THE 1958 MEMORIES

DALE HIGH SCHOOL

DALE, INDIANA

REMEMBER . . .

The first day of school when we greeted old friends and were assigned to new classes? The textbooks we studied and the examinations we crammed for?

The many activities that took place during the school year? The FHA-skating party and the falls we took? The Sock Hop and the music provided by our own D.H.S. students? The Senior Tea filled with warm Christmas spirit?

The teams we cheered? The football games, football queen, and the half frozen spectators? Our anxiety over the basketball team? The tourney at Tell City and the sectional final scores?

The graduating exercises and finally the last day of school?

With all of the confusion and excitement behind us we look back over a year we REMEMBER.

the clubs we joined the teams we cheered

the friends we made the knowledge we gained

These scenes are from "Cupid In Pig-tails" a three act comedy-farce by Jay Tobias. Under the direction of Mrs. Altman, fifteen juniors participated in the presentation on November 1.

SENIOR PLAY

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Fireworks thrills and howls of merriment could be heard coming from the Dale High School Gym on the night of April 11, 1958. This was the night when the Senior Class presented their class play, "Lunatics At Large", under the direction of Mrs. Esther Hoops. Besides being packed full of excitement, there was also a murder to make things more complicated. Wing, the erudite Chinese, who was reading up on Charley Chan, finally unmasked the guilty person, but not until after the audience is limp with excitement and just about "all laughed out."

Hands off.

Jack gets 5 for the Aces.

WOW!!!

JOHN SCHENK

transferred from Ohio and gave a very good account of himself in his first year out for football. John's pride and joy was lowering the boom on any enemy back attempting to run around his end.

DELMAR "JACK" AMOS

earned two varsity letters at halfback. Jack was a very good line backer and generally got the nod when we needed a yard or two.

LLOYD MARTIN

earned three varsity letters at guard. Lloyd was a very good blocker on offense and "he" still talks about the tackle he made in the Oakland City game.

MARVIN GRUNDHOEFER

didn't come out for football until his Junior year, but earned varsity letters in his last two years. Marvin had a habit of being the extra man in the other team's backfield. He received PAC Honorable Mention at end.

BILL BOCKSTAHLER

a four-year letter man and co-captain his Senior year. Bill was probably the finest all-around player on the squad. If Bill got his hands on a pass, he caught it. He was PAC Honorable Mention at end.

was a four-year letter man at guard and center. He was co-captain and signal caller his Senior year. Dennis was a starter in his last 29 games in high school. You might run around him but you would not run over him. He did a fine job at any position he was placed at and he was a captain, an inspiration to his teammates.

FOOTBALL

Coach Corne and Coach Graman

Coach Corne had a tough assignment in his first year at Dale because the Aces lacked experience and were weakened by numerous injuries. The Aces finished the season with a not-so-impressive record of 2 wins and 6 losses. In this case, the records and scores are deceiving. The Aces were always in the game right down to the wire. A "break" the right way could have spelled victory for the Aces.

FOOTBALL RECORD

The Aces began the season in fine fashion by overpowering Richland 12-6 in a non-conference battle at Dale.

Rockport spoiled our first conference game by getting off to an early lead and holding off the Aces to win a 34-6 decision.

Although outscoring Petersburg 8-6 in the second half, the Aces couldn't overcome the big lead the Indians held at halftime and lost 28-14.

On the first play from scrimmage, Scales ran 55 yards to the Oakland City 5 yard line but the Aces failed to score. This broke Dale's spirit and the Acorns were victorious 28-0.

After holding Cannelton scoreless the first half, the Aces weakened and the Bulldogs scored a 24-0 victory.

The Aces finally got their offensive attack to rolling and overpowered Richland 30-6. Scales led the attack with 2 touchdowns.

On the night of the coronation of Queen Ruthie O'Daniel, the Aces almost pulled the upset of the season against Owensville. Dale went ahead 7-6 on a touchdown and extra point by Bill Bockstahler with less than three minutes remaining in the game. But Owensville failed to quit and scored with seconds remaining to win 13-7.

In the last game of the season, Mt. Vernon ran wild and scored 48-20 victory. John Schenk scored twice and Marvin Grundhoefer once for the losers.

Hats off to a not-so-good season, but a swell coach and a great bunch of guys.

transferred from St. Meinrad and was not eligible until January 1. He is a good driver and a fine jump shooter.

JOHN SCHENK

transferred from Ohio and was not eligible until his Senior year. He provided very valuable bench strength.

Keith Conner, Steve Schroer

The Deuces, who were coached by Charles Wilder, were composed of underclassmen. Under Coach Wilder's very able leadership they attained a very impressive record. The Deuces' chief trump cards were Donnie Riggie and Howard Gripenstroh. These two, along with Ronnie Grundhoefer and Larry Corne, will no doubt help maintain Dale's tradition as a basketball power in Southern Indiana.

Gail Stephenson, Beverly Heim, Eleanor Spurlock, Donna Reinhart.

The Freshmen, coached by Charles Wilder, started the season in very fine style by winning 3 of its first 4 games. After this fine beginning, the roof caved in. Upon the graduation of one member of the squad to the Deuces, they lost the desire to win and proceeded to lose their last 7 games.

BASKETBALL RECORD

Dale started the season with a PAC win over Richland 58-37. Knott led the winners with 17 points.

The Dubois Jeeps upset Dale 58-54 in spite of a 19 point performance by Bill Bockstahler. Balanced scoring was the main factor as the Jeeps had four men in double figures.

The Aces rebounded from the Dubois defeat with a 63-38 win over Lynnville. Grundhoefer and Bockstahler led the Aces with 16 and 14 respectively.

Dale came up with a 56-51 win over arch-rival, Ferdinand. Knott topped the winners with 14 points as Grundhoefer and Bockstahler followed closely with 13 each.

The Aces blew hot and rocked Rockport by a stunning score of 75-37. Marvin Grundhoefer led the Aces with 16 points followed closely by Larry Knott with 14.

Dale journeyed to Evansville where they barely edged out North 47-43. Larry Knott's out-put of 21 points was high for the game.

Amos Lamar turned in a brilliant performance to propel the Aces over Owensville 55-43. Amos was high for the game with 18 points.

The Winslow Eskimos broke Dale's five game winning streak with a 62-61 double overtime win. Roger Erwin led the winners with 19 points. Larry Knott was tops for the losers with 28.

Starting out slow and finishing with a rush, the Aces stopped Chrisney 57-27. Marvin Grundhoefer was high with 12.

All five starters scored in double figures as Dale defeated Oakland City 73-59 in spite of a 34 point performance by Ed Cochren.

The Aces continued their winning ways as they blasted Cannelton 72-40. Larry Knott was the big gun for the Aces as he led all scorers with 28 points.

The Holland Dutchmen defeated the Aces 65-47. Holland was up and Dale was down and that is the story in a nutshell. Junior Buse was the Dutchmen's top gunner with 26 points.

Dale scalped the Petersburg Indians 57-40 as the Aces continued to roll toward another PAC crown. Knott and Kemp tied for scoring honors with 14 points each.

Art Taylor and his Lincoln Lions continued their mastery over the Dale Aces. The Aces rallied late in the fourth quarter but ran out of steam as the Lions managed to hold on to gain a 65-60 victory. Porter Meriwether led all scorers with 30 points.

The Aces blasted Tell City 64-40. Larry Knott was high scorer with 18 points.

Dale beat Ft. Branch 53-52 for the PAC Championship. Balanced scoring by the three "big" men was the main factor. Marvin Grundhoefer was high with 14 points. Larry Knott and Bill Bockstahler followed with 13 and 12 respectively.

HOLIDAY TOURNEY

In the afternoon session of the Holiday Tourney Dale managed to stop Tell City's rally and take a 54-53 victory. Dale met Jasper in the evening session.

Early in the game, Jasper held a 9 point lead but the Aces roared from behind and held an eleven point lead at the half. Both teams battled on fairly even terms the second half and Dale was able to gain a 6 point victory, 71-65. Larry Knott was the big gun for the Aces as he poured 28 points through the hoops.

BASEBALL

BACK ROW: M. Grundhoefer, C. Neighbors, J. Musgrave, P. Lambert, R. Kaiser, B. Reinhart, D. Grundhoefer, and Coach Bill Livengood. FIRST ROW: A. Lamar, B. Cassidy, R. Grundhoefer, T. Scales, M. Weller, K. Roos, P. Hunter, and Student Manager S. Schroer.

Tell City capitalized on pitcher, Bob Reinhart's wildness and won an extra inning thriller 4-3.

Marvin Grundhoefer turned in a brilliant relief job and earned a 2-1 decision over Troy.

Carl Neighbors pitched a 4 hitter, Bob Reinhart and Jerry Musgrave got two hits each to power the Aces to 6-1 win over Richland.

Roger Kaiser pitched a 1 hitter and singled home the winning run to gain a 2-1 victory over Troy.

Carl Neighbors pitched a 3 hitter and collected 2 hits to propell Dale over Chrisney 4-3.

Although his teammates committed 7 errors behind him, Marvin Grundhoefer managed to salvage a 12-8 decision over Rockport as Brother Dan supplied the bat power with 3 hits.

Carl Neighbors fired a 3 hitter and gained a 7-2 win over Ferdinand.

The Lincoln Lions continued their mastery of Dale by defeating the Aces 5-3 as Charley Vance pitched brilliantly in relief.

Marvin Grundhoefer turned in a stout-hearted relief job and collected 2 hits to receive credit for an 8-4 decision over Chrisney.

Dale backed up Carl Neighbor's pitching with a 10 hit attack to defeat Boonville 12-7.
