Road To Dome Ends One Short

The football team led by sixteen seniors advanced to Semi-State for only the second time in school history, the last time being in 1988. The goal at the beginning of the season was to be champions, and that was accomplished by winning the sectional and the regional. The teams' dream was to be able to play for a state championship. After the victory over North Posey in the sectional championship game, this dream became possible.

With losses to Owensboro Catholic, Heritage Hills, and the eventual State Champs Tri-West, the Rebels finished with an 11-3 record and were the second team in school history with 11 wins.

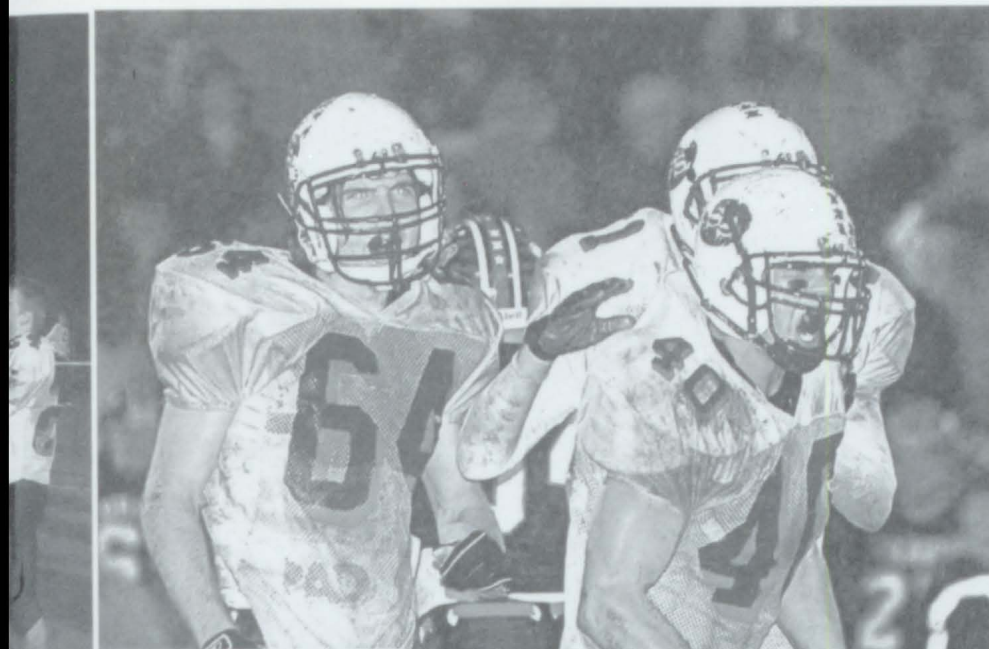

In the post-season, the Rebs beat North Knox, Southridge, and North Posey for a sectional championship. In the regional, the Rebs traveled to Brownstown Central, where they played in the mud and rain. The Rebels traveled three hours home that night after a 19-6 victory and a regional championship. The Rebs ended the season on the following week when they played Tri-West at home for the semi-state title.

S.S. Beats Tell City in Sectional

With the loss of only one senior last year, the returning Rebels more than doubled their season total. Some well-played games included the wins against Evansville Reitz, Evansville North, North Posey, and the famous first round Sectional game against Tell City. Other standout performances included the games against both Boonville and Owensboro Catholic. Despite their valiant effort, the Rebels came up just shy of the victory in both occurrences. The J V volleyball team also improved their team record.

Post Season Honors

Jones and Goldman Run in State Meet

Cross country this season was one for the memory book for many people. Two freshmen girls, Katelyn Jones and Andrea Goldman advanced to the state competition. Finishing 57th and 71st respectively was a great accomplishment for them both.

BOYS' SEASON

With the boys' team being led by senior Zach Boop and junior Andrew Jones, they advanced from the sectional. Then at regionals the boys did not run their best and were worried that they were not going to make it out, but they did by three points. This would be the fourth year in a row that the boys would be going to semi-state. In that competition they finished 20th.

GIRLS' SEASON

At the beginning of the season the girls' did not have enough people for a team. After they had a few more runners come out for the team, they were set for the season to begin. By the time sectionals were here, the number three runner for the girls got hurt. She still ran, but wasn't at her best. The girls' team finished the sectional 19 points shy of advancing to regional, but Jones and Goldman ran on to state.

Brittany Monar Wins PAC Title

GIRLS' TENNIS

The girls' team started the year winning three of their first four matches. With five seniors holding varsity spots, the team showed signs of brilliance early on but eventually bowed to tougher competition as the season progressed.

Despite the struggles of the rest of the team, senior Brittney Monar never lost a beat. In her third year at number one singles the two-time All-Conference selection enjoyed a record-setting season. She was the overall champion at the Gibson Southern Tourney. In addition, she became the first girl to win the PAC Tourney in school history and finished the season with a school-record 14 wins.

At number one doubles, Megan Smith and Hannah Singleton experienced success as they placed second at the Gibson Southern Tourney and advanced to the second round of the PAC. Jenna Parsely came out on top at number three singles and advanced at PAC as well.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys had one of their best seasons in recent years with seven wins. They were led by seniors Jordan York and Jon Rodgers, with Michael Martin at number one singles, Ryan Turner at number two and Steve Hays at number three.

Season highlights included the Princeton Invitational, where Steve Hays went undefeated, and the resounding 4-1 victory over Heritage Hills. Ryan Turner was the lone advancer at the PAC Tourney, defeating Heritage Hills in straight sets.

Swimmers Triple Wins Over Last Season

With new coaches on the scene, the Rebel Swim Team looked to turn things around. New head coach Jessica Metzger and assistant coach, Vicki Johnson, came to change the Rebels for the better.

Led by returning captains Jordan York, Jon Rodgers, Larissa Hurm, and Andrea Duley, the Rebels finished the season with a 7-9 record, almost tripling their wins from the previous season.

School records were broken by some swimmers, while other swimmers were drastically shedding time. This increase in the team's wins look as if there is no end in sight.

With sophomore swimmers Caleb Tomlinson, James Moninger, Eric Lockridge, MaQuade Eastham, Larissa Hurm, Stephanie Johnson, Lisa Boultinghouse, Jesse Small, Kari Weatherholt, and Amy Mullins returning, the Rebels should be real contenders for years to come.

"Being on the swim team during high school has helped me plan many goals that I never thought I could achieve."

The Lady Rebels Rewrite the Record Books

With a record of 19-5, the Lady Rebels set a high standard for teams to come. Not only did they set the record for most wins in a season with 19, they were also the co-champions in the PAC; they won the Spencer County Holiday Tourney, and broke the records for most consecutive wins in a season with 9, most points in a season with 1354 and best offensive average of 56.5 per game.

The team began their winning season by knocking off their first opponent by twenty-two points. They continued their streak all the way through the Spencer County Holiday Tourney, but hit a bump in the road when they lost to the 4th ranked Castle Knights by only one point.

Being defeated did not slow them down. The ladies worked hard for their next goal which was winning the PAC. Although they were defeated by PAC rival, Tell City, the Lady Rebels went on to share the title with Gibson Southern. Even though the Rebels defeated the Titans 69-43, they had to share the title because conference records were the same.

The season had to end sometime, but for the girls year, it was just too soon. The ladies made it all the way to the Tell City Sectional Championship game, but lost to Tell City in a hard fought battle. This loss was 1 of only 5 on the season.

JUNIOR VARSITY AND FRESHMEN

The junior varsity finished the season with a 9-9 record. They also went 5-2 in the PAC. The freshmen did well for their first year of high school play with a record of 8-5.

Rebels End Year By Defeating Strong Opponents

The season was a learning experience for the youthful Rebels. With only two players returning with previous varsity experience and only two seniors, the team appeared tentative for much of the season. Lacking a true inside presence for most of the year, the Rebels struggled at times with the taller opponents that come with playing the state's second-toughest schedule in Class 2A.

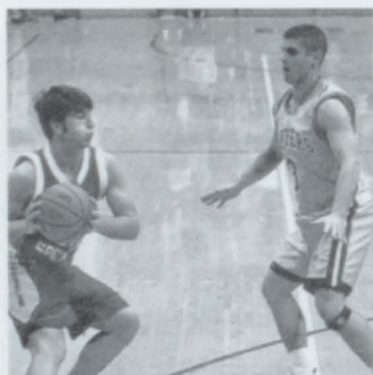

The Rebels continued to improve, though, as the season progressed and even showed signs of brilliance as they ended the regular season with big wins against Class 2A tenth-ranked Southridge and Class A fourth-ranked Tecumseh and headed into sectional play.

The season ended on a sour note, though, with a disappointing opening-round sectional loss to Crawford County. The Rebels finished the season with an overall record of 7-15.

ALL-CONFERENCE

Jesse Howell led Southwestern Indiana in scoring with an average of 24 points per game in being selected first-team All-Conference. In addition, Howell was named to the All-Southwestern Indiana second team and was an honorable mention All-Stater.

Both Brandon Neighbors and Todd Martin received All-Conference honorable mention honors.

Six Wrestlers Advance To The Regional Travis Cross goes on to Semi-State.

The year began slowly, but eventually it became a phenomenal follow up to last year's wrestling season with six wrestlers out of thirteen advancing to the regional. These were: junior Travis Cross - 215, senior Travis Newton - heavyweight, junior Steve Hays - 145, senior Tyler Lockyear - 140, senior Robbie Philhower - 152 and freshman Steven Weber - 171.

Out of these six Travis Cross, in the 215 bracket, went onto advance to semi-state where he gave his all but came up short in the end.

"For the number of wrestlers that we had this year, I think that we did really well. We lost a lot of team matches because of forfeits, but seventy-five percent of the team usually won," said Tyler Lockyear.

New Assistant Coach Laura Woods Joins the Cheer Squad

Laura Wood, a former South Spencer cheerleader, joined the staff as the choral music teacher and assistant cheer coach.

The arrival of Ms. Wood gave Mrs. DeWeese some added help with the multitude of responsibilities.

The squad graduated four seniors, one male and three females, who all enjoyed their years cheering.

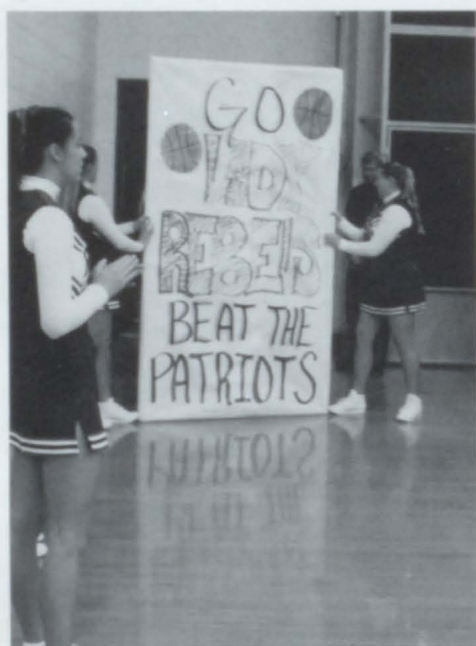

Derrick Rumley said, "It feels good to be the first guy cheerleader to go all four years at South Spencer."

Lori Davis said, "I really enjoyed the new tricks we did my senior year. My back tuck basket was very exciting."

Meagan Miles said, "I loved every minute of cheering. Mrs. DeWeese and the rest of the team became my family. I'll never forget being a part of a fantastic squad."

One cheerleader enjoyed cheering so much that she decided to continue doing it in college.

Shannon Knight said, "Being a cheerleader has prepared me for the future in so many ways. It taught me several life lessons that will be useful at USI, and later in life."

Year ends with Forest Park in a duel of the pitchers

The season started off slow with five straight losses. Then, with the sixth game, the girls finally got into the win column with a victory over Evansville Bosse.

Following the Bosse win the girls went on to defeat two opponents in the Southern Slam Tournament. They trounced Tecumseh and Gibson Southern before falling to Castle. Later in the season the girls went on to hand Castle a defeat.

A big highlight of the year was defeating Owensboro Catholic, one of the highest ranked Kentucky teams.

The season ended with a quick, but heart-breaking loss to Forest Park. The game went into eight innings, but lasted less than ninety minutes. The Rebels could just not seem to connect with the ball and final score was one to zero.

Conference Champs ————— Again —————

The Rebels dominated the conference again this year, going undefeated once again. The Rebels competed with strong pitching, solid defense, and outstanding hitting.

The Rebels, living up to their expectations, were ranked in the top 3 in state for most of the year. With many holes to fill in the line-up from last year, the team needed many people to step up. Senior Daniel Gardner did so behind the plate for the first part of the season, while sophomore Shawn Kuester recovered from his second knee surgery, and then did a tremendous job in the outfield.

Gardner, along with freshmen Todd Martin and Matt Boyd, Junior Ryan Turner and Sophomore Luke Meredith, filled those holes from the start.

Then, when Shawn rejoined an already potent hitting line-up that included Jeremy Kuester, Jesse Howell and Brian Zehr, the team became one of the area's most lethal teams.

In post season play The Rebels knocked off Southridge and then Forest Park to face North Posey in the final game of the sectional.

Both Teams Meet With Success

GIRLS' GOLF

ONE record broken. TWO PAC All Conference finishes. SIX reasons why the Lady Rebel Golf Team had a phenomenal year.

Team captains, Aimee Robinson and Megan Smith, had a season never to be forgotten. Robinson and Smith placed in the top eight at the PAC to earn All Conference honors. Robinson also broke the school record for the girls' by shooting a 43 at Boonville.

All of this would not have been accomplished without the help of underclassmen Courtney Nail, Tessa Warsinsky, Rachel Neal, and Kari Weatherholt. These four players really stepped up, improved, and contributed greatly to the team's winning season.

BOYS' GOLF

The guys had a winning season, finishing the year with a 5-4 record in one-on-one team vs. team matches. The team finished in fifth place in the PAC conference meet.

Besides improving individual golf scores, the team members improved grade point averages. The team used a plan devised by Arizona State University which included study sessions and a practice and skills development program.

GOLF IS OUR GAME; John Hurley, Kyle Jones, and Wil Frank are three sophomores who all plan to return next year.

No matter where you go from here...

No matter how far you get...

Look to this patch.

This is the patch of those who have gone, and still will rise.

This is the patch of those with that fire in their eyes.

The fire of freedom that brightly burns,

Freedom, for which your heart yearns.

Freedom to speak...

Freedom to do...

Freedom that means so much to you.

Freedom from fear of the unjust,

Freedom from tyranny's mighty lust.

This patch is a military patch you see, it belongs to someone who'll watch over you and me.

Not in some distant Fort named something or other, but right here at home, it could be your brother.

Wishing you all the best from Cco 1st battalion 152nd Infantry
"COUGARS"

If you would like information on how you can wear this symbol of freedom, or others like contact SGT Jason Gaynor at (812) 547-4558x17, or e-mail michael.gaynor@usarec.army.mil.

Good Times

The moments we spend with friends are the ones we will remember the most about our high school years.

REAL MEN KNOW HOW TO BARBECUE: Heath Lathery and Daniel Gardner help grill chicken for the barbecue held during FFA week.

LUNCH BUDDIES: Amanda Payne and Rick Werkmeister can be seen any day at lunch together.

FRIENDS: ABOVE Meagan Burden and Emily Parsley have fun at the after prom and RIGHT Aimee Robinson and Jessica May dress up like Sonny and Cher.

MAY I HAVE THIS DANCE? Ashley Sanders and Jeremy Kuester dance a slow dance together.
