HERITAGE HILLS HIGH SCHOOL

This year the students were challenged to "own" the year and strive to do their personal best in the classroom and beyond. This rainbow was captured early on in the year by retiring art teacher Kay

Anne Peake. It reminds us of our commitment to positive results and keeping Patriot spirit alive and well.
Great job, HHHS. You "owned" the 2011-2012 school year!

Heritage Hills' faculty and staff provide a solid and caring presence for the students and each other on a daily basis. This year, they worked together to gain AdvancEd accreditation for the high school. Many faculty members stepped into leadership roles as part of three new initiatives designed to improve communication, balance responsibilities, and boost spirit and staff involvement. From start to finish, the staff kept a positive attitude and displayed the highest degree of professionalism, even amid changing demands in education. They truly display best practice in the classroom each day.

< Peggy Wendholt and Debbie Dempsey mix the batter of a soon-to-be amazing cake.

< Sharon Frenchville keeps the laundry caught up.

^ Sharon Garland has assumed more duties during the year because of personnel changes.

^ Barbara Wells began the year in the high school, but transitioned to the middle school.

^ Mel Bolin has been a quiet leader around HHHS and will be difficult to replace.

Heritage Hills said goodbye to a great pair of gentlemen this year in the maintenance department. Mel Bolin, night custodian for many years, got married and retired within a one week period during the second semester. Ted Smith, who brings a smile to all he meets, moved away from Spencer County. Both of these hard-working men will be missed.

^ Our fabulous lunch ladies take a break to smile for their photo opportunity.

> Barbara Huffman finishes another batch of delicious hamburgers.

These lovely ladies whip up wonderful meals for close to a thousand students and faculty members every single day. They come in early every day to make students' favorite dishes and desserts. The cooks not only brighten the school day with their amazing meals, but also by decorating the cafeteria and singing Happy Birthday. These ladies are truly amazing.

^ Lori Lubbehusen dots each piece of pie with Cool Whip.

Maintenance

The men and women that make up our maintenance department help to keep our school in tip top condition. They clean the classrooms, mop the bathrooms, wipe up the floors, fix the lighting, wash laundry, and wax the hallways. They are the behind the scenes crew that keeps HHHS functioning at its best.

New Faces around the Campus

Ken Moffitt, Katie McKusson, and Becky Ledere joined the HHHS maintenance department as the year was already in full swing.

^ Albert Nord repairs a light fixture in the hallway.

^ Herman Souders fixes things no one else dares to try!

^ Mark Souders works on the weekends while the students are sleeping.

^ Frank Durbin fixes the electrical cord on a fan.

^ Mr. Denning enjoys a cross country meet.

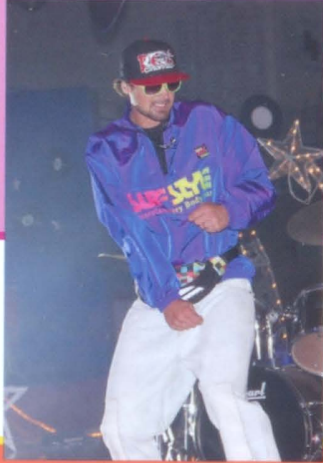

^ Ms. Wade and her sister spend a relaxing afternoon at the carnival.

^ Ms. Cross always has a smile for the students and staff.

Love with all your heart.
Mom & Dad

Kailee Zuelly

Strong, independent, obstinate, friendly, combative, fierce, loyal, and always...my baby girl. As the years go by I've seen a little girl grow into a young lady that has learned that life has many ups and downs.
Love you,
Daddy

What qualities do you bring to our school?

Gabrielle Yeager

"I think I am very active in and out of the classroom. I try to play an active role in the classroom and also in all of my sports."

Jame Damsey

"I bring effort to our school. I try really really hard to put everything I have into whatever I might be doing."

Railey Crews

"I think I bring kindness and consideration to our school. I try to be very kind to everyone, and I am also very considerate of other people as well."

Bethany Miller

"I try to be very cheerful and happy no matter what! If people are down I make sure to cheer them up!"

> Sophomore Preston VanWinkle shares a laugh with one of his friends.

< Kaylee Zoglman, Morgan Schum, Cadie DellaMorta, and Courtney McKnight cheese it up at a football game!

>> Junior Shelby Deller cheeses at a basketball game.

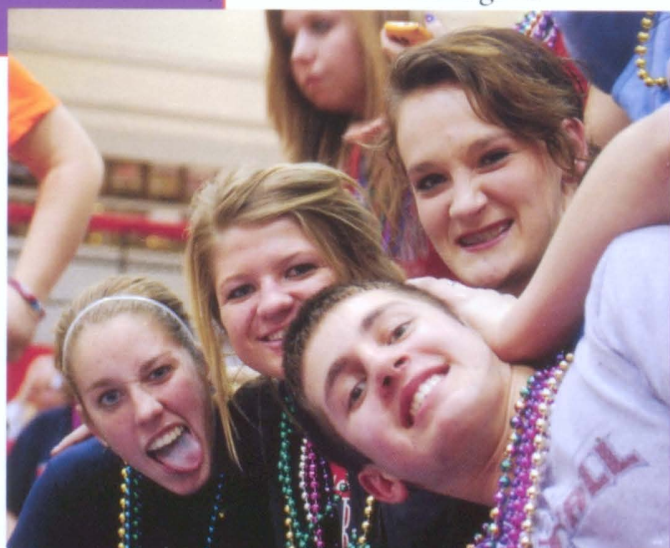

^ Sydney Kohlstrom and Willie McElhaney get all made up for Fright Night.

> Junior Jared Boehm flexes in his old school get up.

Freshmen, sophomore, and junior years are the years of growth and Heritage Hills is a great place to experience the journey. Spirited and loud, the underclassmen are impacting the school in a huge way. Being an underclassman takes work, from a gullible freshman who believes what any upperclassmen tells them, to a junior who is beginning to realize what life is all about. Our underclassmen are giving it their all--determination, perseverance, and continuance, and doing it with style.

< Juniors Ashton Boehman, Jaslyn Aders, and Destiny Coffinet share a silly moment in their Book Club t-shirts.

Photos provided by Alyssa Begle, Lindsey Leiberling,
Bailey Spencer, and Kathy Wilmes

The student council works diligently to make sure functions run smoothly throughout the school. Special committees led by President Damon Wahl coordinate school dances, canned food drives, homecoming, carnival, the Impact team and many more activities for the student body. Sponsored by Instructional Assistant Mary Waninger, this wonderful group of students accomplished amazing things in the 2011-2012 school year.

^ Ms. Waninger instructs seniors Lindsey Leiberling and Damon Wahl on money for the concession stands.

^ Seniors Zach Blake, Kirsten Stepro, and Lauren Alexander prepare to crown the prince and princess of Holiday Ball.

^ Carolyn Burroughs hands another member a piece of tape.

^ Nolan Brinkman holds snowflake decorations to be hung from the ceiling.

^ Seniors Lauren Alexander and Nicole Mercker push a cart to collect canned goods for a family in need.

> Gina Wahl holds the string for donuts in the Impact Teams Survivor competition.

v Allison Smith, while working at the dance concessions, passes a napkin to Grant Shepherd.

v Kailee Taylor sets the tablecloth with Sam Schwindel's assistance.

Natural Helpers

Natural Helpers can be found all throughout Heritage Hills. Students can approach them with any issues or problems they encounter. They meet during many ECA sessions and this year held a Natural Helpers mixer. They are always available to listen.

< Gina Wahl, Sam Scherry, and Gavin Schaefer await what Blake Bumm has to say.

^ Nolan Brinkman and Davis Iochim lead a group discussion at the new student breakfast.

> Kaitlin Kralj discusses school with Amy Crum at the new student breakfast.

^ Lauren Hohl, Shyann Smith, and Sarah Ayer are intrigued by a discussion during an ECA meeting.

PEP

The members of Peers Educating Peers work to teach a message about prevention of sex, drugs, and alcohol. After a training session, they visited 7th grade, 8th grade, and freshman classrooms to inform on subjects such as STDs, teen pregnancy, and what love means.

> Bailey Spencer quizzes Taylor Sigler and Julie Heltzel on STD statistics at a training session.

< Lindsey Leiberling sets up dominoes as a demonstration.

> Dane Mehling calls on a student to answer a question with his group including Christian Hall, Alexa Koch, and Felicia Leiberling.

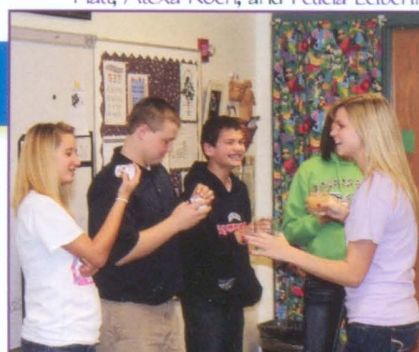

^ Alexa Koch writes about the Love Continuum.

< Kaylee Hayden and Windy Yearby read facts to the class.

^ Kylee Kaetzel, Nolan Brinkman, Heidi Greulich, Kaylee Zogelman, and Mallori Hirt rehearse their presentation.

< Taylor Sigler conducts a demonstration to teach the students about how bodily fluids and STDs are exchanged.

H.O.S.A.

The students of H.O.S.A. travel to Tell City every morning for the first two class periods where they prepare themselves for the medical field. Whether the girls are spending time at the hospital, nursing home, or in the classroom, they always have a fun time. The class is taught by Karen Doogs of Tell City High School.

▼ Kailee Zuelly and Staci Schaefer give a speech in class.

▲ Kiersten Kennedy, Brittney Karpowicz, and Natalie Biever read their papers in front of the class.

< Danielle Hanger loves helping the students as they take part in a hands-on activity.

▲ Taryn Hagan helps the kids wrap their classmate into a mummy.

Optimist

Throughout the year the Optimist Club does a lot to give back to the community and the school. This year, the club has sold ice cream at the carnival, tutored elementary students, and presented to the school how everyone should stop and think before using the "R" word. Thanks to them, our community and school can be the best it can be!

< President, Alyssa Begle, introduces the Optimist Club and informs the school about the presentation.

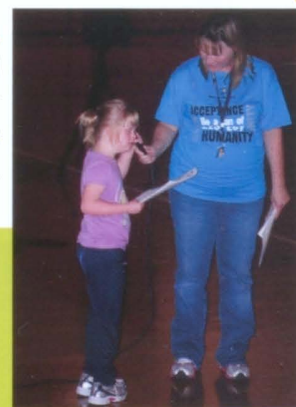

▲ The group smiles after giving their presentation on the "R" word.

< Ms. Miller reads the list of activities the club will be doing in the next few weeks.

> Ms. Johnson and her daughter speak at the presentation.

> Abby Fischer looks over the binder during a meeting to see what else needs to be discussed.

Student Renaissance

^ Hunk of the Hills, Mr. Nolan Brinkman, stands after winning his title as the 2012 Mr. Patman.

^ Bailey Spencer, Ashley Schaus, and Jack Woollems discuss ideas for the rally.

The Student Renaissance Club recognizes and rewards students at HHHS who show characteristics and behavior that lead to improving a student's performance. Not only does Renaissance host the academic rally at the end of the year, but also Mr. Patman in March. There, a group of young men compete to become the next hunk of Heritage Hills. Finally, Renaissance is in charge of rewarding students every nine weeks for making honor roll or improving their grades.

The students under the guidance of Ms. Fischer, Mr. Iochim, and Ms. Wilkerson are extremely vital to the well-being of our school. They truly are amazing and inspiring individuals. As a fund raiser, the entire Tri-State area comes together at the Polar Plunge at Scales Lake in Boonville. Teams dress up and run into the freezing cold water to raise money. They also participate in the Special Olympics each year. This year they performed extremely well, taking home multiple first, second, and third place ribbons! They make HHHS proud every day.

The Auto Club had a great year. In the fall they hosted their annual car show. The bright, fun cars caused tons of students to take a gander. Then they continued their routine work of fixing everyone else's cars, all while preparing for their spring competitions. As a group, they did very well, Mason Kelly in particular. He placed 4th in the regional contest, and went on to represent the Auto Club at state. Overall the Auto Club accomplished so much and represented HHHS well.

Voice and S.A.D.D. or Students Against Destructive Decisions, has always been a very productive group. They continually voice the effects of bad decision-making such as drinking under age, drug use, and rebellions against the law. Voice and S.A.D.D. fills an important role in the school community and allows students to be role models and leaders.

Ms. Fortune has done it once again! The theatre classes this year did a play for the community called Arsenic and Old Lace. Students spent lots of time preparing for this production. They also did a Christmas production with the choir classes, A Nursing Home Christmas. The beginning theater class was featured in the spring musical, Annie Get Your Gun, for which other people in the school can also audition. The class played the part of background dancers, helping to make the production go smoothly. Hunter Granderson and Jack Woolems received larger roles in the musical, acting as Tommy and Chief Sitting Bull. All and all this has been a good year for the theatre classes. Good luck next year!

Remember

After 34 years, Coach Clayton is making the 2011 Patriots his last team to coach. With 320 wins, multiple sectional championships, and a state championship, Bob Clayton has become a legend! Patriot football won't be the same without you, Coach!

▲ Ben Hawkins runs the ball for a Patriot first down!

The Patriots proved they never give up without a fight this year, with a winning season of 7 wins and 2 losses. There were many highlights of the year; the laser win stands out for both fans and players! Many of the young men played their best game that night. The boys enjoyed an amazing season and fought hard in the sectional. This year, after many years of noted success, Coach Clayton will step down as head coach. Next year, assistant coach Todd Wilkerson will fill his shoes and continue the tradition of Patriot excellence. Off the field, Ben Smith, Damon Wahl, and Devon Wahl earned All-State Academic honors for their performance in the classroom. Jared Boehm, Miles Kline, Zach Lubbehusen, Trent Simpson, Damon Wahl, Tre Williams, and Daniel Zavala were named to the PAC All-Conference team. Thanks for the memories, boys!

Girls' Record
67-24

Both the boys' and girls' cross country teams gave their all this year. The 2011 Girls' Cross Country Team took sectional and PAC honors. Led by seniors Shaylyn Ayer, Jessica Deller, Kiersten Kennedy, and Lauren McSwain, the team showed the state they meant business. The team advanced to the state finals and placed 22nd. Coach Denning said, "Teams improved all year and the 'never give up' attitude is what propelled the girls to the state finals once again." Senior Kiersten Kennedy was also named to the Academic All-Conference team.

For the boys' team, junior Ben Woolems beat the course record with a time of 15 minutes and 46 seconds. Senior Jake Fella made the Academic All-Conference team. Coach Denning said the "seniors were great leaders and kept the teams focused and on track during practices as well as at the meets."

Being a cheerleader means not only to help motivate people to take pride in their team, but also to lead and demonstrate to the fans in the stands how to show off that spirit. Cheerleaders are the backbone and the support system that help motivate teams to do their best. The three musketeers, Taryn Hagan, Alex Cochenour, and Alexa Koch led the squad this year. Through football season and into basketball season, the cheerleaders pepped up the crowd no matter what the event.

The boys' basketball team was led this year by a large group of seniors. Damon Wahl, Devon Wahl, Jake Fella, and Adam Price were named Academic All Conference, as well as receiving Honorable Mention for Academic All-State. Damon Wahl, Devon Wahl, and Jackson Woolems were named to the All Spencer County team. Adam Price received the mental attitude award, an award voted on by the team. Logan Schaefer had the highest field goal percentage, 58.8%. With such a big senior group, the boys brought back a lot of varsity experience. This helped them to win many rough games.

VARSITY

After a tough season last year, the girls this year really pulled through and used their effort to win eight of twenty-three games. The team had a great group of seniors to lead the team with positive energy. They won the PSC Holiday Classic this year due to their hard work and dedication. An individual award was given to Brittney Karpowicz for winning All-Conference. The offensive award was also given to Brittney Karpowicz for being leading scorer. Abby Fischer was presented the outstanding defensive award for most steals in games. Best mental attitude award was given to Bailey Spencer for being a motivational leader for herself and the team. This year there were also many brilliant scholar-athletes. The Academic All-Conference award was given to Bailey Spencer, Ally Tsimekles, Brittney Karpowicz, Natalie Biever, and Melissa Aldridge.

"With the leadership of our seniors our team had a good "turn around" season. We made a lot of progress and memories on and off the court."

The swim and dive team this year has been the biggest it has ever been since Coach Angie Spinner took over. With 51 swimmers crammed into 6 lanes, everyone became quite close! But with all those swimmers came talent, and the two teams had an outstanding season. Winning the first PAC title in 6 years, the girls finally achieved what they had been working for all season. The boys took home third place right behind South Spencer and Pike Central. Junior, Morgan Schum, broke the school diving record by 17 points this year! She also made her way to state finals where she placed 27th. Senior Ethan Welch received the four year Scholar Award, while Drew McCutchan and Emma Burns earned the High Point Awards! All in all, the Patriots had a great season this year.

Wrestling

The wrestling team this year had many accomplishments during their season, such as winning sectional for the first time in school history. This was a huge feat for the team and was carried out through hard work and positivity. Another outstanding accomplishment by the wrestlers this year was that the majority of the team advanced to the regional. And last but not least, Jared Boehm and Swade Oser pushed through all the way to state competition. Jared took home eighth place and Swade was earned fourth place. The team, overall and individually, had an outstanding season!

Jake Fella

The boys' track and field team worked very hard this season to improve their skills. They competed in multiple meets each week and always did their best. Multiple members on the team had this hard work pay off by advancing to the regional competition. Among those regional competitors are Jake Fella in the 800m race, Ben Woolems in the 3200m race, Aaron Boehm in discus, and Cabe Konerding, Evan Gogel, Zach Blake, and Jake Fella in the 4X400m relay.

The girls' track team had a super season in 2012. They placed 6th in sectional as a team; however, the relay teams and many other individual girls advanced in their events. Kandace Buechler was named All-Conference for her pole vaulting skills, while Sienna Crews received All-Conference honors in both the 1600 and 3200 M runs. The team earned 4th place in the PAC with a score of 75.50. With a large returning class, Coach Mix and the team will continue to shine in 2013.

The 2012 Heritage Hills baseball team had a phenomenal group of boys this year. Many of these gentlemen have been united since childhood tee-ball games. With each intense practice, the boys flourished in their baseball skills as they hoped to defeat the upcoming opponent. The boys were named PAC champions as they finished undefeated in the PAC. The season had an outstanding record of 22 wins and 9 losses. Damon Wahl, Trent Simpson, Tyler Ward, and Cole Burroughs were named to the All PAC Conference team. Carrett Wetzel and Adam Price were Honorable Mention for the team. Damon Wahl was the recipient of the Patriot Award and Adam Price won the Mental Attitude award. The Lady Patriot softball team set their goals high this year. They aimed for not only a winning season, but a sectional title. The team accomplished both of these goals with a winning record of 24 wins and 7 losses. This year's team actually tied the school record for most wins in a season. They also took the title of sectional champions. They worked each day in practices and in their numerous games to complete a season they could be proud of. Not only did their hard work as a team pay off, but many individual players were rewarded for their efforts. Heidi Greulich received All PAC for outfield, Kaitlyn Kralj for pitcher, Felicia Leiberling as utility, and Toni Braun for infield. Whether it was their high expectations or their bright shorts, the 2012 Patriot golf team stole the attention everywhere it went! In the beginning, the team set a very high goal to make it to state! Many on the team did not believe this would be difficult. Travis Waninger said, "I knew we were capable of being one of the best at state. But golf is a game of good and bad breaks. Sometimes your best effort will not get the job done. But we knew we had the talent." On their way to state, the team won many invites and multiple matches. To add to the list of accomplishments, the boys easily took the PAC championship. By the end of the season, our Patriot golf team soared their way on to state! Their main goal had been achieved. At state the team did not advance to day two; however, Travis Waninger made it through as an individual and finished 14th overall.

This season for the Patriots was a great one. "I felt like the season went well. We beat some records, won two 18 hole tournaments, and made it to state," stated Nick Teaford. Even though the team is losing three key players, the future of Patriot golf looks good.

The 2012 girls' tennis team gained momentum from its new members this season. The senior leaders, Bridget Butcher, Lauren McSwain, Jessica Deller, Alyssa Begle, and Morgan Schaeffer, did an amazing job at bringing the team together. The ladies ended the season with an overall record of 7-8 and went a respectable 4-4 in the PAC. Both Bridget Butcher and Emmi Stark received Honorable Mention awards in the PAC. With multiple returning players, the team should continue building on its strengths during the 2013 season.

Homecoming Week

Students participate in a variety of dress-up days and events leading up to homecoming. Dress-up days can vary from wearing the craziest hat in the closet to going back in time to the 80's and pulling out the leg warmers and leather jackets. Students sport suspenders and high socks for nerd day, and wear their crowns and tiaras on the last day of homecoming week in honor of the homecoming king and queen. On Wednesday of homecoming week, the girls get a chance to own the football field and show the boys their talent during a game of powder puff football. Football homecoming is always a favorite event of the year. It is the first time the student body gets to vote for their friends to be named king and queen. This year tradition was broken and the Homecoming Court Parade was introduced! The Senior Court members walked the hallways throwing candy, riding mini four-wheelers, and campaigning for their cause. Jake Fella and Toni Braun will never forget the night as they were crowned king and queen of the 2011 Football Homecoming Court! However, Jake and Toni won't be the only ones to remember the night; Blake Bumm stole the spot light when he became so overwhelmed with pride, he did a back flip! Homecoming was a success with an awesome dance to end the night.

At the prom girls get to look glamorous and guys can put on their best swag and dance until the wee hours of the morning. This year, Grecian Gardens was the theme, complete with columns and the Parthenon. The chocolate fountain was a hit as always, and a photo booth was added this year where students could get pictures with friends with props and silly poses. The 2012 Prom was a fun evening from start to finish!

^ The 2012 HHHS Prom Court consists of: Damon Wahl, Adam Price, JP Dennis, Alex Collignon, Jack Woolems, Jake Fella, Lauren McSwain, Brooke Hensley, Jessica Deller, Heidi Greulich, Alyssa Begle, and Toni Braun.

After Prom is a good way to end the Prom night. Even through the late hours of the night, the students found it in them to have fun! This event is put on by a group of junior parents who dedicate their time to making this night a fun event! This year the theme was Wild, Wild West. The gym and cafeteria were decorated with all things western. Sticking with the theme, there were many new games introduced. Sheriff Shoot-Out, Wrecking Ball, and the ping pong tourney were the popular activities this year. Cornhole was also a crowd favorite. After Prom this year was a big hit!

There's no business like show business when the members of the musical take the stage in a great performance of Annie Get Your Gun, where they performed a telling tale of love, loss, and love again. With a dual cast the musical was performed over two weeks giving way to a very large, overall crowd. Grant Shepherd and Kylee Kaetzel performed as Frank Butler and Annie Oakley during the first weekend, while Will Koch and Lindsey Leiberling had the feature roles the second weekend. The cast put in many hours of rehearsal and it paid off with a quality performance. The cast and crew lived up to the precedent of excellence set by Ms. Fortune and her previous casts as a classic musical with western flair was revived.

Choir this year was full of beautiful voices! A newer tradition Ms. Staffeld has started is a Halloween show called Fright Nite. This is the students' first performance of the year, which is always fun for the children and adults of the community to watch. This year they also had a smaller Christmas show, which they performed with Ms. Fortune's theatre class. Throughout the year, the choirs participate in competitions like Solo and Ensemble. Many of the choir students, including Mixed lazz received gold at state. Girls' lazz also got silver. They also travel to some churches in the area to sing gospel music on Sunday nights. The year wrapped up with the spring concert, Totally 80s. This showcased many of the favorites from this era, including a special tribute to Michael Jackson. The band, under the direction of Mr. Akers, did fun things as well. Concert band performed their annual show for the community, as well as a spirit night competition performance. Marching band and color guard competed at the state level and in many other competitions throughout the state. Winter guard performed their show at Terre Haute South with style. The pep band, as always, led the school with upbeat music to get the student body going during sporting events, pep sessions, and so much more!

^ Nick Betz reveals his Patriot power, representing his fellow football players.

With the initiation of Spirit Nights, Own It themes, and Patriot Flags, Heritage Hills has experienced a year full of energy. The new found spirit has created a student body full of optimism, encouragement, and unity. We have learned that our presence as whole makes for a much more successful student section which, in turn, has a more positive outcome for our peers participating. We owe it to each other to support all HHHS activities and be the loud, proud Patriots we are!

Wise Words from Our Fierce Leader: Mr. Alcorn

1. "I feel that Patriot Spirit is one of the most important components of our school. If the students, staff, and community do not support their school, then that school will be average at best. It is a wonderful feeling to see people rallying around students as they represent our school and our community."

2. "The spirit has been better at times this year, but it could be even better. The students started off the year with a great deal of energy, but sustaining that energy has been difficult. The staff has made a concentrated effort to be more visible at school events and the results have been fantastic. The community has not responded the way that I hoped they would, so we need to keep working in that direction."

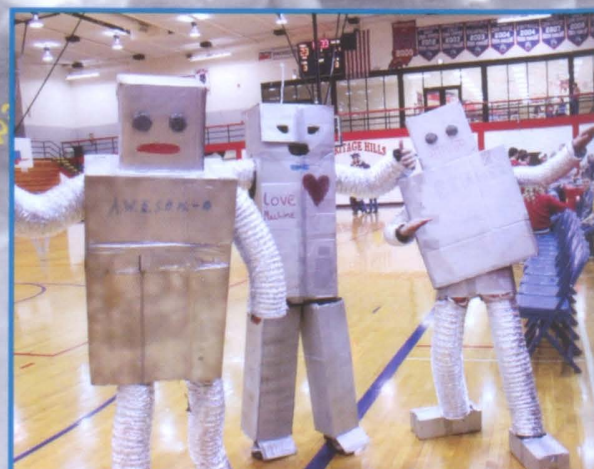

3. "The seniors have played a big role in the improvement in the school's spirit amongst the students. Their challenge is to finish the year strong to establish a culture of school spirit for students to follow in the years to come."

1. How do you feel about Patriot Spirit?

2. Do you feel that this year's spirit has been better than in the past?

3. How do you feel about this year's senior leadership?

^ Mitch Dugas, Ben Woolems, and Jack Woolems unleash the robot within and excite the crowd at the girls' home basketball game.

Kay Anne Peake

Jerry Bell

HHHS wishes the best to four of its own this year. Jerry Bell, Karen Kramer, Kay Anne Peake, and Callie Wade will start a new phase in their lives in June of 2012. Ms. Peake dedicated 25 years to teaching students to love art, including the 12 years she worked at HHHS. She previously taught at Marion Community Schools, as well as at Marian Heights Academy in Ferdinand. Ms. Peake hopes the students believe "it's never too late to start over and make yourself into the best person you can be." Ms. Kramer has instructed health and physical education for 33 years total. Ms. Kramer reminisced about the day she brought her dog Boots to school and he found his way to the kitchen where he ate a tray of french fries! She thought she might get detention from the cafeteria ladies! When asked what he enjoyed most about his 38 years of teaching in North Spencer, Mr. Bell replied, "I enjoy seeing the light bulb come on." While Ms. Wade will miss teaching and her school friendships, she will not miss the grading of papers and the early morning meetings! She leaves students after 37 years at HHHS with these words of advice, "You will only get out of a class what you put into it. If you want respect, show respect to the teacher and your classmates. If you want to succeed, always do more than expected." While the hallways will seem a little emptier in 2012-2013, these teachers have earned a well-deserved retirement.
