RAINBOWS

showing colorful characteristics, is uniquely beautiful. The rainbow holds so many reflections -- hope and a promise of life. We know that after a storm a calm, peaceful time follows . . . and perhaps a rainbow.

In the rainbow's colors we can see reflections of tears, laughter, joy, warmth, sorrow, expectations and dreams. Each moment of life is as precious as the beauty of the rainbow.

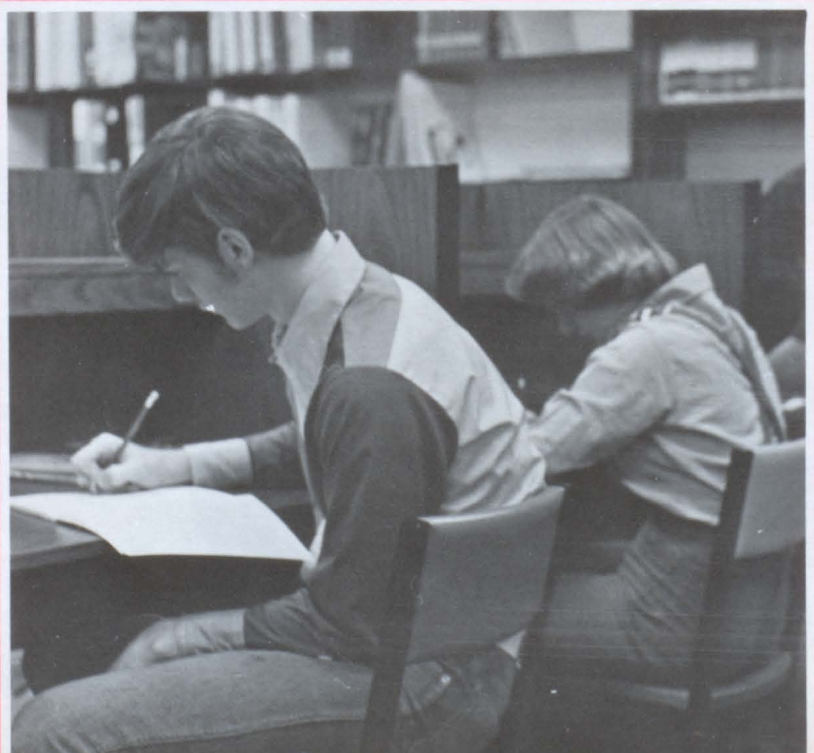

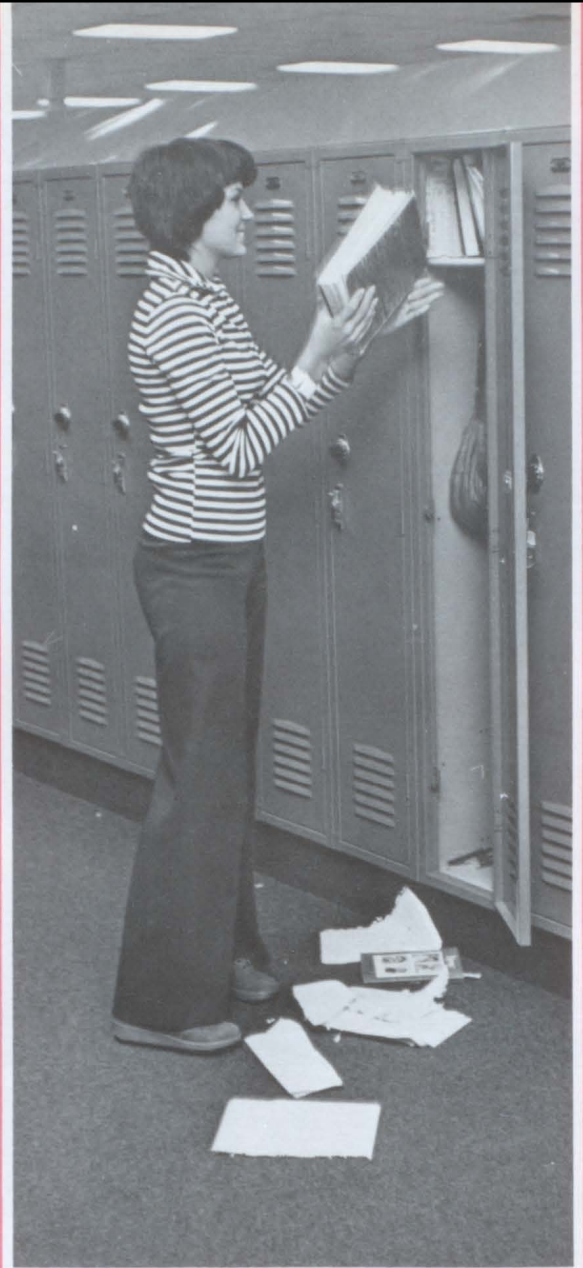

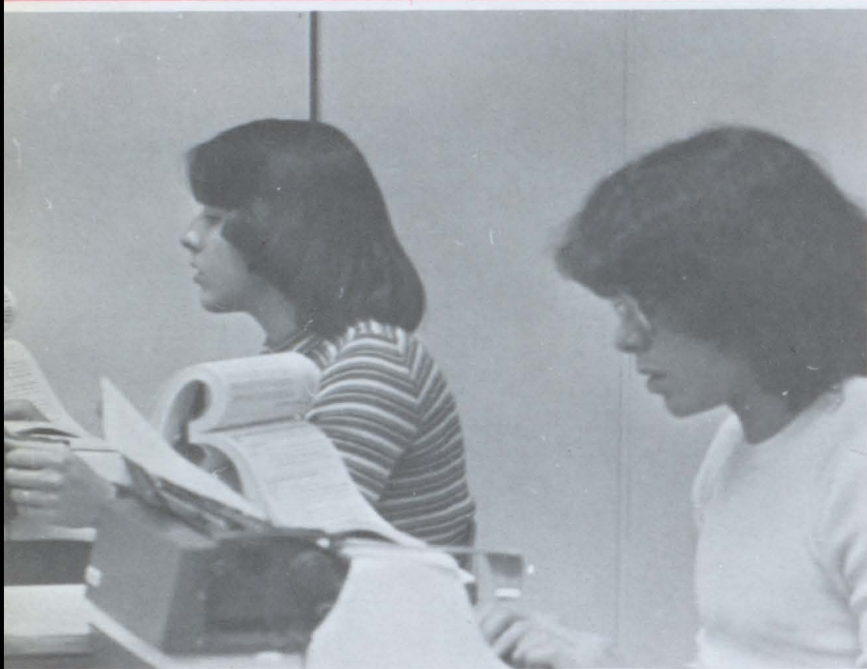

We have so many experiences to remember of 1978: the fun we had in class with our friends; the football PAC title game; the crownings of our homecoming queens; the time we spent making posters, displays and skits; the joy we experienced during snow days and when we finally returned to school and our friends.

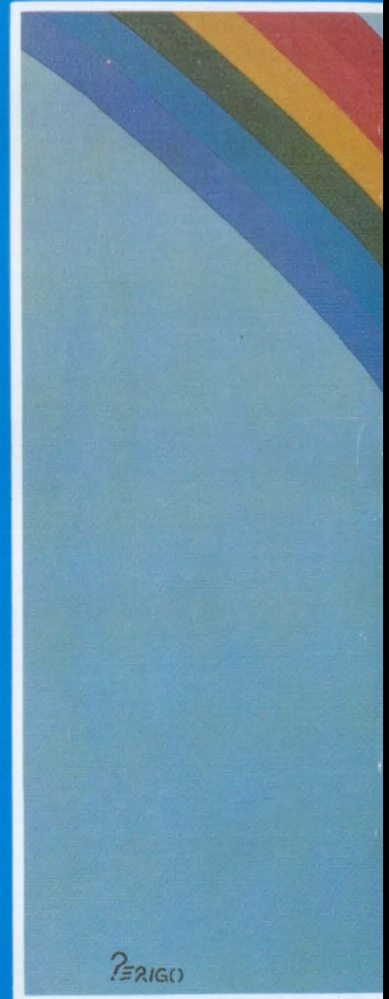

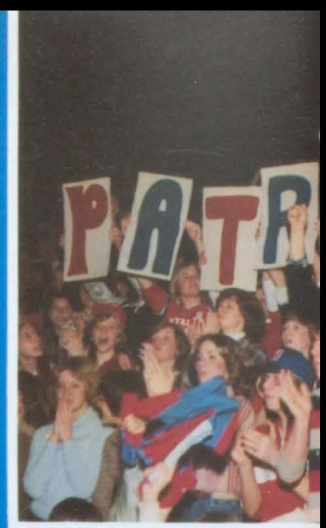

Everyday we saw the same people doing a job identical to the one they did the day before: sitting at a typewriter, studying in the library, or goofing off in the locker area. We also remember special moments: serving lunch to guests, creating an outfit, or forming a jar of clay.

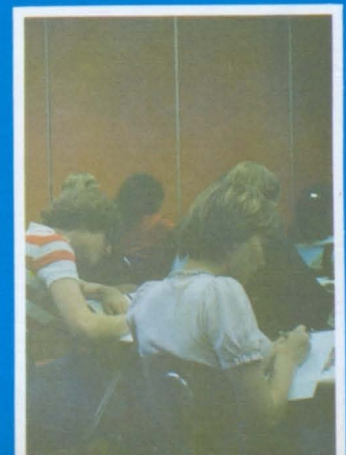

The rainbow holds a promise for us. Its hues of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and violet are the colors of our emotions.

Red, denoting anger, is the most vibrant of the rainbow's colors. Anger is the emotion that can determine one's present and future life. It may leave a person exasperated or perhaps get him where he wanted to be all along. Words spoken in anger are often mistakes. Angry comments spoken to a referee, to the other team, or to a superior are often regretted.

Orange, linked with warmth, is the feeling of friendliness to others. Friendships created in school may last only a few weeks or an entire lifetime depending on the warmth between the friends.

Yellow gives the feeling of uncertainty or anxiety. Because there is uncertainty in life, people have hope for the future and hope causes people to make their lives better.

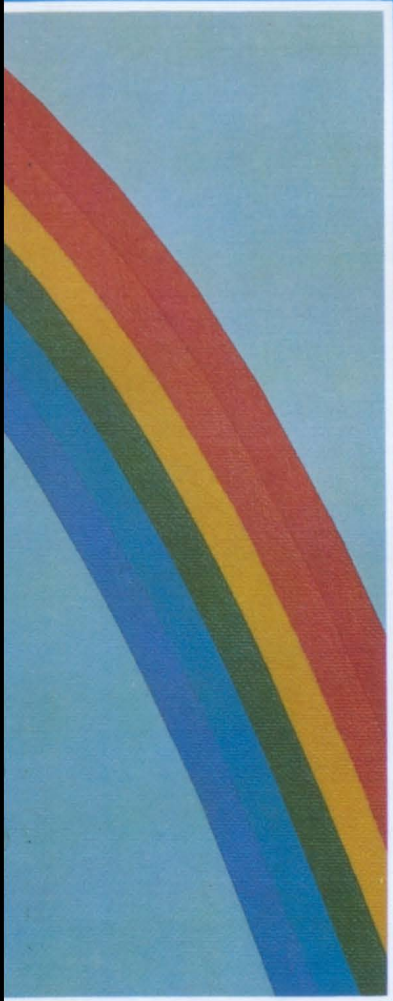

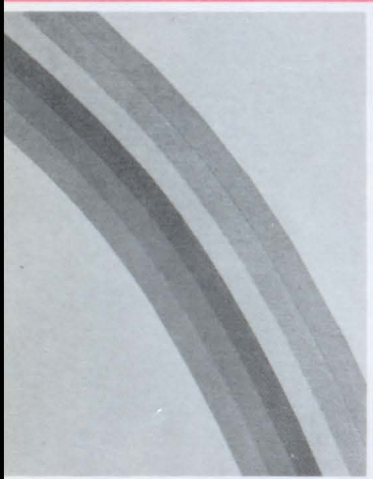

Green, the color of jealousy, which is better known as envy, pushes people to strive to improve themselves. School rivalries, academics, and contests are examples.

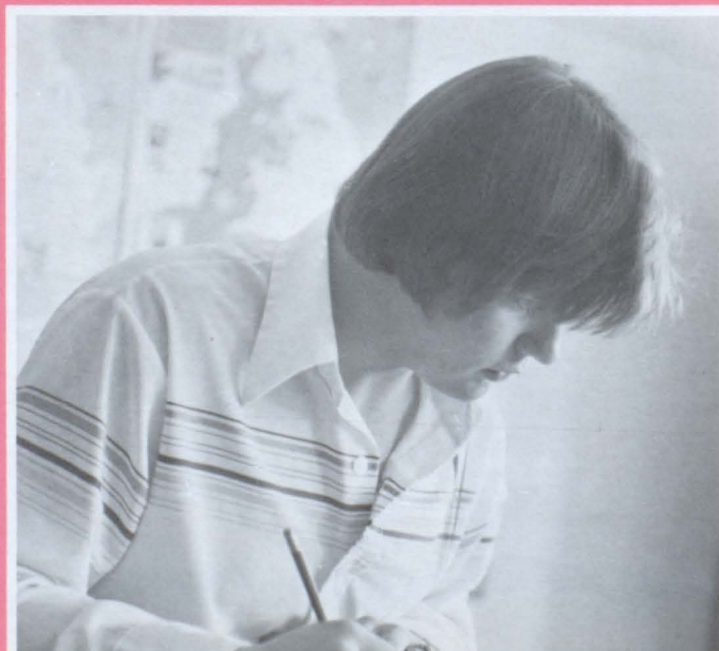

Blue, sometimes known as sadness or tears, is the most difficult feeling for people to cope with. A sense of loss is a blue feeling. Very often, blue feelings are the ones that bring people closer to each other as they share a common feeling. The loss of a classmate, ballgame, spirit contest, or band contest are examples.

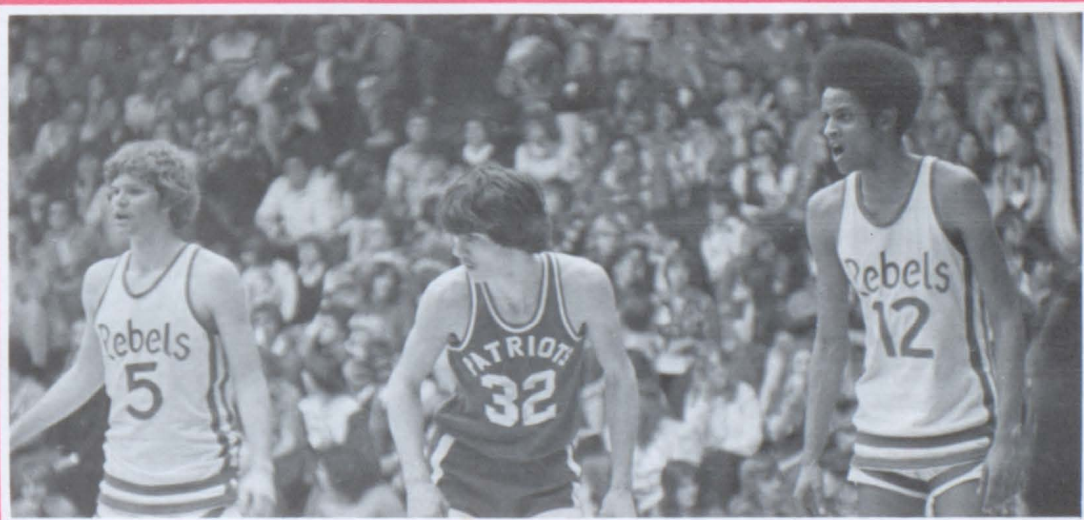

Violet is the color of confidence. It is when you know nothing can go wrong. It is feeling on top of the world when that special guy finally said 'Hi', or passing an impossible test with flying colors, breaking a school record, or just knowing you're yu and that is enough.

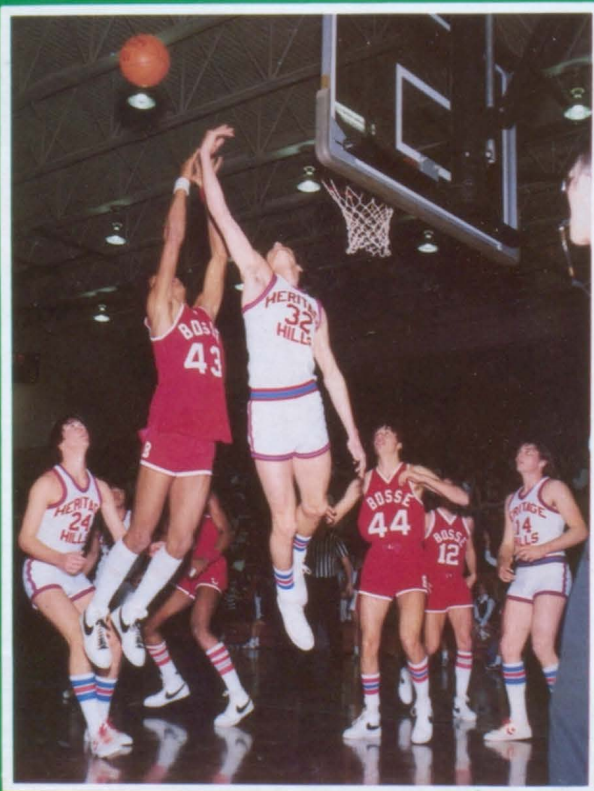

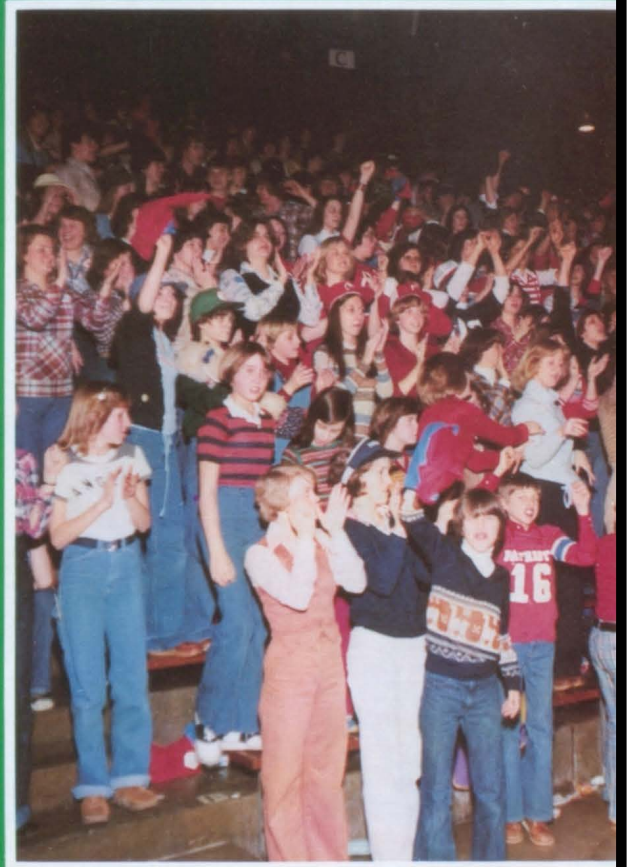

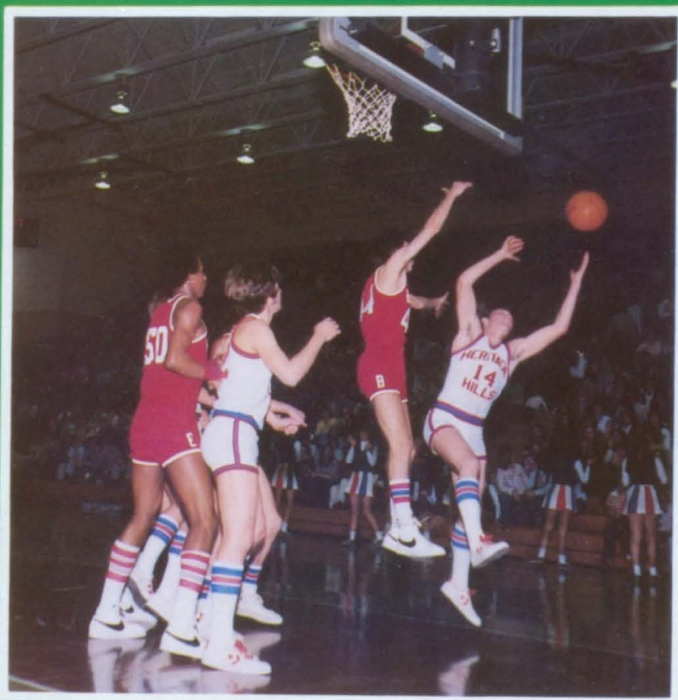

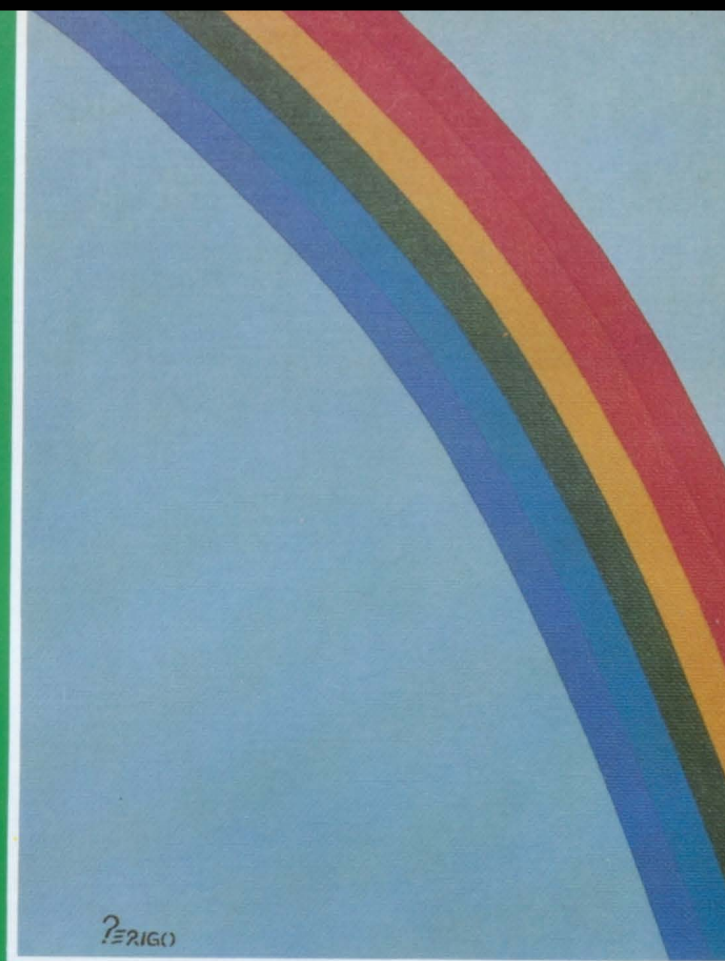

School days and nights were filled with moments we never want to forget: a class, a study hall or a ball game. Many special moments will not be in our book but in our memories. There were a few moments captured by the camera, when students were caught just being themselves.

Heritage Hills High School, in order to conserve energy, turned off most of the lights in the gym during sectional week. Therefore, rather than to leave this important section out, the yearbook staff decided to use the best pictures they had.

The Pats and the Rebels, went up the court.
To get a victory.
The Rebels fell down,
and lost the crown,
to the mighty Patriot team.

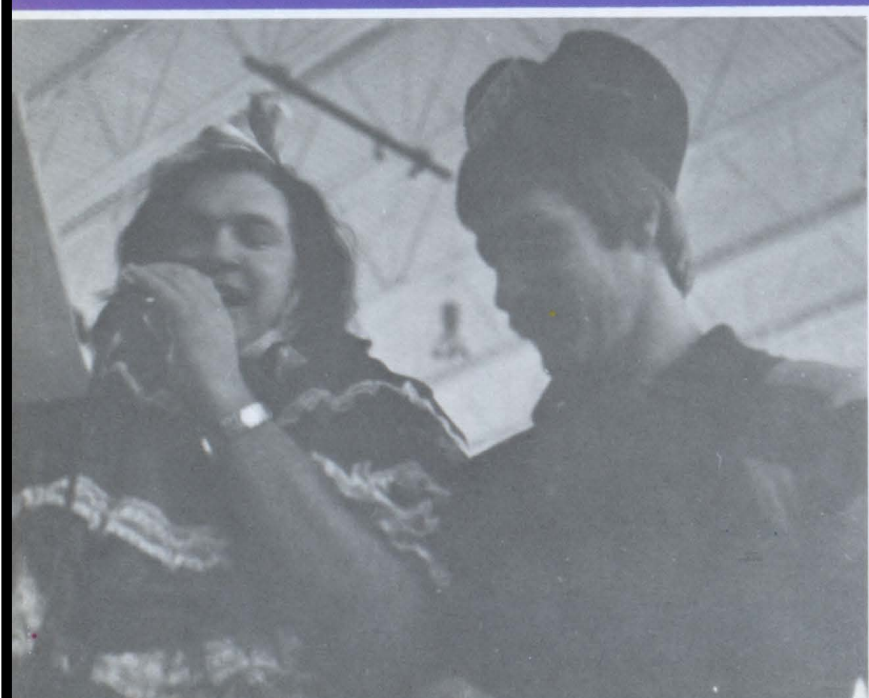

The '78 sectional was one of excitement and high expectations. School spirit was great and the four high school grades were ready for the sectional competition. Displays, posters and skits were prepared and students were anxious to learn who had the most spirit.

Until at last we come to the bittersweet moments of graduation where the end of the rainbow and the pot of gold lies. Dreams have come true; expectations are fulfilled. We leave knowing the future possesses more storms to hinder us and more rainbows to come.

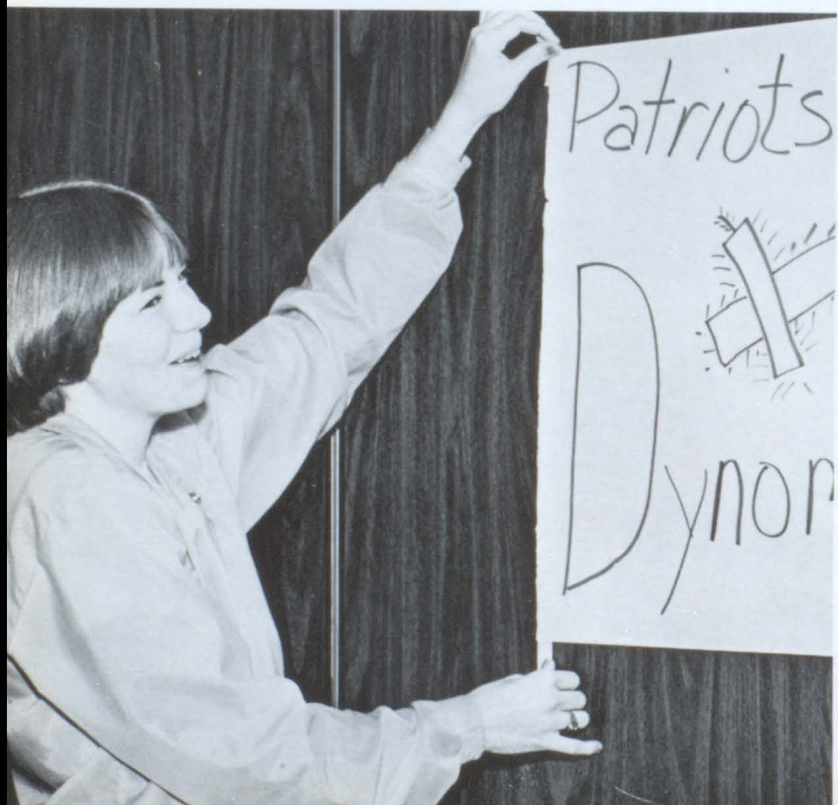

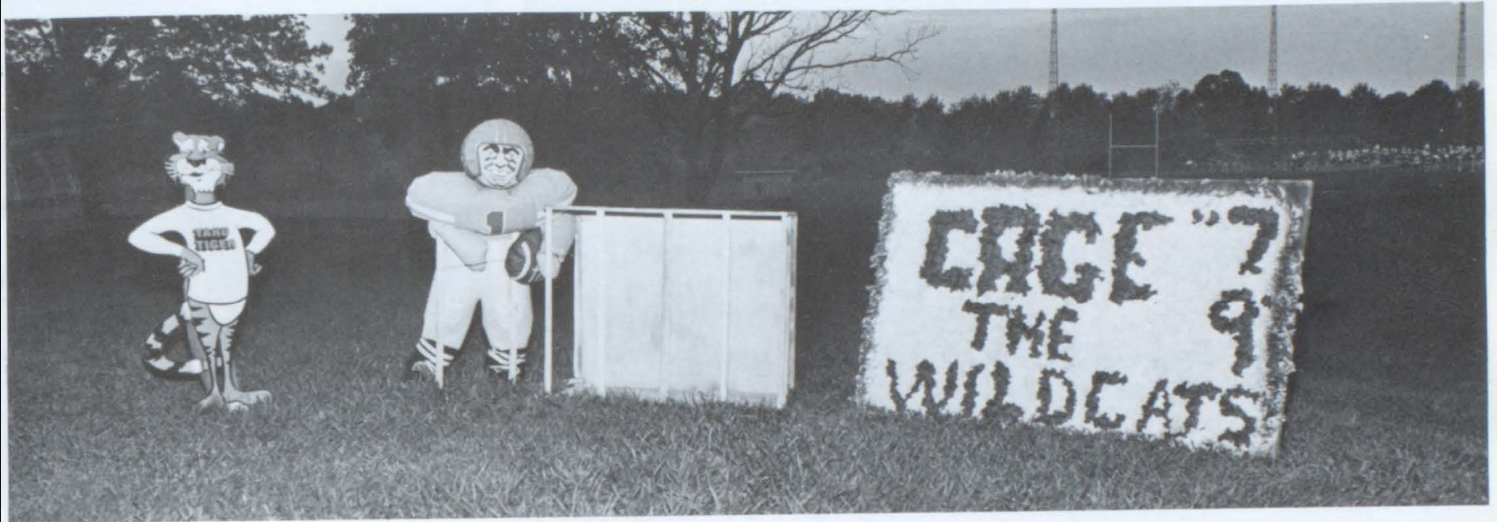

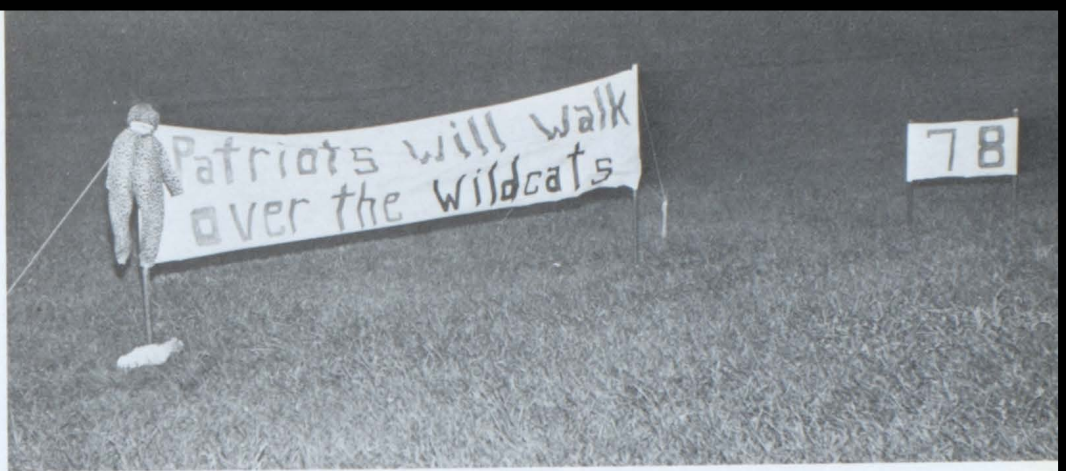

SCHOOL

School life consists of classes and parties; of studying for the big test and goofing off in the locker area; of losing a sports event and winning a queen contest; of being a cheerleader and being a spectator; of conversations with old friends and introductions with new ones; of writing for the newspaper and taking photos for the yearbook; of playing in the band and singing in the choir. No matter what it is specifically, it is being INVOLVED!

DREAMS TO REMEMBER...

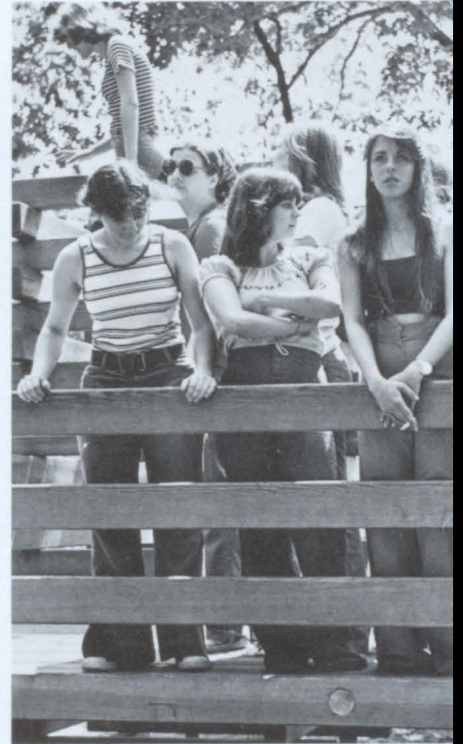

Under the regal guidance of Queen Stephanie Gengelbach and King John Ranger, the Junior-Senior Prom of 1978 was a huge success. The theme, 'Dreams', was illustrated by a wall of sparkling stars, a shimmering fountain and angel hair clouds. Couples danced to the dreamy music of Goliath. This May prom will long be remembered as it was a night that dreams are made of.

SENIOR PICNIC

The seniors enjoyed a beautiful day at Lincoln Park playing volleyball, frisbee, football, climbing on monkey bars, building sandcastles and playing on swing sets. Although the water was off limits, they did walk to the fire tower after a lunch of hotdogs and chips.

ON THE GO

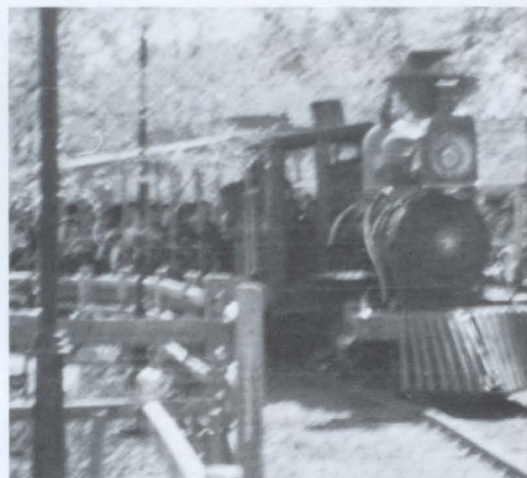

MEXICO

Eighteen students along with their sponsor, Mrs. Heneisen and five other chaperones spent eight exciting days in Mexico. The first stop was Mexico City where they explored the pre-Aztec pyramids, toured the Presidents' palace, and viewed the wall murals. Next stop was Acapulco where they enjoyed a yacht trip around the bay and a cliff diving expedition at La Quebrado. From Acapulco they headed to Taxco, the silver center of Mexico. Ending their trip on an exciting note the group visited Mexico City's famous bullfights before heading for home.

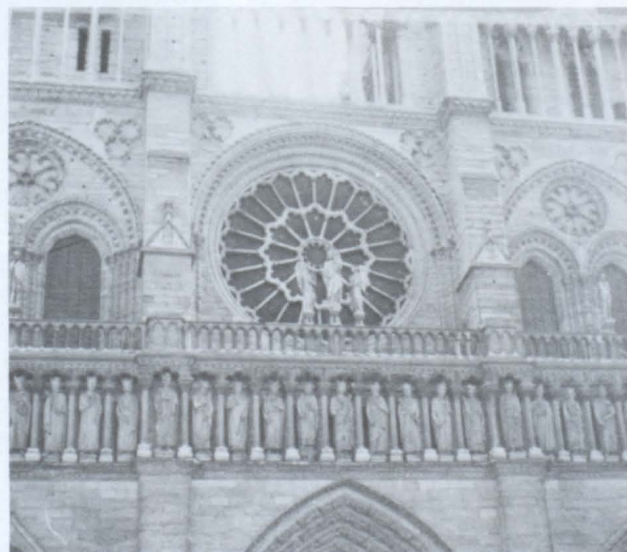

OPRYLAND

In April, the Heritage Hills High School Band attended a contest at Opryland, where they received an EXCELLENT rating. The band members then spent an enjoyable Saturday at the park riding the rides and eating the different cuisines which were offered. The most enjoyable rides were the rollercoaster and the log flume. A very tired but happy band returned home that weekend.

EUROPE

Europe was home away from home for nine Heritage Hills students and their chaperon, Mr. Nixon, for nine fun filled days. The plane landed in Paris, France, where the group spent two days touring the historical landmarks. While in Paris they visited the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame Cathedral, and the Arc of Triumphe. Then it was on to Germany, with a boat ride down the Rhine River, viewing the famous Rock of Lorelei. The last few days were spent in Switzerland where they toured the Swiss capital of Berne. On the return trip the group spent a day sight seeing in New York City.

Coaches lend a helping hand.

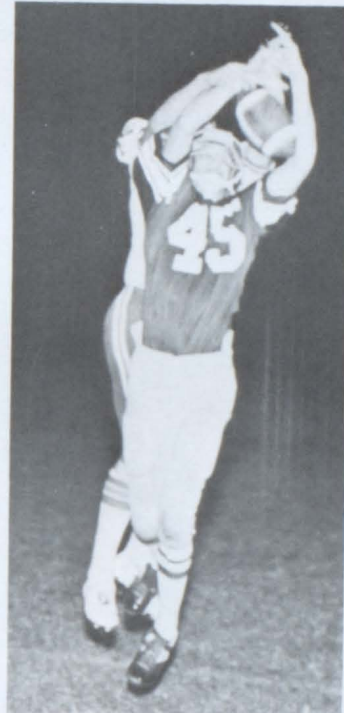

Coach Clayton instructs the team to get a touchdown.

The invincible Pat team captured the 1977 PAC conference title. This year's team was the first HHHS team in any sport to be ranked statewide. They ranked 16th in the final poll of the UPI and 8th in the final poll of the AP.

During his first year at HHHS, Coach Ashworth led the 1977 team in an 8-2 season record and an undefeated 7-0 PAC record. The Freshman and Reserve squads were undefeated and played hard aggressive football. They showed great potential and will no doubt provide HHHS with some great players in the future. Jim Neuman was selected as an alternate and Coach Ashworth as an assistant coach for the July All-Star game in Bloomington at IU Stadium.

NEW SCHOOL RECORDS!

The 77-78 boy's swim team stroked their way to the best overall season in Heritage Hills' history. The team set all new school records except for diving. Heritage Hills was the only school from this area that was invited to the Bedford North Lawrence invitational where they made a very impressive showing.

A pot of gold is supposedly found at the end of the rainbow. Our pot of gold is filled with the satisfaction of a job well done. We have endeavored to create a book of memories; one capturing moments of failure, of success, of despair and, primarily, of hope--hope of the year past and for the future to come.
