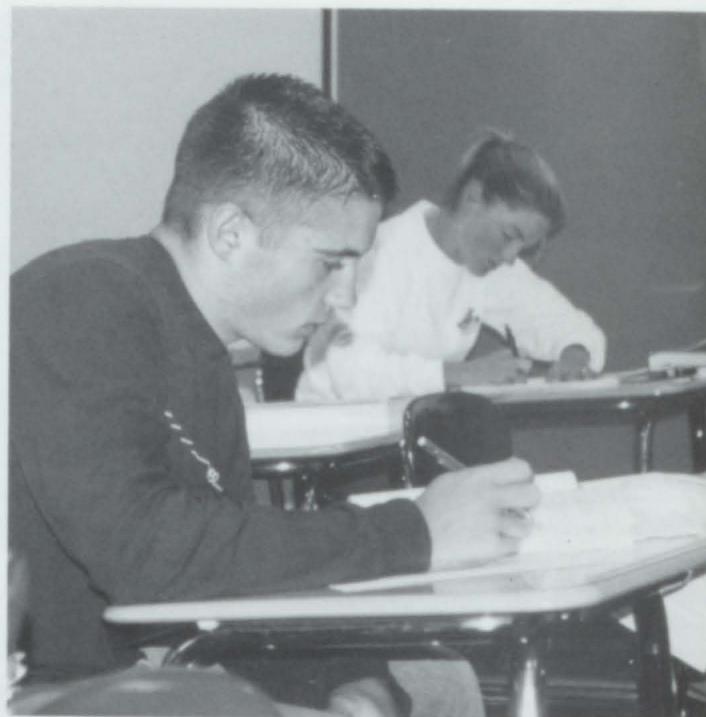

A.J. Ambs

"I like foods class because because I know I won't have to go hungry when I get old."

Utilizing English

Helps A Student Achieve Success

WHAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT?
Jason Grimes decides what facts to include in his paper.

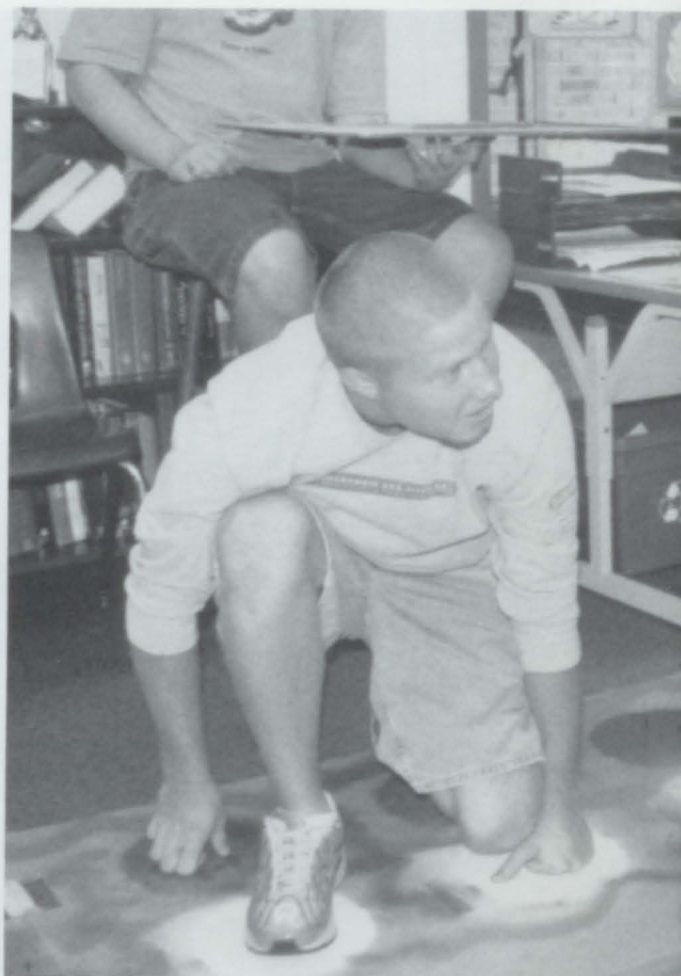

Jeanne Logsdon

Beverly Fagan

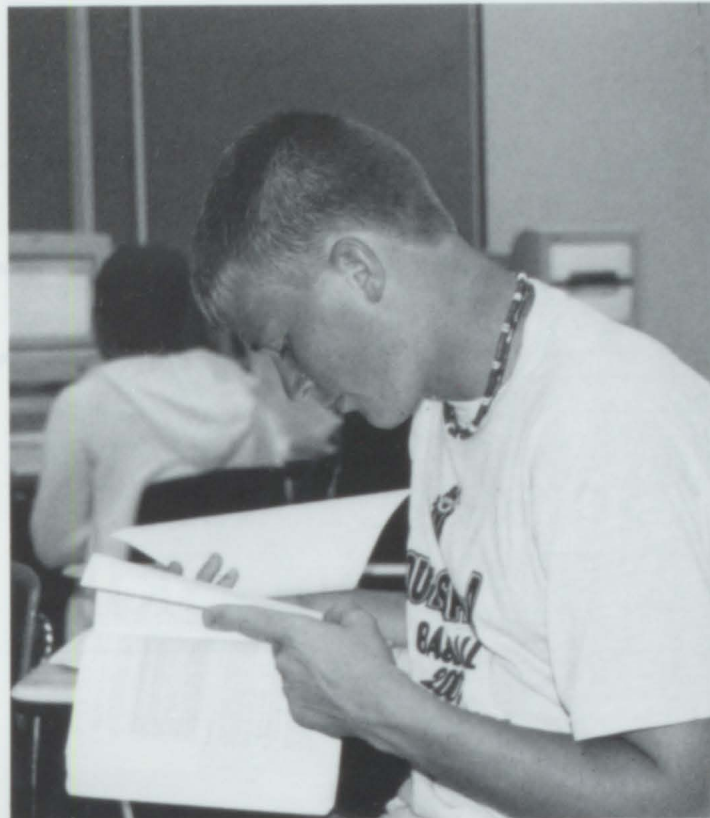

“‘Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm,’ said Emerson. Hopefully, during my tenure at SSHS, I applied that philosophy when introducing the classics to my American Lit classes.”

“For the past 31 years, I have tried to impart an appreciation of good literature and clear communication. I hope that 10 years from now you read a good novel and think of me.”

We Love America

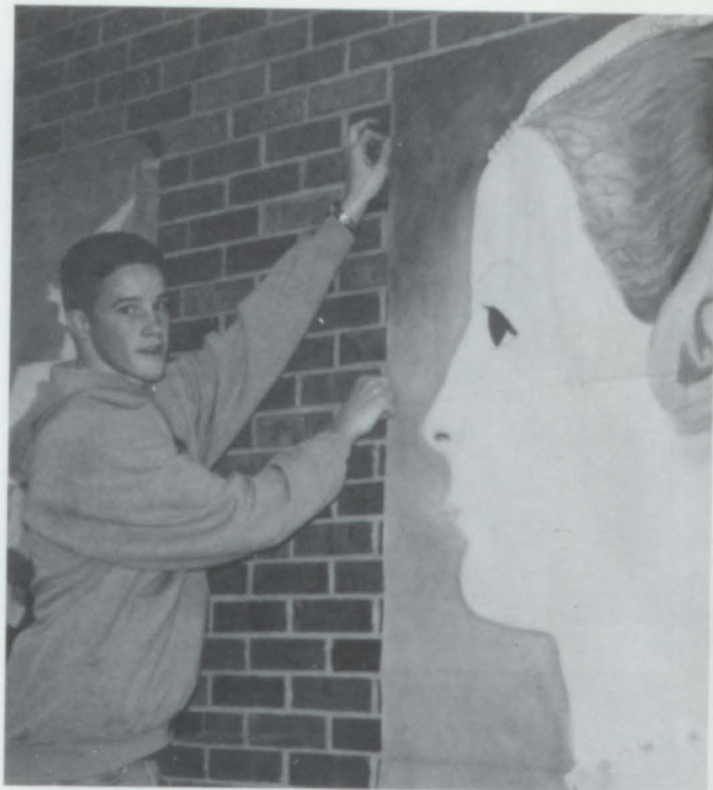

A DAY WE WILL NEVER FORGET: Kelli Stallings, Ryan Turner, and Amy Bowman hold the memory boxes they made in Mrs. Meyer's English class. The boxes contain information pertaining to the terrorist attacks, made on September 11, on the World Trade Center.

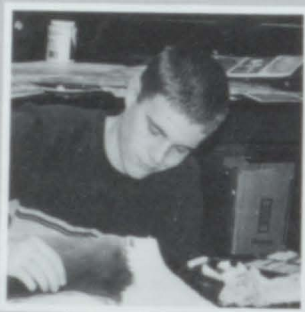

WHO SAYS ENGLISH IS DULL? Joseph Beckort and Chris Blake get physical in a game of English Twister in Mrs. Purviance's class.

Developing Artwork

Builds Creativity & Thinking Skills

FIT TO HANG: Matt Small displays his art work in the freshman hall.

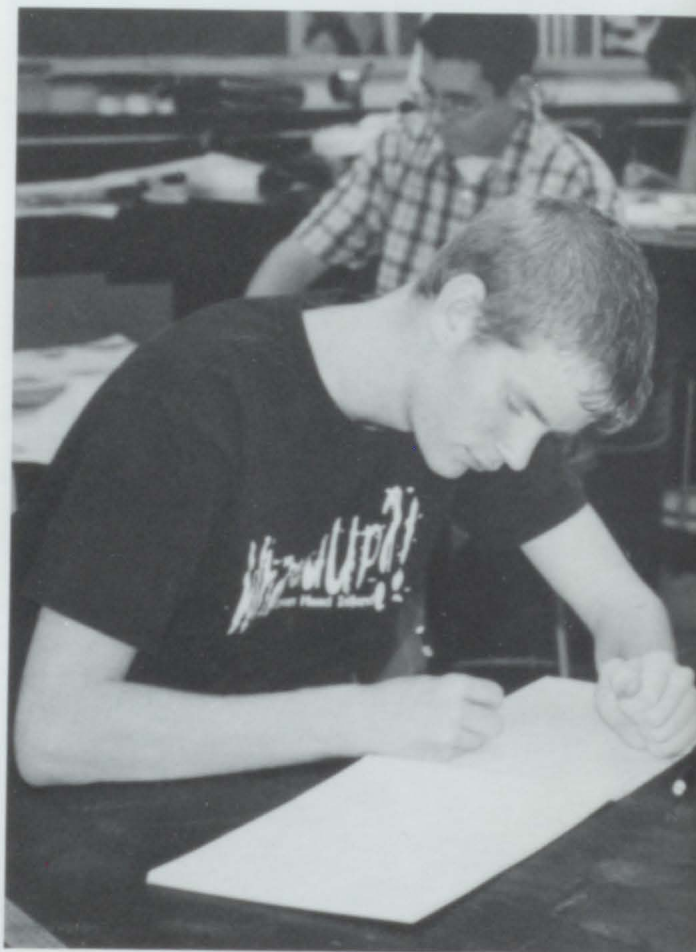

Brandon Banks

“I like art, because you get to use the creative side of your mind.”

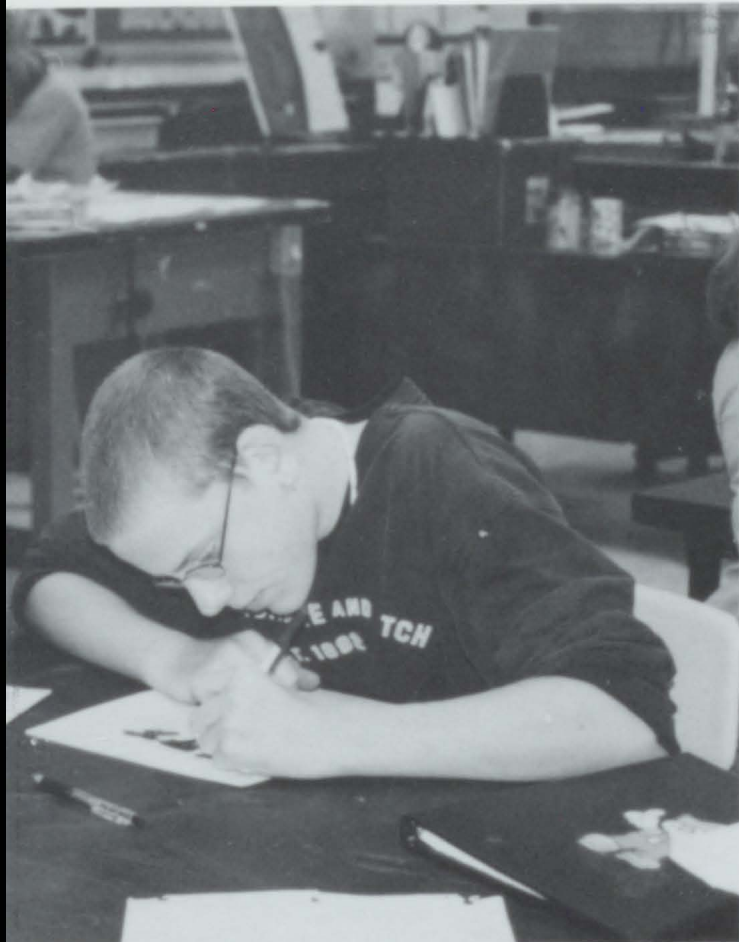

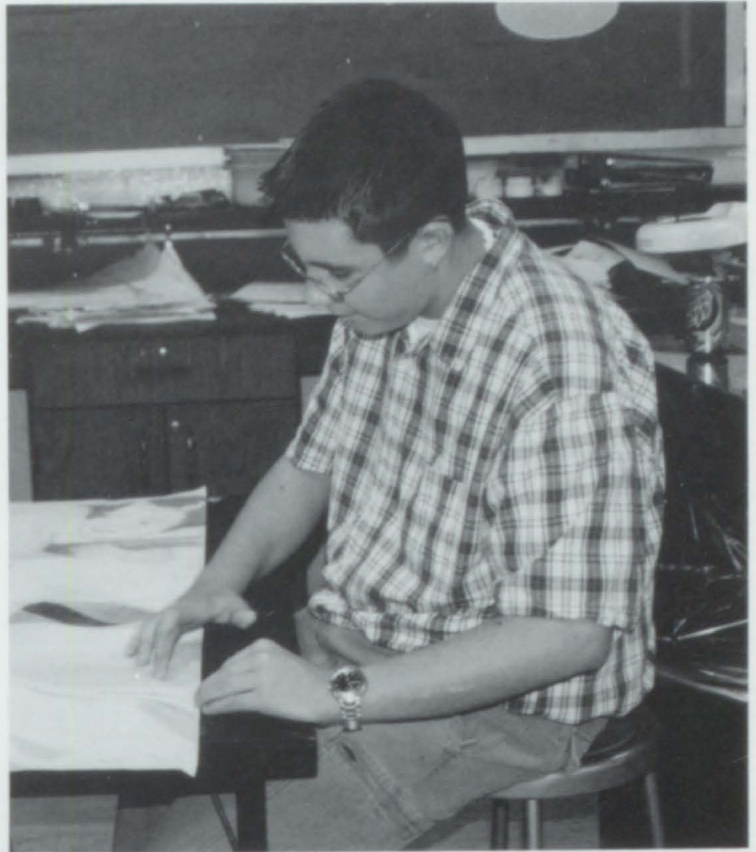

Tuesday Beeler

“Art gives you a chance to express your creativity.”

MONET, MANET, OR SMITH? Kyle Smith works on his impressionism drawing. ABOVE. IT TAKES JUST THE RIGHT TOUCH. Matt White paints using pastels. RIGHT.

Artists

At

Work

IMPRESSIONISM, CUBISM, AND CYBISTIC DRAWING ARE ALL PRACTICED AT SOUTH SPENCER. Jennifer Bunch painstakingly works on her impressionism project; Chris Wells draws a cubism project and Eric Wink creates a cybistic drawing.

DIFFERENT STROKES FOR DIFFERENT FOLKS.

Chris Mills works in his sketch book, while Nathan Payton starts the lettering on his project.

You Can Count

On Using Math All Your Life

I'M LISTENING: Michael Hurt listens closely as Elizabeth Little explains how to get the right answer.

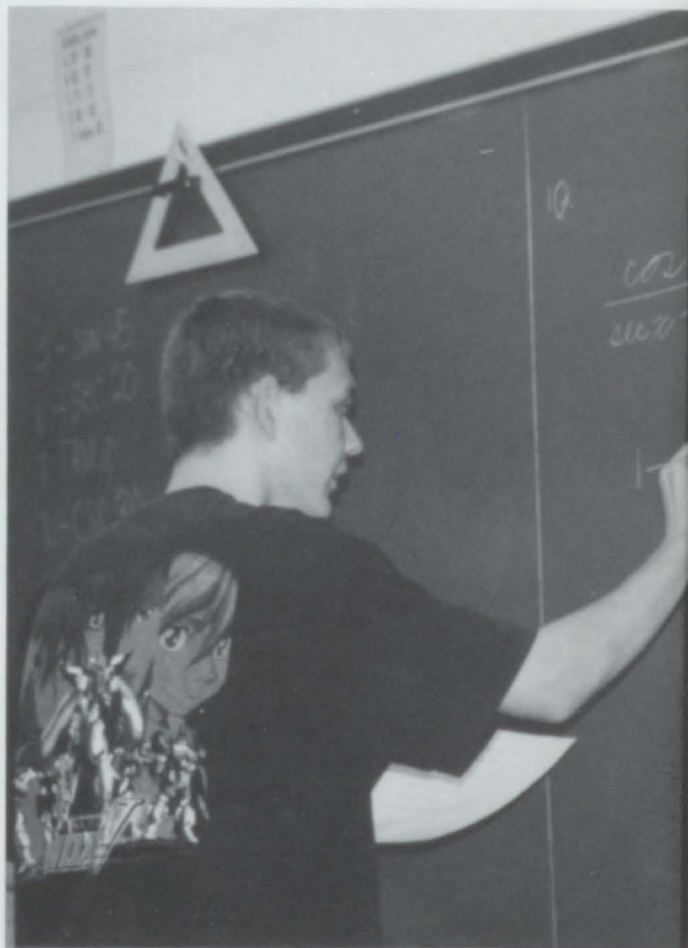

Chris Blake

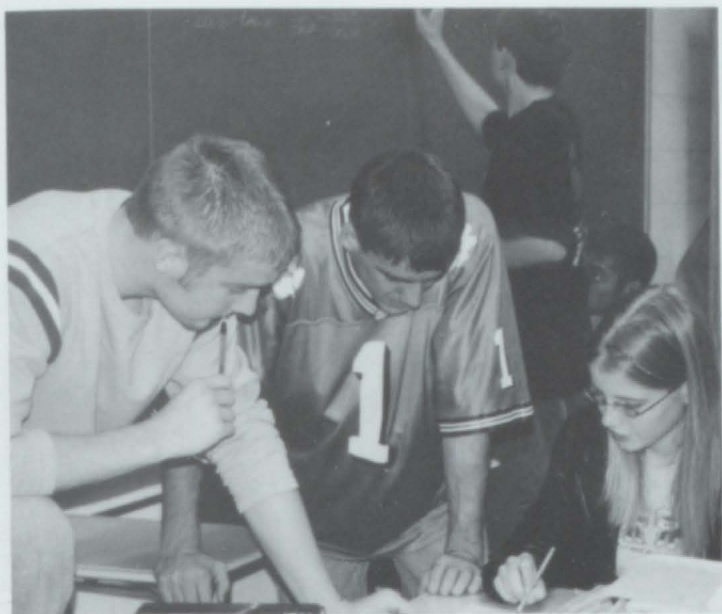

"I like Algebra II because we get to work problems on the board and it helps me a whole lot."

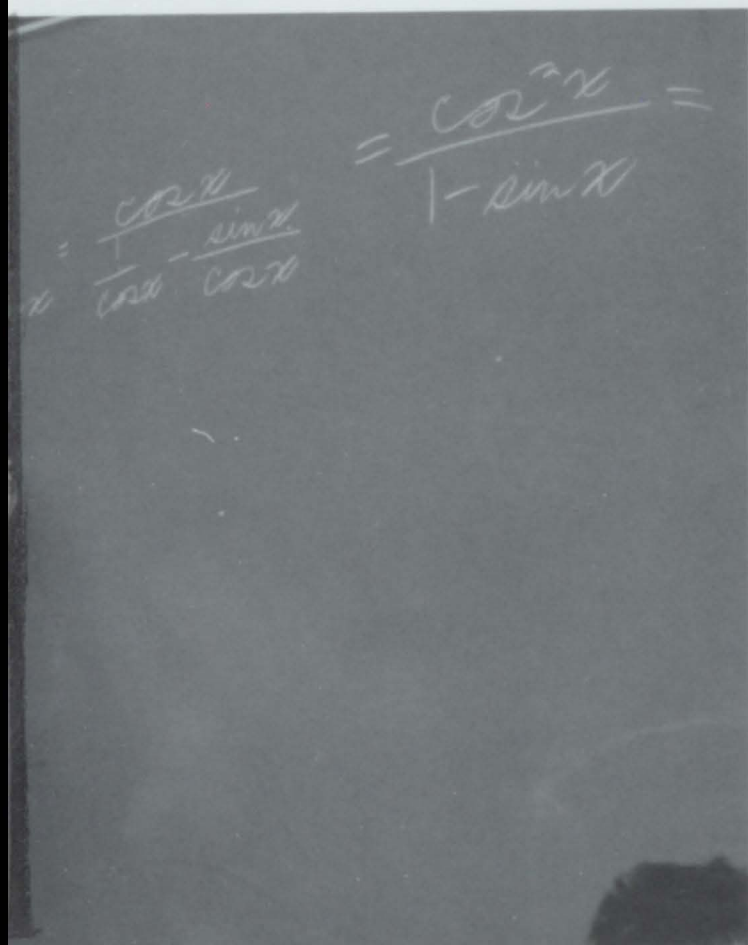

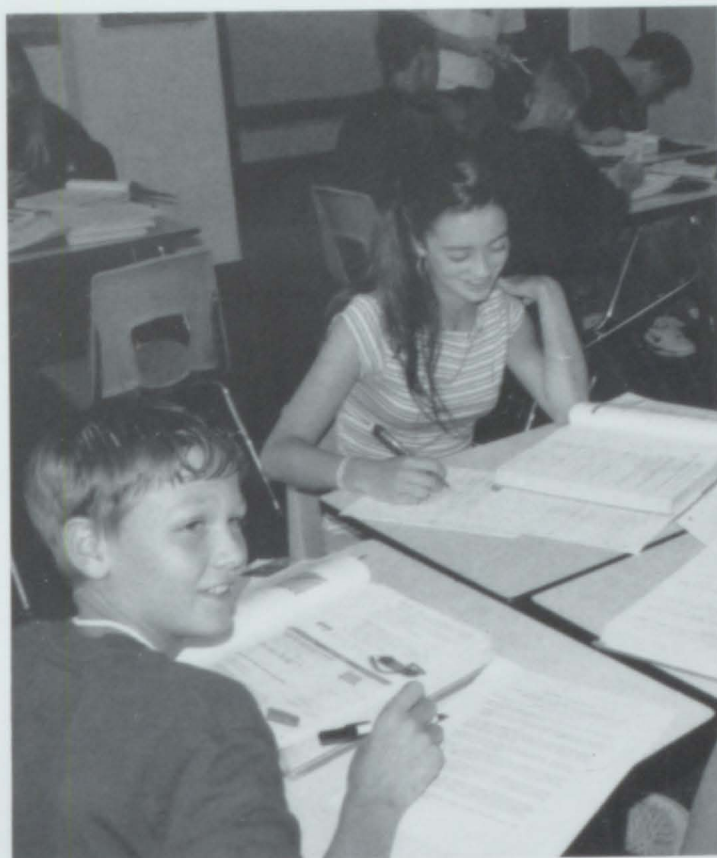

Ashley Like

"I like Algebra II because of all the challenges we are faced with. It helps everyone to become better students."

HOW DID YOU DO THAT? Kyle Lashley, Dustin Sarver, and Tiffany McCrossin work as a team in pre-cal. ABOVE. Jason Howard, and Katie Hutchinson are part of the same group in geometry. RIGHT.

Step By Step

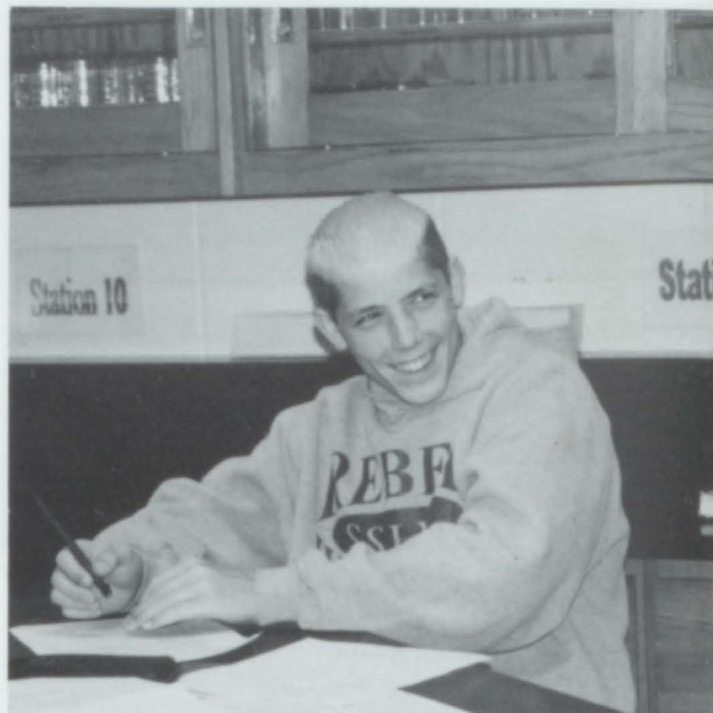

IT TAKES THOUGHT: Casey Fulks, Jon Bretz, and Daniel Gardener are all working hard on their math step by step.

SHOW US ALL, PLEASE: David Birchler makes the next move to work out the complicated problem.

Studying Science

Magnifies
Life's
Miracles

CHEMISTRY IS SO MUCH FUN:
Heath Lathery seems to think doing his lab project is enjoyable.

Kerrik Cron

"Biology is a good class, because Mr. Alts-tadt makes it interesting."

Ashley Smith

"I like chemistry because the experiments are fun and interesting, and I know
the subject will help me later on."

CAN I BE OF ASSISTANCE? Jon Drew helps David Gunn and Eric Bunner with a chemistry problem. ABOVE.

SO THIS IS COLLEGE WORK? Elizabeth Dunn tackles her AP Biology. RIGHT.

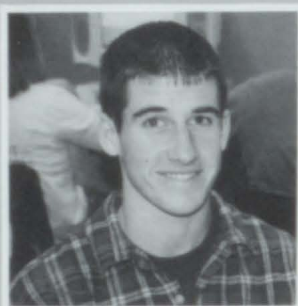

FUTURE SCIENTISTS: Sasha Rohde, Leah Verble, and Amanda Blake work out an experiment.

WORKING THE BRAIN! Ivy Burns and Christa Thomason are studying hard in chemistry.

Social Sciences

Help Us Discover Man's Nature

“What’s it like being in class with your cousin?”

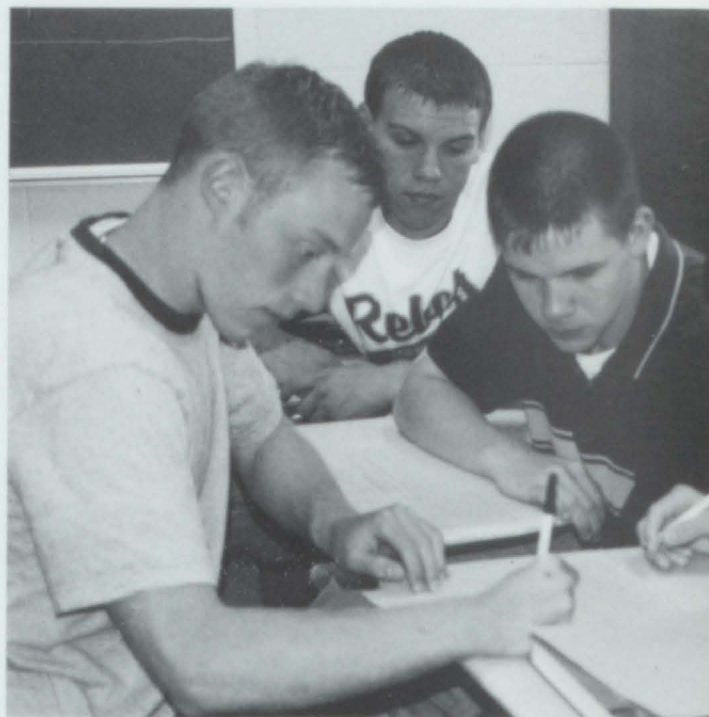

Adam Hurm

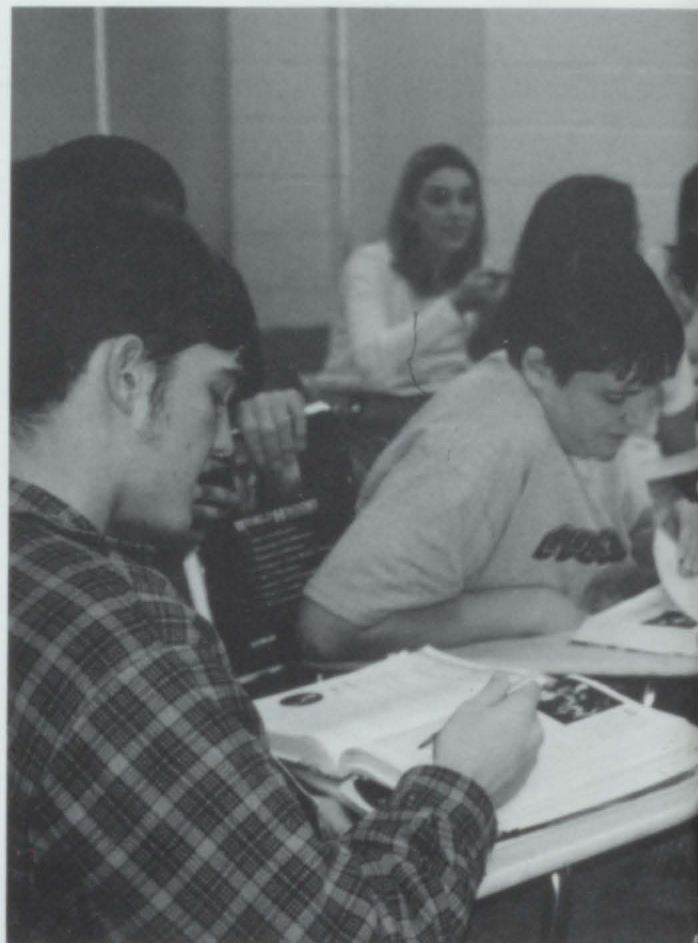

David Hurm

“If someone says “Hurm” during class and you don’t want to answer them, you can always say that you thought they were talking to the other one.”

“It is not a real big deal because we have been in the same class for 13 years now and we have always been good friends.”

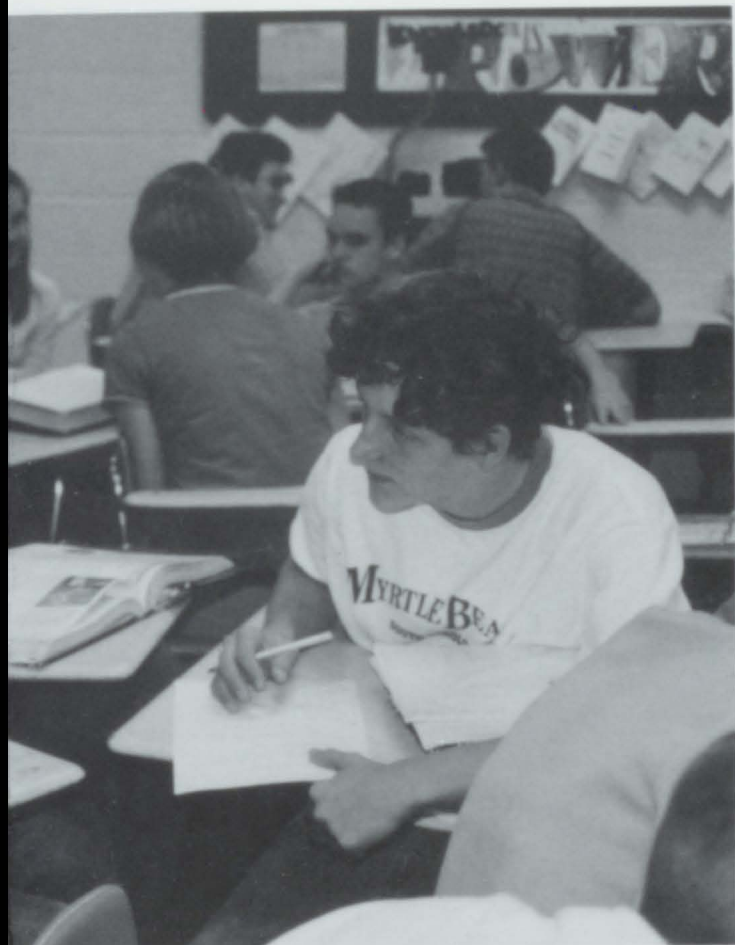

BUILDING A CASE: Matt Martin, Drew Ayer, and Kyle Rust prepare their side of a debate in U.S. History.

THIS WILL GET THEM FOR SURE!
Garren Hill, Crystal Lawrence, Ashley Spencer, Jacob Broerman, and Triana Tyson talk over the facts to defend their side of a debate.

WE WORK BETTER AS A TEAM:
Chris Goins and Jason Howard actively study for a test.

Dear Senator,

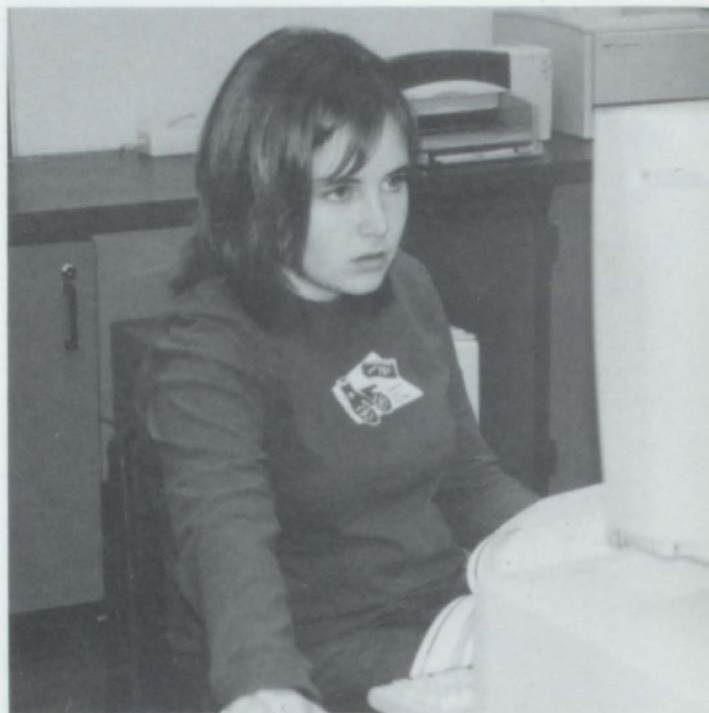

MAKING HIS VOICE HEARD: Jon Spatti types a letter to one of the Indiana senators using email.

WE HAVE TO PASS THIS TEST: Josh Bowlds, Zach Blythe, and David Woolsey review their history chapter in preparation for their test.

Learning Business

Prepares Us For
The Work World

LEARNING TO WORK: Sarah Collins learns that office work centers around computer applications.

Lacey Houle

“I think this class will help me in the future, because I’ll know how to work well with others, and accomplish different tasks.”

Danielle Thompson

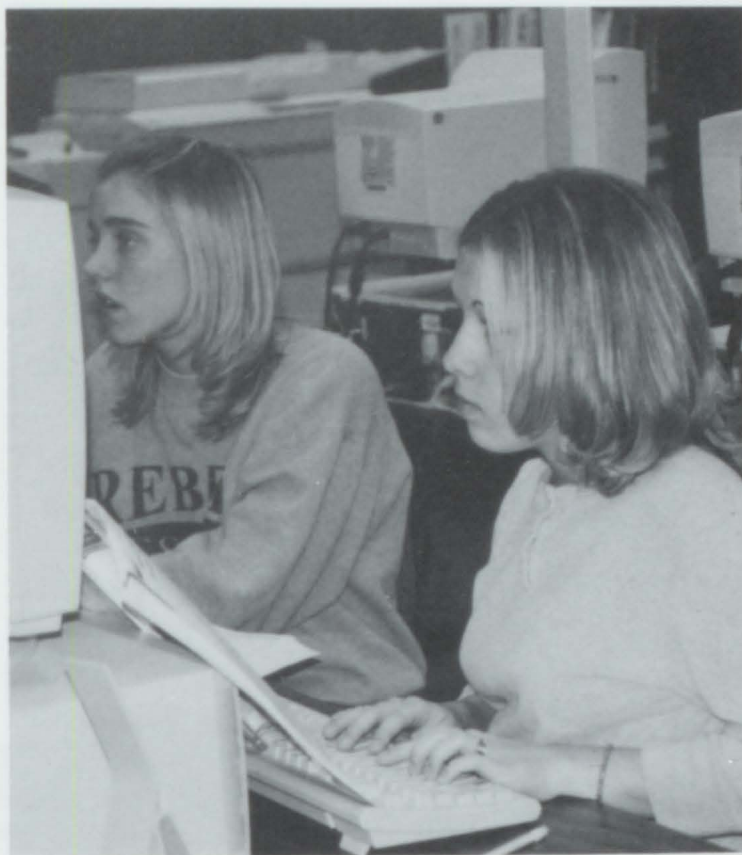

“This office lab class will help my future in the business world.”

TEACHING AND LEARNING. Mrs. Damm helps her students by being nearby for advice. Next to her Kendra Goldman figures out things on her own. ABOVE.

SIDE BY SIDE. Jessica Hudson and classmate Amanda Lester sharpen their office lab skills. RIGHT.

Men

At Work

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CLASS. Michael Hurt does minor upkeep work on the copy machine to keep it in good running order. Travis Bowen prepares himself for any job that will require computer skills.

HOW MANY COPIES DO YOU NEED? Chad Crawford displays he can handle office work.

Trying Out A Career

Helps Us Make
Better Decisions

WORKING IN THE FRESH
OUTDOORS. Willy Madison rakes up leaves at Quality Tree Care.

Patrick Harmon

“Interning gives me an idea of what
I may want to do
later in my life.”

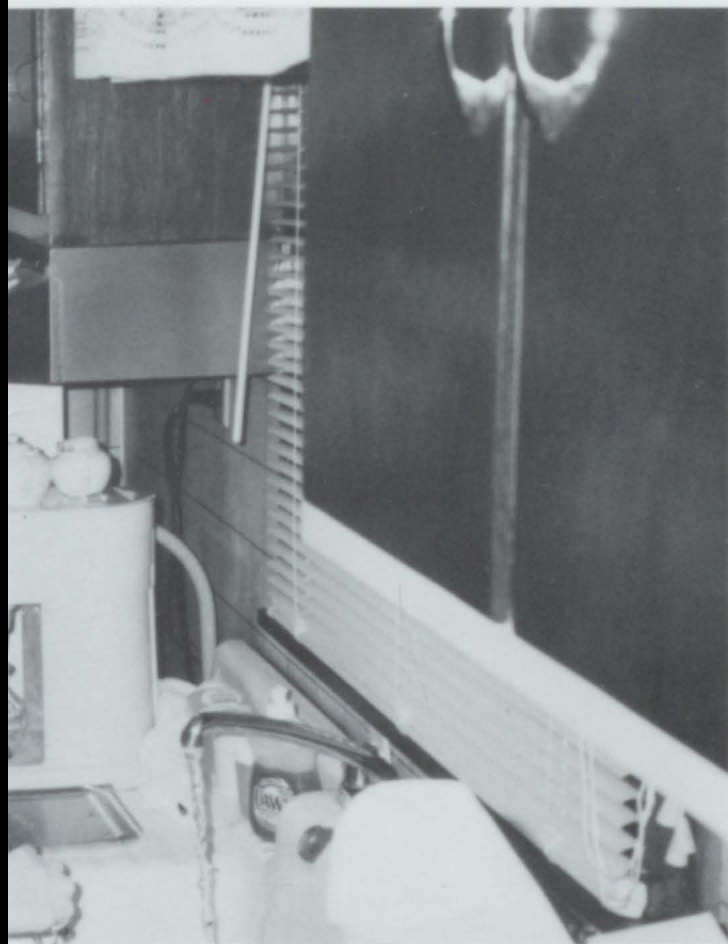

Stephanie Slaton

“I think its cool getting out of school early to go to work. You get to make more money
and you have more time to do school stuff.”

On The Job

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM. Ashley Ling, Lucas Leslie, and Mike Driskell all work hard at their daily INTERN and ICE program assignments. Both programs allow students the opportunity to experience real job situations.

KILLING THOSE GERMS. Mallory Schmidt cleans medical utensils at Bridget Burns' office in Richland. LEFT

On The Job Training

Can Open Doors To Opportunity

HE KNOWS HOW TO MAKE IT RUN. Michael Northenor is rebuilding an engine in his class at Ky Tech.

Donald Turpen

"I plan on being a teacher and the cadet program gives me a lot of experience."

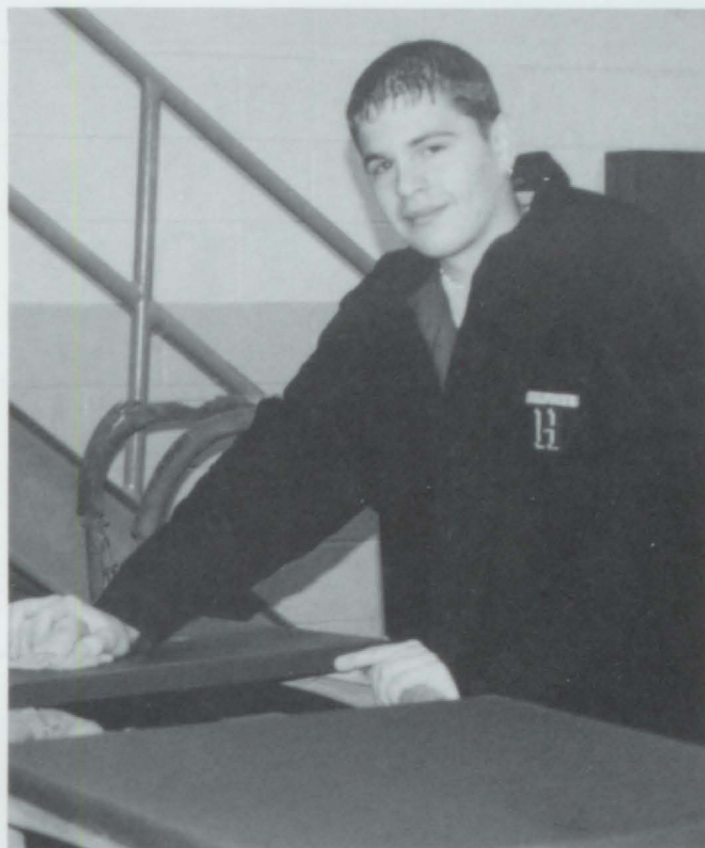

Jennifer Gibbs

"I like being a cadet teacher because I get to help younger kids and to work with Mrs. Yearby and Mrs. Bailey; they're the coolest."

MAKING THAT TRUCK LOOK GOOD. Students get the opportunity to go to Kentucky Tech to learn auto body skills and auto mechanic skills. Cory Hagan cleans a metal panel (ABOVE) and Zach Wheeler sands an auto body panel (LEFT).

HE WILL NEVER BE STRANDED. Shawn Richardson has to change a tire in his auto class at Kentucky Tech.

Willing To Help

CADET TEACHERS GET A CHANCE TO LEARN ABOUT THE TEACHING PROFESSION. Nikki Ewell helps Mr. Chamberlain in the computer lab and Jessica Kelley and Sandi Stewart learn about library work.

Publishing & Talking

Put Language Skills To Work

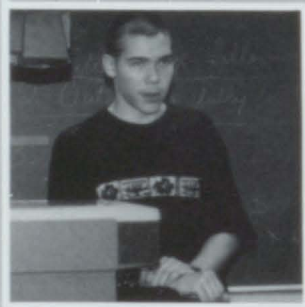

WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT. Sarah Stallings and Jenna Daniel contact yearbook advertisers.

Dusty Young

"I was really surprised at the time and effort it took to make the school yearbook."

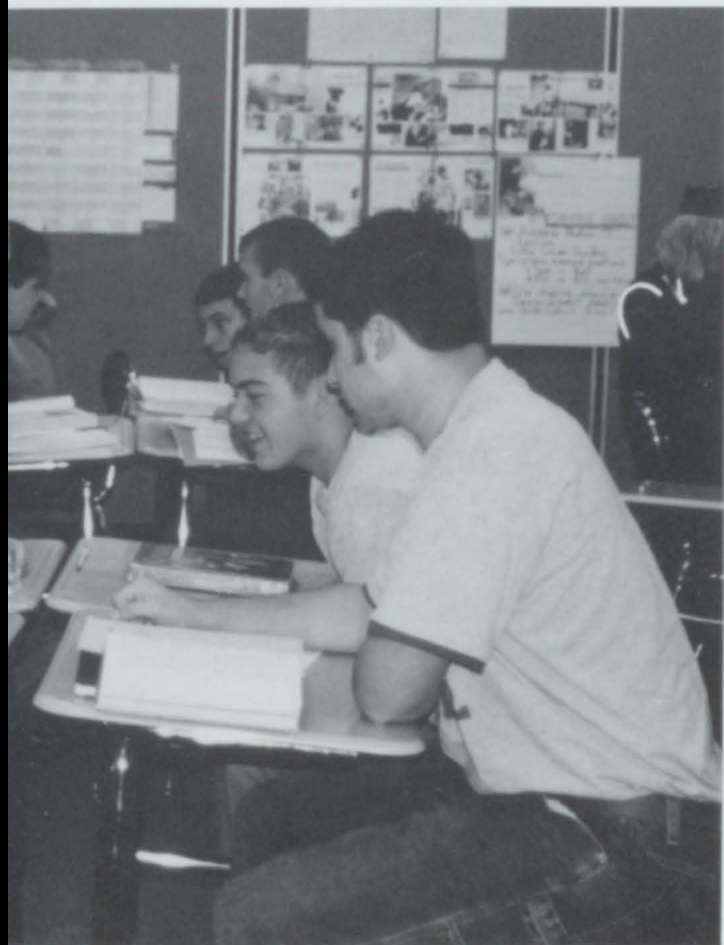

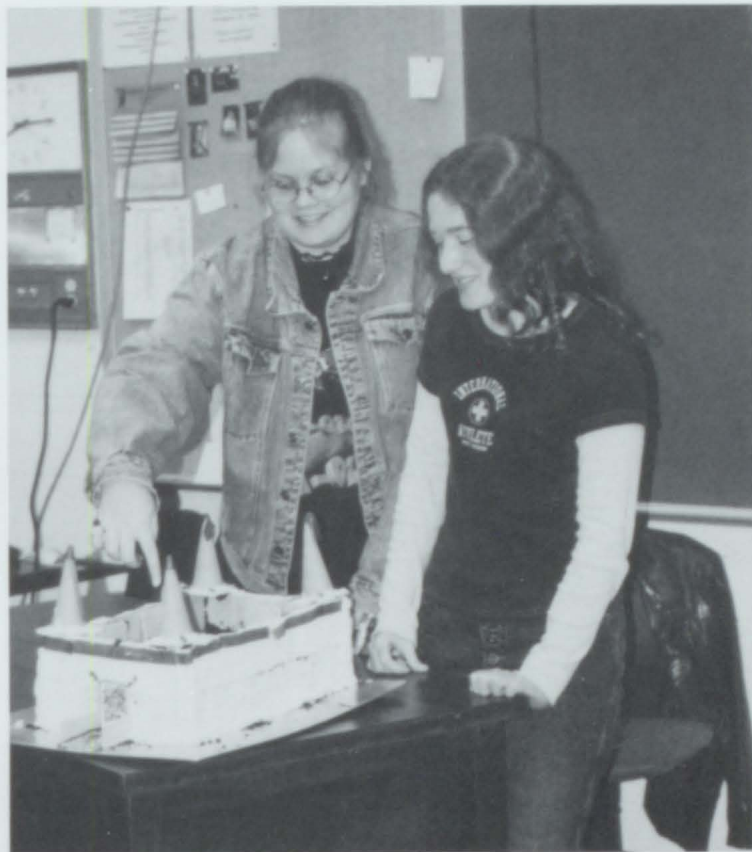

Chris Middleton

"Speech class prepared us to speak well in front of a group of people."

WE LIKE TO WORK TOGETHER. Ashley Like carefully takes down what Amanda Hudson has to contribute. ABOVE. GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT. Amanda Payne and Amanda Mock show how to make a castle of graham crackers. RIGHT.

COOL, CALM, AND COLLECTED. Meagan Miles always delivers her speeches with poise and sincerity.

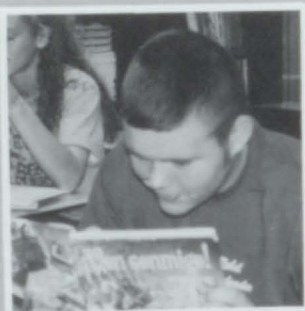

YOU KNOW THIS WILL BE FUNNY. When Kyle Smith, Jared Roth, Derrick Rumley, and Dustin Beeler team up to work on a project in speech you know it will be entertaining.

Foreign Cultures

And Languages Enrich Our Days

"OH TANNENBAUM, OH TANNENBAUM." Eric Brunner entertains during the Christmas party held by the German class.

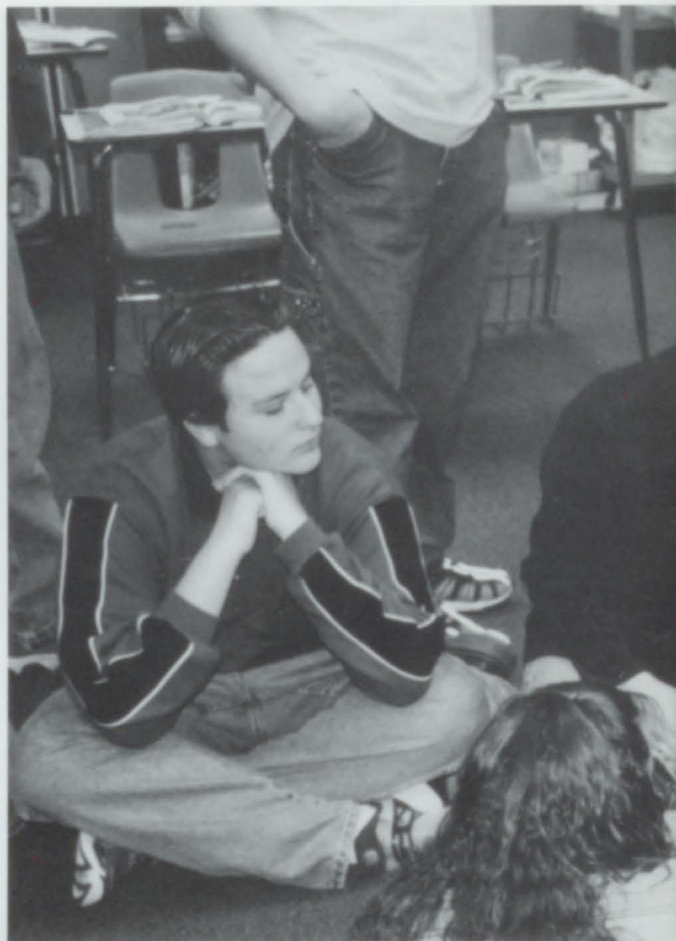

Travis Newton

Nick Moninger

"Spanish class will help me when I am traveling to Latin America for my future career."

"I like German, because I really like the German food we get to make."

ME GUSTO ESPANOL. Adam Jones works very hard on his Spanish homework. ABOVE GUSTAMOS COMER. Spanish II students get a taste of Mexican food. RIGHT

BIEN TIEMPOS. Jessica May and Jordan York find humor in the class assignment in Spanish.

MANCALA ANYONE? French II students, Keve Bates, Megan Harmon, Rusty Burrows, Jon Rodgers, Ashley Sanders, Mackenzi Mohler, and Rachel Sturgeon all play a French game.

Rebels Save Best For Homecoming

The Rebels started the season with a new schedule. North Davies and Wood Memorial were no longer on the card and they were replaced by Owensboro Catholic and North Knox.

The first game of the season was against Princeton and they were no match for the Rebels. The next game was Gibson Southern and even though it was close, the Rebels got the win. Then a close loss to Tell City was followed by a blowout against Tecumseh.

The Southridge game was played the Friday after the September 11 terrorist bombings on the World Trade Center. During halftime a memorial service was held in honor of all those Americans killed. Then the Rebels came out on the shortend of the score, losing to the Raiders in a defensive battle. The following week the Rebels got back on track with an overwhelming victory over Pike Central. For Homecoming, Owensboro Catholic came into Reo. It was a close game, but with the support of the fans the Rebels came out on top. Next, a close victory over North Posey led into the final regular game of the season the against rival Heritage Hills. After a quick strike by both teams, Heritage Hills took the lead which the Rebels could never overcome.

Visit to "The Bowl" was too much

After the victory over North Knox in the first game of the sectional, the Rebels marched into the almighty Reitz Bowl. Matched up against the #1 ranked team in 2A, Mater Dei, the team played tough, but were over-matched in the one-sided loss. This ended the Rebels' season with a final record of 7-4.

JV continues to shine

The Rebels' JV squad continued to dominate its opponents. They had blowouts over their first four opponents. They played at Southridge and won in a close game. Then had big wins over Central, Owensboro, Catholic, and North Posey.

Laying It All On The Line

Although the record did not show it, the volleyball team's improvement from last year was unbelievable. Team records were broken, and individual goals were achieved. Everyone concentrated on playing as hard as they could and laying everything they had on the line every time they took the court. The home crowd got the team's adrenaline pumping, especially in their exciting win over Apollo on Senior Night. Thanks to Coach Gladish, the volleyball program is improving greatly every year.

JV Gains Experience

This year's junior varsity also showed a great deal of improvement with the help of Coach Collins and assistant coach, Julie Butcher. Though they did not have a winning record, they gained a tremendous amount of experience that they will hopefully carry to the varsity level next year.

CC Makes A Repeat; Both Teams Advance To Semi- State

For the second consecutive year both the cross country teams advanced to the semi-state round of state competition. In order to advance to that level the runners began the post-season by finishing the sectional in the top five. They then went on to finish in the top five at the Bedford regional, which qualified them for the semi-state in Terre Haute. This feat marked the second time in the history of the school that both the boys' and girls' cross county teams made it as far as the semi-state. In order to reach semi-state, both teams spent countless hours of their summer vacation running. For the first time the Rebels were able to hold their own invitational at AEP's Honey Creek Farm over Labor Day weekend. The girls were able to hold five of the top ten spots which earned them the win. The boys ran extremely well, but fell short of a win and came in second.

The next big meet was the PAC. The boys had two All-Conference runners, Zach Boop and Kyle Valentine and the girls had three, Jessica Jones, Lacey Houle, and Lisa Tomlinson.

Then both teams went on to finish in the top five of the sectional. The boys ended the year with a record of 76-40 and the girls finished at 71-26.

Tennis Has All Three

Lob, Love, Serve,

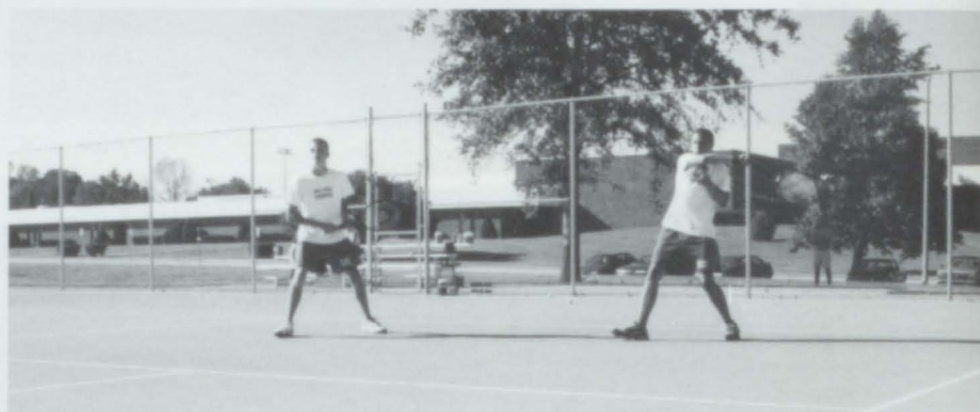

Both the boys' and girls' tennis teams were comprised of fairly young players. Kevin Wright and Ben Newkirk were the only seniors on the boys' team and Rachel Keith was the only senior on the girls' team.

Sophomore, Britteny Monar managed to advance to the final round of the girls' sectional at Jasper before the season was over for her.

Coach Todd Stoermer announced that it would be his final season as the boys' tennis coach.

It Takes Endurance To Make Waves

Both boys and girls swim teams started off slow, but improved throughout the year. By sectionals, sixty percent of the girls had dropped seconds off their time and about forty percent of the boys had knocked seconds off. To a person who has never witnessed a swim meet, seconds may not seem like much, but it could determine a first place or a second place ribbon. Swimming is not a sport for crowd pleasers, but one that takes individual endurance and self motivation. The Rebel swimmers for the 2001-2002 season had the determination to be individual winners.

HANGING OUT BY THE POOL: Mackenzi Mohler, Jessica Hudson, and Theresa Hagedorn, could be found at the pool everyday after school during the winter months.

Payne And Smith Set Records

Varsity

It was a memorable year for seniors, Erin Smith and MacKenzie Payne, as well as Coach Boultinghouse. Erin Smith ended the season with 379 points and shot 80% from the free-throw line. She also became a member of the 1,000 point club at the last home game of the season. MacKenzie Payne finished off the year with 319 rebounds and 31 blocked shots. She now ranks at the top of the rebounding chart for season and career. Payne also set the school record for rebounds in a game at 21. Coach Wayne Boultinghouse ended his coaching career at South Spencer with a season record of 16-8. The Lady Rebels were also 5-2 in the PAC.

Junior Varsity

The junior varsity won four of their last five games to finish the season with a 10-8 record. Ashley Like led the team in scoring, Jessica May in rebounds and field goal %, Emily Parsley in freethrow %, Britney Monor in assists, and Meagan Burden in steals.

Freshmen

The freshmen girls always gave their best effort and showed great improvement over the season ending with a record of 9-5.

Kyle Magill is ninth Rebel to score 1,000 points

Rebs Dubbed Giant Killers

Most teams who finish the season with an 8-16 record usually don't earn the title of giant killer, but the Rebels did. They earned the name by first defeating the unbeaten Gibson Southern Titans and then a few games later they repeated the feat by beating the undefeated Reitz Panthers. Those two victories caused the Evansville Courier to dub them the "Giant Killers."

Coach Steve Altstadt insisted that on any given night the Rebels would be capable of beating any team in the state; however, they often had trouble getting the game started. Usually they turned in their best performances during the second half.

Junior, Kyle Magill became the ninth Rebel to score 1,000 points and he also broke the school record for most three points scored in a season. Magill was named to the All Conference team and to the Toyota Classic All Tournament team. Sophomore, Brandon Neighbors was named all conference honorable mention.

Dusty Young Returns To Compete At Semi-State

The Rebels opened their season with a victory over the perennially dominate Gibson Southern Titans. They then moved on to the Turkey Classic where they were victorious with a 6-2 record. The Rebels demonstrated much poise by going undefeated at the Corydon Invitational. For the first time in South Spencer history the Rebels prevailed over the Castle Knights.

This year the team had the best record in school history with 26 wins. Dusty Young was the first person to exceed 40 wins in one season.

Post Season Winners

Dusty Young was the only P.A.C champion. When it came to sectional time Dusty Young, Charles Hays, and Tyler Lockyear were all champions in their weight class. Stephen Upchurch, Dusty Young, Charles Hays, Tyler Lockyear and Travis Cross qualified for regionals. Travis Cross was the first freshman to ever qualify for regionals. Facing tough competition the Rebel's Dusty Young was the only wrestler who advanced to the Semi-State round. At Semi-State Dusty managed to win the first round, but was put out in the second round.

NOT JUST A SPORT FOR HEAVY-WEIGHT. Andrew Jones shows that winners can be any size.

"It takes dedication to wrestle. It means spending 3 months of practice everyday. Saturday morning meets, two-day tourneys, and making weight. Thanksgiving is really a tough time."

Ronnie Harris

"Wrestling is a sport that prepares you for life. It teaches you good sportsmanship and to never give up no matter what the odds."

Drew Pennington

"Wrestling is a great individual sport and it takes 14 individuals to make a great team."

At Camp Varsity Squad Takes Top Honors

The second cheer season with a coed squad started at camp on a successful note: three herkie team awards, one stunt smart award, three spirit awards, the overall herkie team award and the prestigious overall CO-ED Top Gun award. The last day of camp Chris Blake was asked to join the NCA Cheer Staff and Kara Fulkerson was named NCA All-American. This excellent start resulted in more elaborate stunting abilities and drew the squad together as a family. As the year moved on the team grew stronger as did the stunting capabilities of every individual. Game by game the cheer team wowed the crowd with its outstanding tactics. As sectional time rolled around restrictions were placed upon each squad. They may have effected other teams, however, the restrictions did not hinder the Rebels as they stood strong and proud.

Boys 2nd In PAC Girls 4th

The boys' and girls' track team both had very successful seasons. Although the girls team didn't have as many team wins as they wanted, they did manage to send four girls to regional competition at Central High School. The four were Jessica Jones, Lisa Tomlinson, Kendra Goldman, and Lacey Houle.

The boys' team concluded the year with one of its better seasons in the past few years. They defeated six of the eight teams in the PAC and went on to finish fifth at the sectional. The Rebels sent eight people to the regional. They were Jared Roth, John Michael Mullins, Zach Boop, Kyle Valentine, Donnie Eaves, Zach Lawrence, Michael Hurt, and Adam Bowlds. Mullins made it in three events. Roth was the only Rebel to get a first in the sectional, which was in the discus.

Rebels Face Big Change From 1A To 2A

The softball team had an up and down season. However, many improvements were made both as a team and individually. A major change made this season was the team being moved from a 1A to a 2A sectional.

One highlight of the year was once again defeating rival Heritage Hills. A down point in the season came when varsity pitcher, Mallory Schmidt was injured by a line drive back to the pitcher's mound. Her injury resulted in having to undergo surgery to the face.

The Rebels finished the year by winning the first round of the sectional, but they weren't able to capture the title.

Rebels Battle Forest Park In Extra Innings

The Rebels finished regular season play with a record of 12 and 14. Going into the Southridge Sectional they were ready to avenge an earlier loss to the host Raiders. In the opening round Kenny Evans pitched a successful finale performance to his high school career. Going the distance for the Rebs, he was credited with the 6-5 win. Another senior, Charles Hays helped out with his bat by scoring hits and driving in runs. The entire team turned-in a stellar performance as proven by the "no errors" stat.

The second game of the sectional proved to be the heart-breaker. Drew Ayer pitched for seven innings. When he left the game, the score stood at 1-1. He was followed on the mound by Jonathan Thorpe, Jeremy Kuester, and Ronnie Harris. The score remained tied until the top of the ninth when the Rebs broke loose for three runs. However, the high hopes and spirits ended in the bottom of the ninth when Forest Park put four runs on the board.

Tee It Up

2001 was the second year for the school to have a girls' golf team. Seniors Jenna Little and Kara Fulkerson led the team and were helped out by several sophomores. The most improved player during the year proved to be Aimee Robinson.

Matt Broeker proved for another year just why he deserves to be number one. He started the year with a meet score of 32 at Mount Vernon, a feat not easily accomplished since the last two holes were played in the dark. The rest of the guys, inspired by Broeker, worked hard to improve as the season progressed.

We understand that

Sometimes it takes more than days or weeks or months.

to excel in any endeavor in life

Sometimes it takes years or even decades to flourish into the athlete, scholar, it takes time and relentless effort.

Let's Call It A Year

Spring Brings A Renewal Of Spirits

POKEMON FEVER. During breaks Bobby Lawrence and Wayne Lauer can be found in the library playing Pokemon.

CHILD'S PLAY: Robin Higdon and Sarah Collins, members of the child development class, help preschoolers play a game.

Spring brings a shift in interests and a new list of activities to fill our time. Athletes trek outside to the track, the links, the courts and the diamonds. Seniors put the final preparations on the prom and get ready for graduation and underclassmen start looking forward to summer vacation and freedom from homework.

One of the last rites of spring is putting the finishing touches on the yearbook. When the last page of the book is in the mail and on the way to the publisher, then the journalism staff can finally call it a year.

Time to take a rest before getting ready for a new year.

NEW CHESS SETS. D. Birchler and R. Werkmeister make use of the chess sets furnished by Jack and Rita Robinson.

Academic Teams Return For The Second Consecutive Year To The State Finals

FINE ARTS TEAM: Sasha Rohde, Emily Cox, Keve Bates, and Stephanie Wirthwein.

INTERDISCIPLINARY TEAM: Jonathan Drew, Ryan Reid, Emily Cox, and Sasha Rohde.

Wrap it up;
clean it up;
call it a year

MR. HELPFUL: Dustin Sarver helps put away some sound equipment.

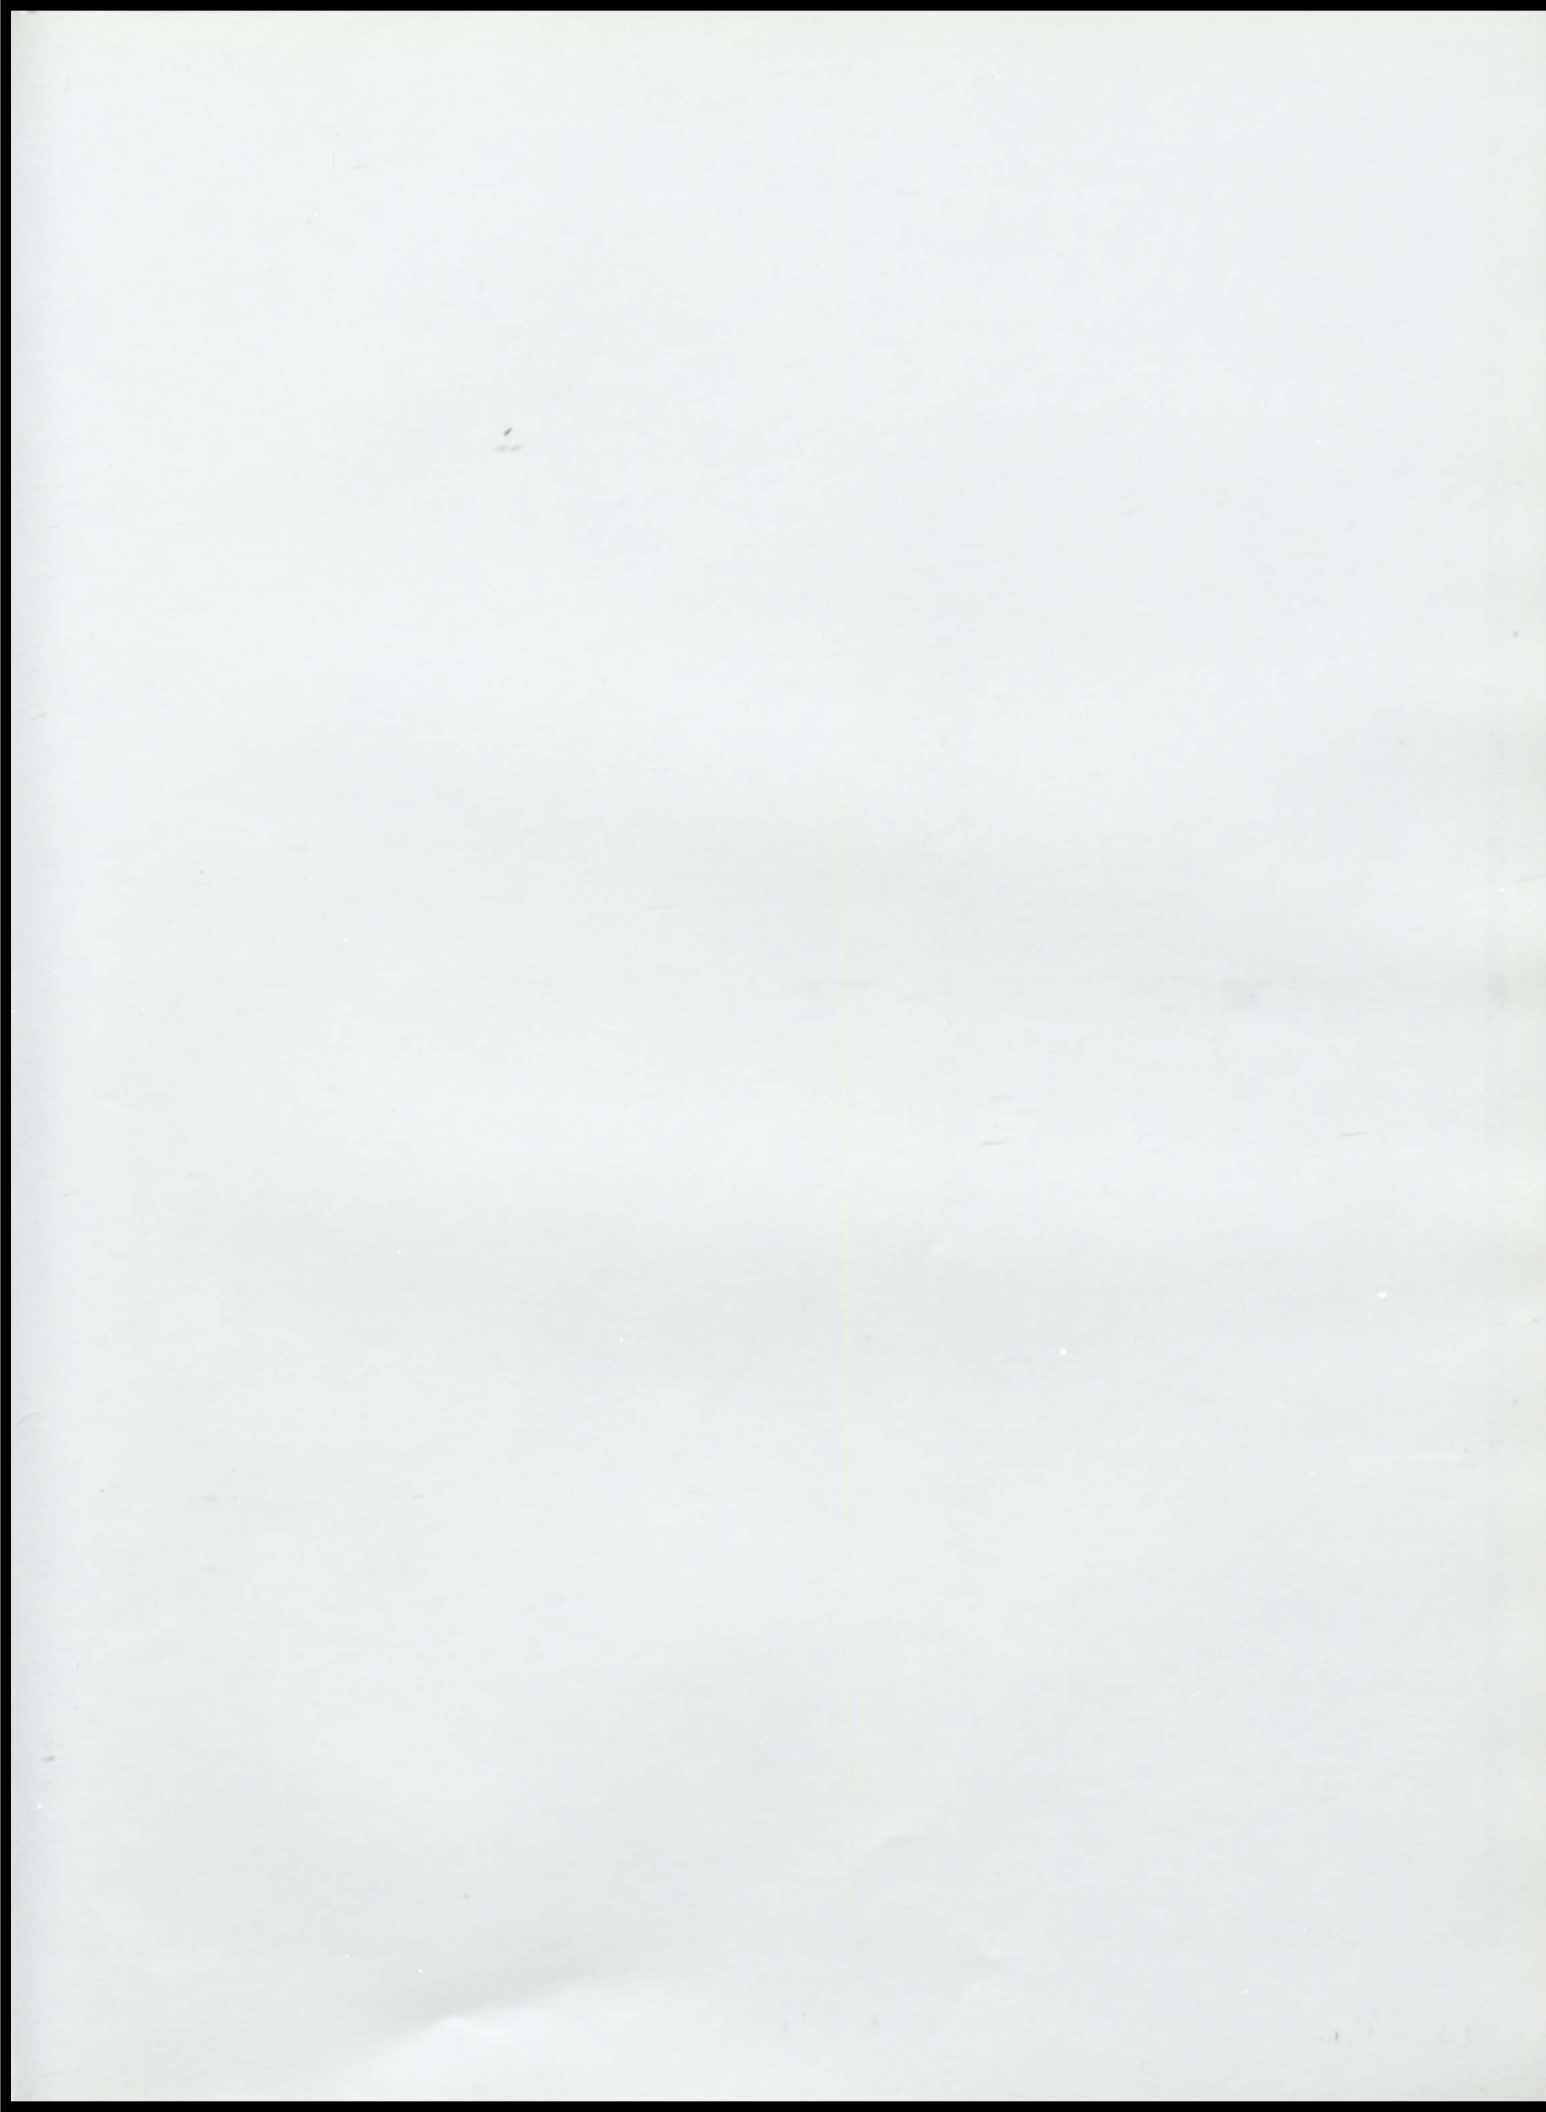

"Be Like A Bird"

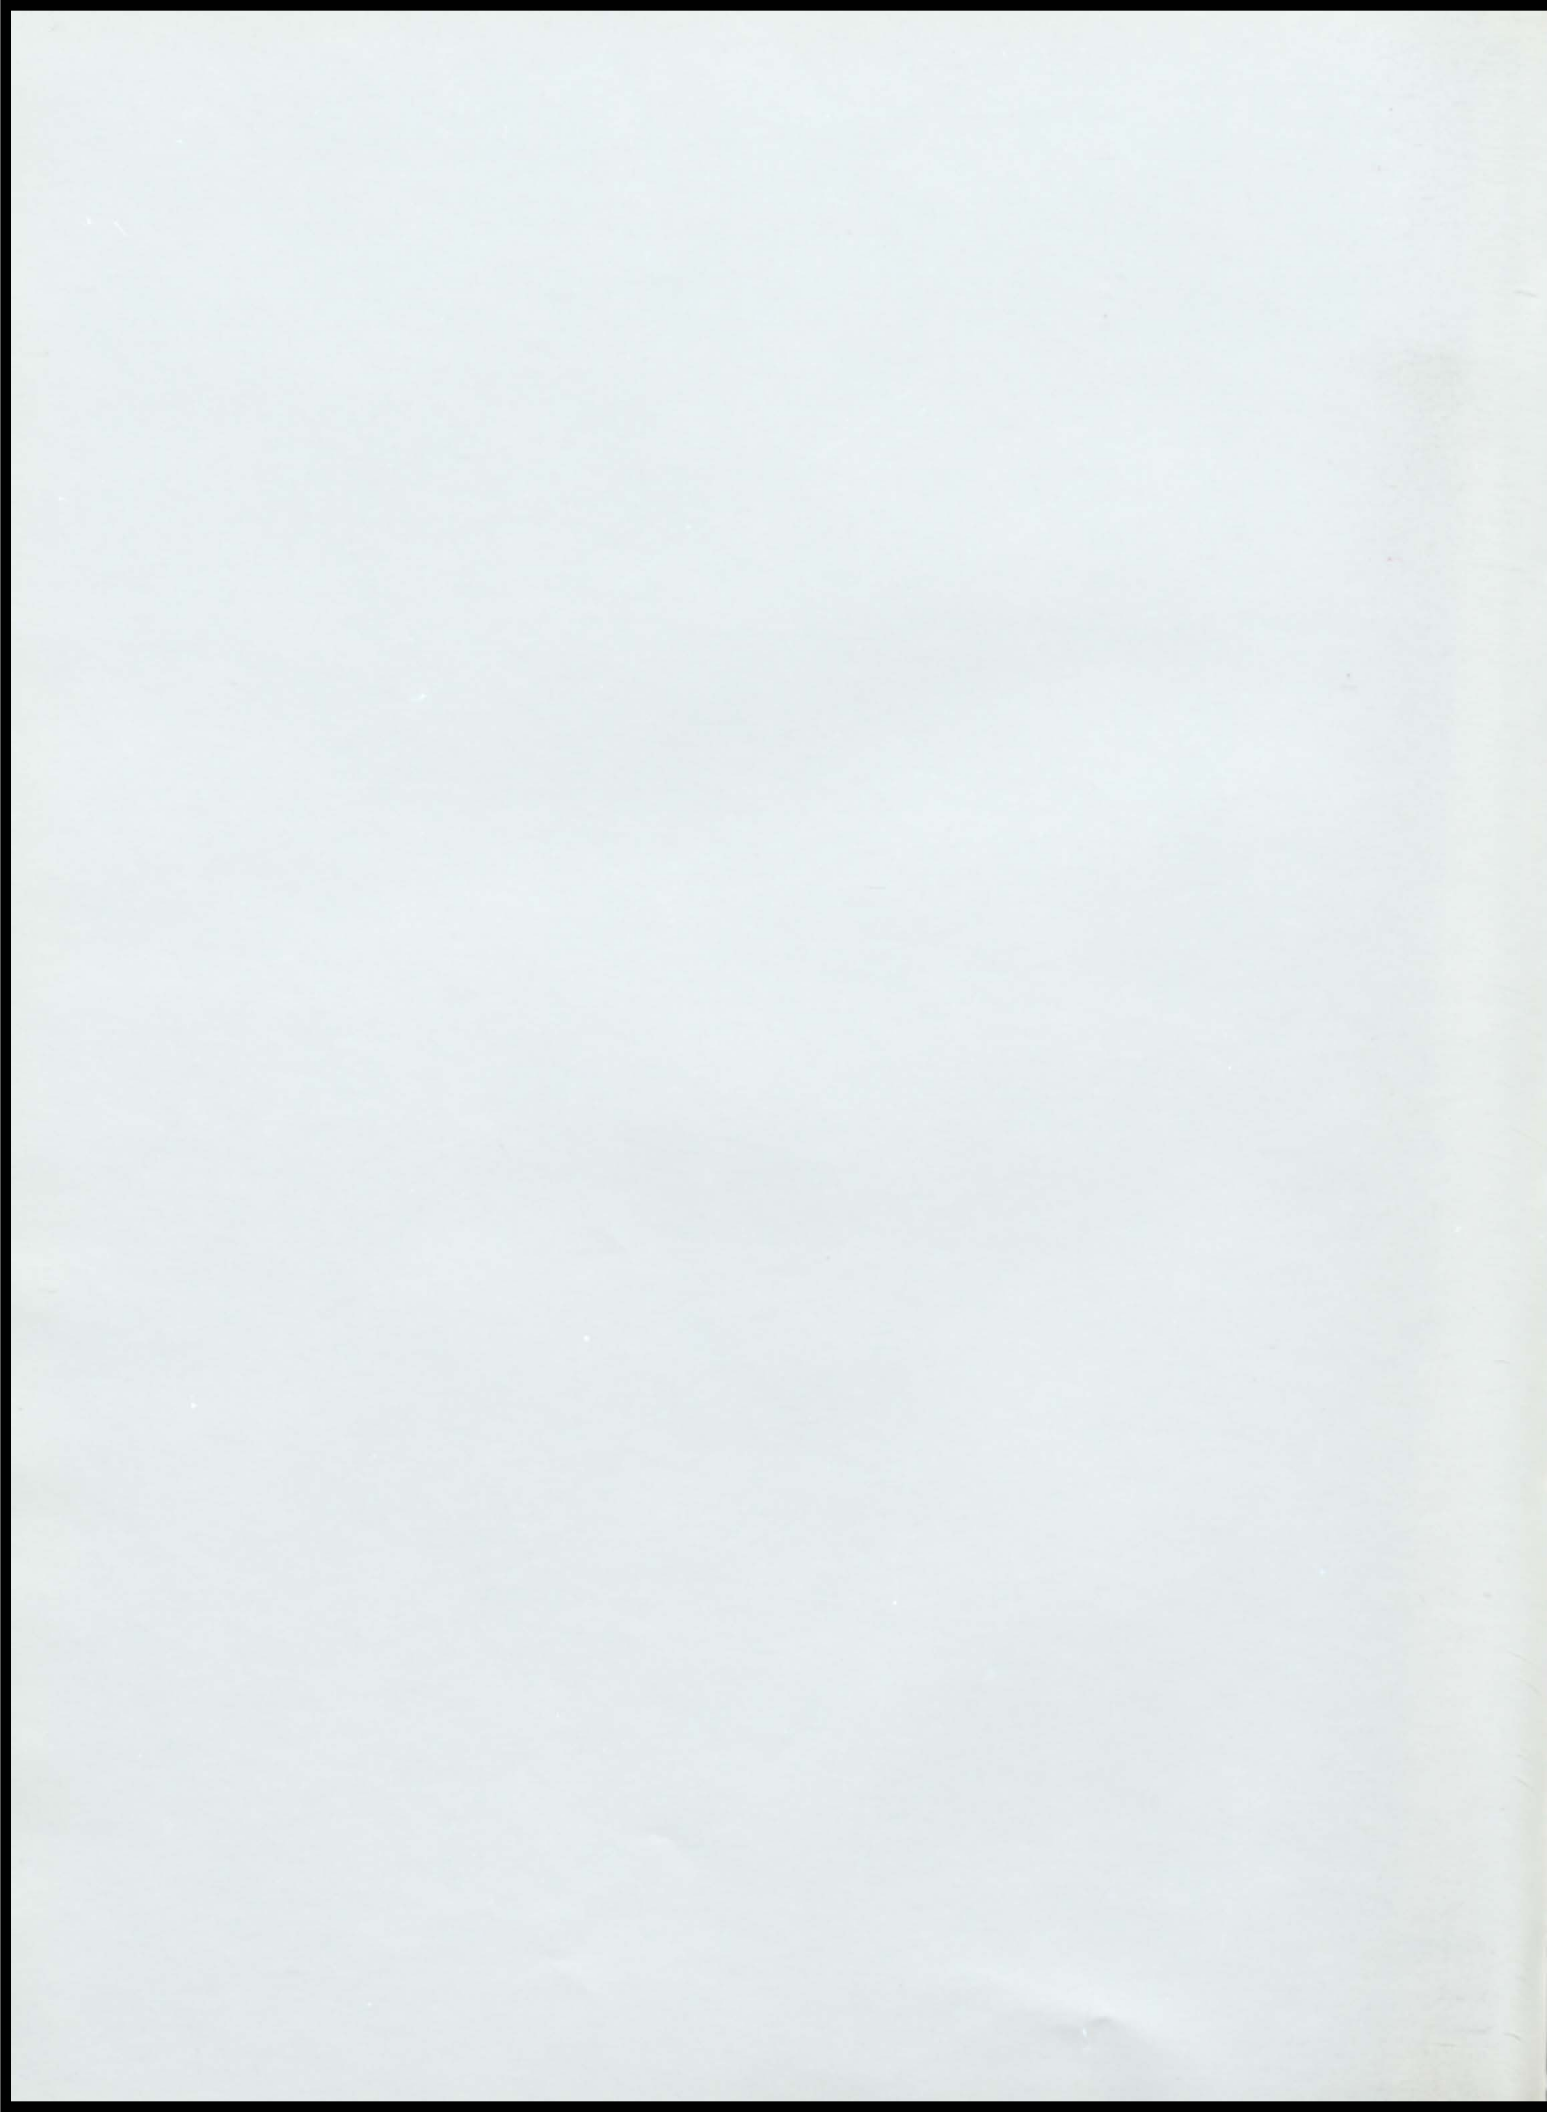

*Be like a bird, who
Hauling in his flight
On a limb too slight
Feels it give way to him,
Yet sings
Knowing he has wings.
