On oh Dale, On oh Dale,

Plunge right through that line.

SENIOR PLAY

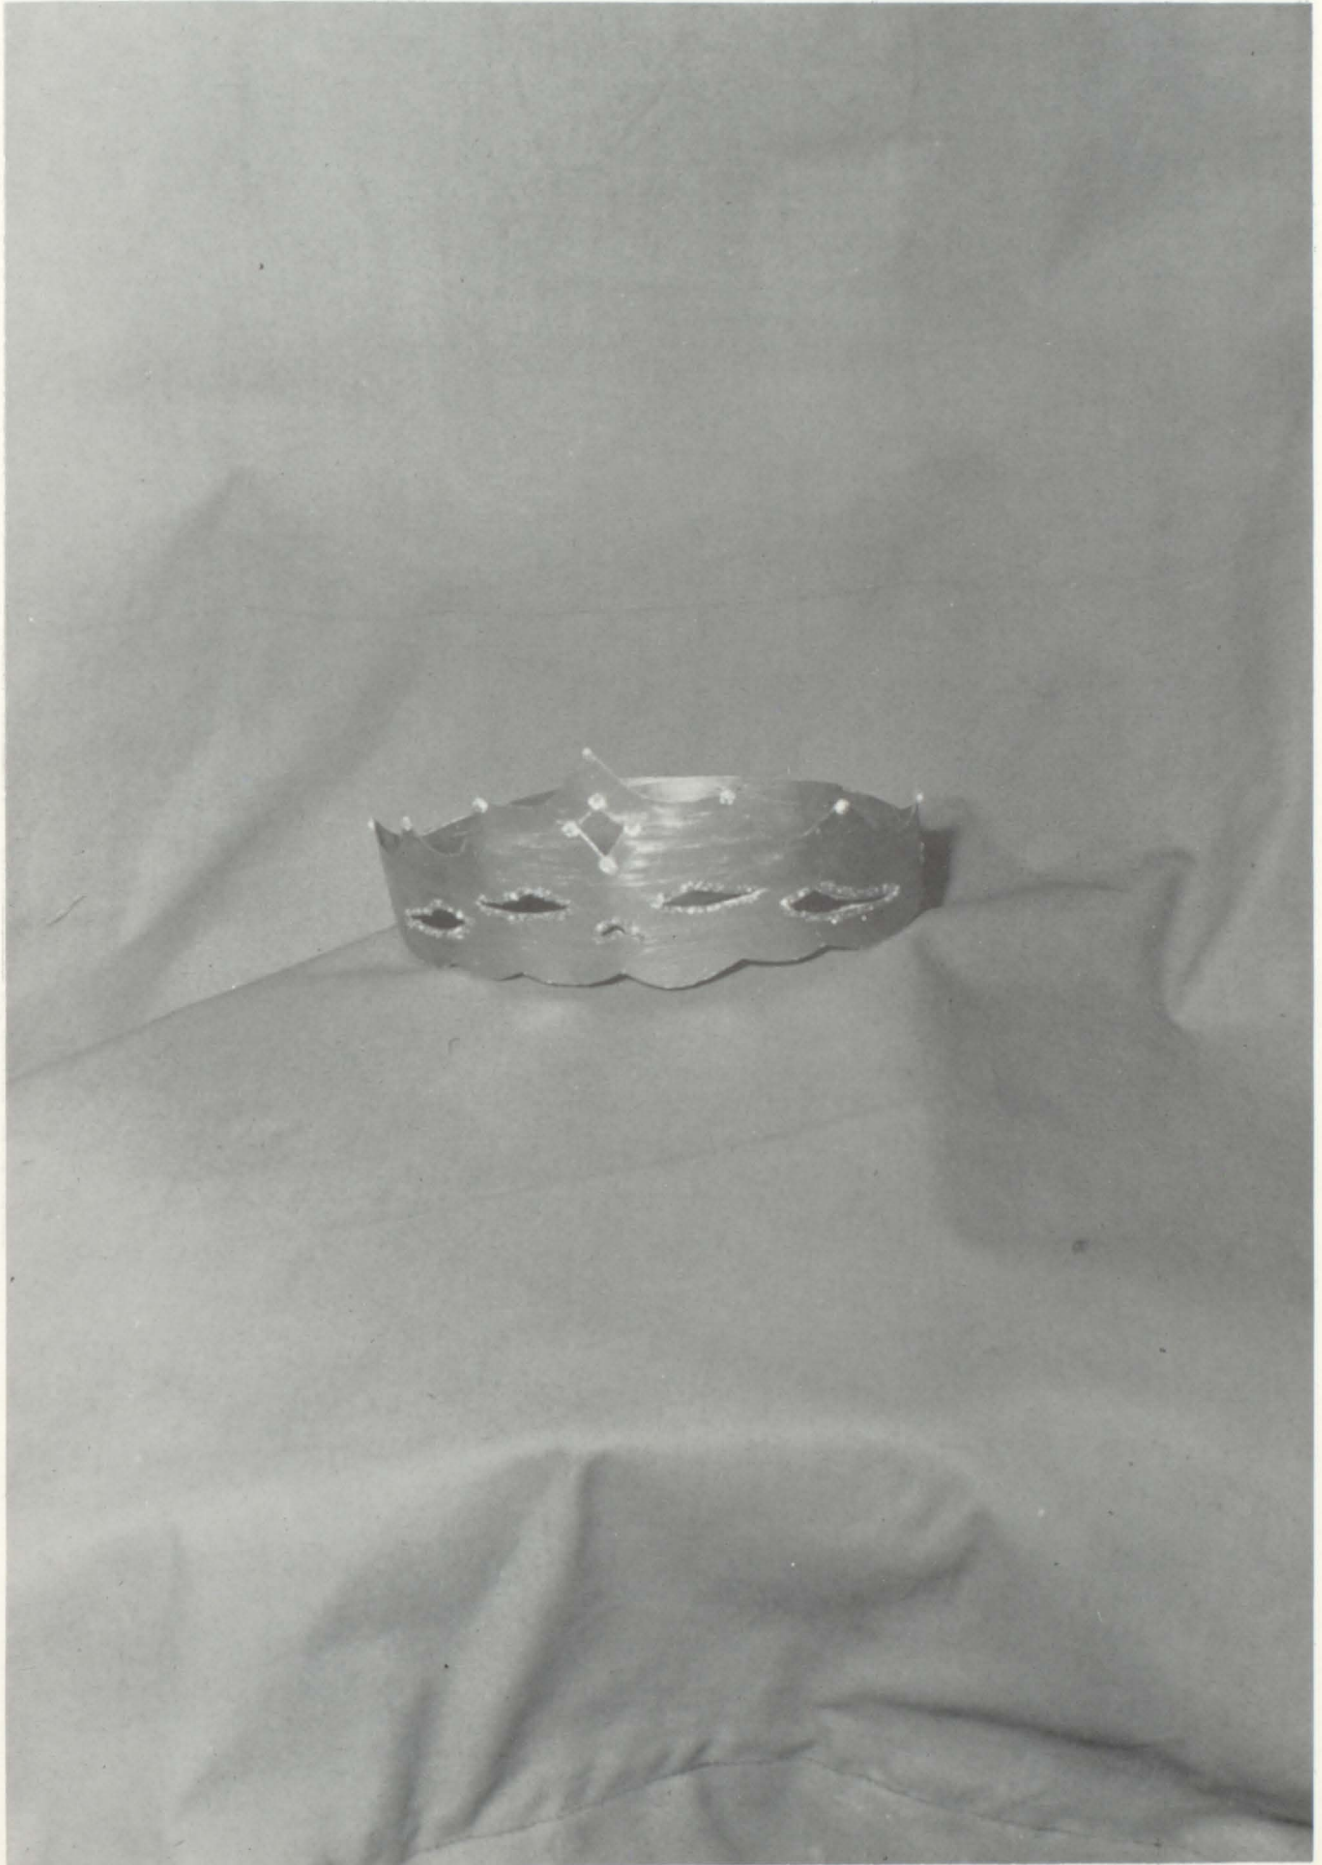

A committee composed of Vernita Lehr, Susanna Shelton, Judy Hile, David Grundhoefer, and Bill Winkler chose for the class play "Seventeenth Summer," a dramatization by Anne Coulter Matens of Maureen Daly's book of the same name.

"Seventeenth Summer" is the story of four sisters, each a character one meets every day as he walks down the street, along the school corridor, or into a restaurant. Each is faced with decisions and they are made by each alone.

The play centers around Angie whose seventeenth summer was "filled with a sort of happiness that almost made one sad, it is so wonderful." In Angie's words, "It wasn't as it's written in magazine stories and on morning radio serials, where the girl's family teases her about liking a boy, and she gets embarrassed and giggles." It is the simple story of a normal girl who simply grows up.

At the time the annual goes to press the cast has not been chosen, but the class is looking forward to the "try-outs" and finally to the production April 13.
